

CANADIAN HUMAN RIGHTS
TRIBUNAL

TRIBUNAL CANADIEN
DES DROITS
DE LA PERSONNE

BETWEEN/ENTRE:

RICHARD WARMAN

Complainant

le plaignant

and/et

CANADIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Commission

la Commission

and/et

WESTERN CANADA FOR US AND GLENN BAHR

Respondents

les l'intimés

BEFORE/DEVANT:

JULIE LLOYD

THE CHAIRPERSON/LA PRÉSIDENTE

LINE JOYAL

REGISTRY OFFICER/L'AGENTE DU GREFFE

FILE NO./N<sup>o</sup> CAUSE:

T1087/6805

VOLUME:

1

LOCATION/ENDROIT:

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

DATE:

2006-05-23

PAGES:

1 - 227

StenoTran

CANADIAN HUMAN RIGHTS TRIBUNAL/
TRIBUNAL CANADIEN DES DROITS DE LA PERSONNE

HEARING HELD IN THE QUEEN ELIZABETH ROOM, DELTA EDMONTON CENTRE, 10222 102 STREET, EDMONTON, ALBERTA ON TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2006,
AT 9:30 A.M. LOCAL TIME

IN THE MATTER OF a complaint filed by Richard Warman dated June 8, 2004, pursuant to Section 13(1) of the Canadian Human Rights Act against Western Canada For Us and Glenn Bahr. The complainant alleges that the respondents have engaged in a discriminatory practice on the grounds of religion, sexual orientation, race, colour, national and/or ethnic origin and disability in the matter related to the usage of telecommunication undertaking.

APPEARANCES/COMPARUTIONS

Richard Warman	on his own behalf
Giacomo Vigna Ikrame Warsame	on behalf of the Commission
Paul Fromm	on behalf of Glenn Bahr

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
Sworn: Stephen Camp	44
Examination by Mr. Vigna	44

EXHIBITS

NO.	DESCRIPTION	PAGE
HR-1	Mr. Stephen Camp's resumé	50
HR-2	Investigation Report of Glenn Bahr dated May 7, 2004, signed by Sergeant Camp	69
HR-3	Copies of documents printed downloaded from Stormfront website	78
HR-4	Three-page excerpt from Stormfront.org website	105
HR-5	Glenn Bahr's business card as the Alberta Chapter and WCFU president	149
HR-6	Map of Old Strathcona in the City of Edmonton	152
HR-7	Documents received from Constable Kristen Grabowski the R.C.M.P. in Leduc as a result of the request by Constable Camp	154
HR-8	CD ROM of Western Canada of Warman v. Glenn Bahr website provided by Stephen Camp	161
HR-9	CD ROM Entitled "Warman v. Glenn Bahr, Radio Interview with Peter Warren and Respondent."	182

1 Edmonton, Alberta

2 --- Upon commencing on Monday, May 23, 2006

3 at 9:30 a.m.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good morning,
5 everyone.

6 THE REGISTRAR: Good morning.

7 The case we are hearing today is in 8 the matter of a complaint filed by Richard Warman dated 9 June 8, 2004, pursuant to Section 13(1) of the Canadian 10 Human Rights Act against Western Canada For Us and 11 Glenn Bahr.

12 The complainant alleges that the 13 respondents have engaged in a discriminatory practice 14 on the grounds of religion, sexual orientation, race, 15 colour, national and/or ethnic origin and disability in 16 the matter related to the usage of telecommunication 17 undertaking.

18 Presiding as chairperson of the 19 inquiry is Julie Lloyd. The tribunal now calls for 20 appearances, please.

21 MR. VIGNA: Giacomo Vigna for the 22 Canadian Human Rights Commission.

23 MS WARSAME: Ms Warsame from the 24 Canadian Human Rights Commission.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good morning.

1 MS WARSAME: Good morning.

2 MR. WARMAN: Good morning. My name
3 is Richard Warman, W-A-R-M-A-N, and I am the 4 complainant.

5 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good morning.

6 MR. FROMM: Paul Fromm representing 7 Glenn Bahr. I have no instructions from Western Canada
8 For Us. It is a website according to the report done 9 by the Canadian Rights Commission. I am not 10 representing Western Canada For Us.

11 MR. BAHR: Glenn Bahr, the victim.

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good morning. I 13 have, of course, read the file. I have had your 14 statements and particulars. I have read the file 15 fairly carefully. It appears that there might be an 16 issue, a preliminary issue that needs to be dealt with.
17 Is there anything that anyone would like to deal with 18 before we get underway?

19 MR. FROMM: Yes. How do you want to 20 be addressed?

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: Madam Chair or 22 Madam is fine.

23 MR. FROMM: Madam, actually, a number
24 of issues. It is hard to know exactly where to start, 25 but perhaps the thing that interests everybody and that

1 is money.

2 I am not a lawyer. I was asked by 3 Mr. Bahr to represent him. As Mr. Warman has 4 frequently pointed out in correspondence, I am not a 5 lawyer. I have an interest in human rights issues, 6 particularly freedom of speech issue, but I would be 7 the first to say that Mr. Bahr really does need legal 8 counsel.

9 The problem is Mr. Bahr, because he 10 has undergone a series of police harassments over the 11 past few years and has lost his job in Alberta, had to 12 go to British Columbia, was brought back here, lost his 13 job in B.C., was in jail here, has eventually begun to 14 re-establish himself. He faces charges about the 15 identical material in criminal court under Section 319
16 of the Criminal Code and has a lawyer in that regard, 17 but is not able to afford any legal expenses in this 18 case.

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm, I 20 have read that letter, your submissions with respect to 21 interim costs and I read your application, particularly 22 relying on the Okanagan decision of the Supreme Court
23 of Canada. And I have also read Member Jensen's 24 ruling, so we do have a ruling on the matter of 25 funding.

1                   So perhaps you could go to your next 2 preliminary issue.

3                   MR. FROMM: I am asking that you 4 revisit it because the ruling said that the member had 5 no authority to order the Commission to provide interim 6 expenses.

7                   THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm, and 8 I agree with that ruling. I have read the Okanagan 9 decision and I believe that Member Jensen was correct, 10 and so I am not going to be revisiting that particular 11 issue at this time.

12                  MR. FROMM: So I only can put on the 13 record that Mr. Bahr will be inadequately defended.

14                  THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

15                  MR. FROMM: And we will do the best 16 we can within the limits of our knowledge.

17                  THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

18                  MR. FROMM: Within the complete 19 limits of a zero budget. We are up against the entire 20 might of the Canadian state, three lawyers against -- 21 against an amateur.

22                  THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm.

23                  MR. FROMM: It is completely
24 prejudicial. Mr. Bahr basically will not be properly 25 defended. I think that should be on the record. I

1 don't think that is fair.

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

3 MR. FROMM: Secondly, I suppose I
4 have already made this submission. I am under no 5 instructions from any outfit called Western Canada For 6 Us.

7 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, thank you.

8 MR. FROMM: The organization as such 9 apparently was disbanded in May of 2004. There is 10 nobody to give instructions. By the report of the 11 Canadian Human Rights Commission, it is not an 12 organization but a website and a website, in our 13 submission, is not a legal entity, it is not a 14 corporation and it is not an individual.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: Again, Mr. Fromm, I 16 have had Member Jensen's ruling with respect to 17 dismissing the action with respect to the second 18 respondent, and certainly that is something I expect to 19 hear submissions from you about when the evidence draws 20 to a close. So I am aware of that issue as well.

21 MR. FROMM: There is also the further 22 matter of Mr. Bahr's rights. He, as you know, faces a 23 criminal charge under Section 319. There was a 24 preliminary hearing that began in January of this year
25 and is scheduled to continue in October. There is a

1 publication ban in regards to that. Mr. Bahr's lawyer,
2 Mr. Christie, has strongly advised him not to testify
3 in this case and to retain his right to remain silent.
4 On the other hand, his interests in this case might be 5 best served, perhaps, by testifying and we, again, seek 6 an adjournment until the criminal matter has been 7 settled.

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm and,
9 again, that matter was canvassed earlier by the case 10 managing member and we are going ahead with the hearing 11 today.

12 MR. FROMM: I want to put my strong
13 objection on the record. Mr. Bahr is not only 14 penniless but further stripped of his rights.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

16 MR. FROMM: On to the next point, 17 Member Jensen did indicate that the Canadian Human 18 Rights Commission was supposed to have all of its 19 disclosures, particularly the disclosures having to do 20 with Officer Camp, who I understand is going to be the 21 best witness, and that was to be in by Friday a week 22 ago, by the 12th.

23 I received nothing, despite several 24 letters, until I received a package by registered mail 25 on Wednesday.

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: Wednesday of last 2 week?

3 MR. FROMM: Of last week, three days
4 late. Then on Friday, I think about 150 fax pages of 5 further evidence having to do with Officer Camp's case.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: From whom did you
7 get that material, please?

8 MR. FROMM: The Commission.

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: Counsel for the 10 Commission, why the delay? Is it true, first, that he 11 received that much material so recently?

12 MR. VIGNA: It is true, but I will 13 explain, Madam Chair.

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

15 MR. VIGNA: First of all, the 16 information -- the package that he received, in my 17 view, I will submit respectfully, was stuff we had 18 sought from the respondent in the criminal trial and 19 there was an objection to the disclosure of the lawyer 20 Doug Christie and that because of that it was third 21 party, Member Jensen didn't rule on that issue by 22 saying it was a third party that had the information in 23 question. So we didn't have the information.

24 THE CHAIRPERSON: So the material you 25 provided Mr. Fromm was material that you obtained from

1 Mr. Fromm?

2 MR. VIGNA: Actually, since we 3 weren't able to get it from Mr. Fromm, because, in our 4 view, Mr. Fromm in the criminal proceedings got 5 disclosure from the Crown, so we knew that he should 6 have had this material. We weren't able to get it from 7 him, so we asked to get it from the witness, Stephen 8 Camp. We issued a subpoena duces tecum and we got the 9 material Tuesday and we sent it right away. That is 10 why he got it Tuesday.

11 Then on Thursday I met with 12 Mr. Stephen Camp to prepare for the hearing and there 13 was some pictures that were given to me primarily, and 14 as soon as I got that, I saw there was additional 15 stuff, I faxed it to Mr. Fromm immediately the next day 16 so that he would get it.

17 But my point of to you, Madam Chair, 18 is this is not new material. It is stuff that he had 19 from the criminal trial that we are still trying to 20 obtain from Mr. Fromm and ultimately Mr. Bahr, but 21 there was an objection and an argument made that it was 22 the lawyer Mr. Doug Christie that had it and it wasn't 23 the individual respondent here, so therefore the Member 24 Jensen did not rule in ordering the third party, Doug 25 Christie, to give us this disclosure.

1                   So we got it through the back door, 2                   you could say, by sending a subpoena duces tecum to 3                   Mr. Camp. Mr. Camp, we also -- we tried to get it as 4                   quickly as possible, we sent several letters, but you 5                   have to understand he was away from the office and he 6                   had to make copies. When we got it ultimately, which 7                   was last Tuesday, we made the copies, I took the flight 8                   to come to Edmonton, and the next day, which is the 9                   Wednesday, he got the material. The additional 10                  material which they say he got on Friday is stuff I got 11                  on Thursday when I met Mr. Camp.

12                  THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.
13                  Mr. Fromm, which of those documents, and perhaps we 14                  will need to leave this for a moment, but which of 15                  those documents had you or your client never 16                  encountered before, that were completely new?

17                  MR. FROMM: First of all, I never had 18                  these documents. The lawyer in the criminal case is 19                  Doug Christie.

20                  THE CHAIRPERSON: Mr. Bahr's lawyer
21                  in the criminal case?

22                  MR. FROMM: Mr. Bahr's lawyer in the 23                  criminal case is Doug Christie. I never had these 24                  documents and I have been seeking them all along to 25                  know what the documents, what the proposed evidence

1 was, the police reports, any other documents that might 2 be visited by Officer Camp. I need these to prepare.

3 THE CHAIRPERSON: And were you 4 unable -- did you make inquiries yourself of 5 Mr. Christie or of Mr. Bahr?

6 MR. FROMM: Well, the -- I wanted to 7 know what it was the Commission was going to present.
8 As we have been told repeatedly the criminal and the 9 Canadian Human Rights Commission cases are separate.
10 So I had no material until last Wednesday when I 11 received a Priority Post package with some material and 12 I received further faxes, which also included passages, 13 I think, from some of the books that were downloaded 14 from the Western Canada For Us website. These are 15 passages that I assume are ones Officer Camp wants to 16 address.

17 There is no possible way in that 18 limited time I could have prepared, so I am seeking an 19 adjournment for a month.

20 THE CHAIRPERSON: Mr. Warman?

21 MR. WARMAN: Thank you, Madam Chair.
22 I would just note one or two things, if I may. The 23 question to me is not so much whether these materials 24 were within Mr. Fromm's possession or whether they were 25 in Mr. Bahr's possession and Mr. Bahr, as the 1           originator of the website, as -- Mr. Bahr as the 2           originator of the website, as the originator, we 3           allege, of the material or much of the material or in 4           control of the material had access to the website, has 5           access to the material.

6                            Much of the documentation is simply 7           pictures of items that were seized during the police 8           raid on Mr. Bahr's residence, therefore it is my 9           respectful submission that there was no element of 10          surprise there whatsoever.

11                           The question with regard to the 12          excerpts from documents that were present on the 13          website, that was already disclosed to Mr. Fromm and 14          Mr. Bahr during the electronic -- the initial 15          Commission's electronic disclosure. Those were 16          contained on the CDs and they were contained in 17          electronic format in their full text.

18                           THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. So the only 19          new material -- are you telling me that the only 20          material that has not been previously disclosed were 21          photographs that were obtained during a raid on 22          Mr. Bahr's residence? Is that the only -- are those 23          the only documents that haven't been disclosed?

24                           MR. WARMAN: Sorry, it was the 25          Commission who disclosed the documents, so I will let 1           them perhaps answer that.

2                               Perhaps I could just make one final 3 point, if I may.

4                               THE CHAIRPERSON:   Yes.

5                               MR. WARMAN:   I would just refer you, 6 Madam Chair, to the Kyburz decision of the Tribunal.
7 There was a three-member panel including the Tribunal
8 Chair now, at the time new Federal Court Justice 9 McTavish in which he dealt with the issue of late 10 disclosure.

11                               There were materials that were 12 submitted sort of at the last moment and what the 13 Tribunal said at that time was that even if there was a 14 question that Mr. Kyburz had not, in fact, received 15 those documents as part of the disclosure before, the 16 Tribunal would have been prepared to enter those 17 documents on the basis that Mr. Kyburz was the 18 originator of that material and therefore could not 19 claim any element of surprise.

20                               THE CHAIRPERSON:   Thank you.

21                               MR. WARMAN:   Those are my 22 submissions.

23                               MR. FROMM:   One of the key elements 24 of the package I received on Wednesday was very 25 extensive Police Report and, I believe, an Affidavit --

1 I believe it is an Affidavit that Officer Camp swore to 2 get the warrant that was used to effect the search of 3 Mr. Bahr's residence.

4 These are not documents that Mr. Bahr
5 originated. I needed access to this material in order 6 to adequately prepare for the cross-examination of him.
7 I believe the Commission is calling just two witnesses, 8 and in my estimation and submission, Officer Camp is 9 probably the most important. He is the one who 10 investigated the case.

11 Now, in essence, I had from late 12 Wednesday afternoon to begin to look at the 13 Commission's evidence, despite Member Jensen's ruling 14 that this material had to be in the previous Friday.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: So I am hearing
16 that the Commission's evidence is that they obtained 17 and disclosed this material as soon as -- as quickly as 18 they were able to do it. I am also hearing that much 19 of the material would be familiar to your client. I am 20 also hearing that there is an Affidavit that was sworn 21 by Mr. Camp that wasn't disclosed previously.

22 I understand, though, that Mr. Camp 23 is going to be a witness, and so that evidence will be 24 coming in from his testimony, presumably at least some 25 of it, whether or not the Affidavit was previously

1 disclosed.

2 So, so far, I am not convinced that I
3 have got a significant concern with respect to 4 prejudice. Have you got something to say?

5 MR. VIGNA: No, I just wanted to 6 mention that there a letter in the Tribunal file where 7 we mentioned we were going to seek all this information 8 and that is when we were asking the respondent to give 9 us that, so there is absolutely no element of surprise, 10 and I forgot to mention that.

11 As far as the May 12th date, from my 12 memory, I don't remember there was that date set. So I 13 would maybe encourage the Tribunal to look if there is 14 a May 12th date.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: I know from 16 reviewing the file disclosure has been an issue for 17 some time, and I have read Member Jensen's directions 18 with respect to disclosure, so it certainly has been a 19 live issue.

20 At this point, I am content to 21 proceed with the hearing. After that witness has 22 concluded their testimony, certainly, Mr. Fromm, I 23 would be happy to hear from you with respect to 24 particular elements of documents that you have got a 25 difficulty with in terms of disclosure. If it is

1 necessary for me give you a little bit extra time to 2 prepare to cross-examine either of the two witnesses 3 that are put forward, I will entertain that motion at 4 that time.

5 So if there is nothing further, I
6 would like to proceed with opening statements.
7 Mr. Fromm?

8 MR. FROMM: Yes, actually, a couple
9 of things further. Under the Canadian Human Rights Act 10 there is a provision for mediation.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

12 MR. FROMM: And Mr. Bahr, when he was 13 speaking on his own behalf, asked on a number of 14 occasions, and when I got involved, I specifically went 15 on the record of wanting mediation.

16 There was a conversation back in 17 March about this in one of our conference calls, and 18 when I pursued it with the Commission, they thought 19 that we had rejected mediation from comments I made.
20 So since then I have written them three further letters 21 saying that Mr. Bahr is prepared to have this mediated.
22 We want the Commission to use its good offices.

23 Both sides have taken initial 24 positions. Mr. Warman took a very strong position, 25 Mr. Bahr had a position as well. We were hoping that

1 the Commission could perhaps help the two sides meet in 2 the middle. And I can put this -- I can give copies of 3 the correspondence.

4 I have received nothing further after 5 three letters from the Commission seeking to work for a 6 settlement to save the taxpayers money and Mr. Bahr 7 time off work and so on.

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you,
9 Mr. Fromm. Certainly the Act that the Commission and 10 the Tribunal encourage people to mediate these concerns 11 and come to some reconciliation. However, that is 12 something that has to be consensual, and at this point 13 we are ready to commence an adjudication. The parties 14 are welcome during breaks or at any time to reach a 15 resolution and tell me that they have, but at this 16 point, the hearing has been set and the hearing will 17 proceed.

18 MR. FROMM: Isn't it up to the 19 Canadian Human Rights Commission to take an active 20 role? That is what we were seeking them to do, rather 21 than for us to call Mr. Warman. We are not supposed to 22 contact him directly anyway. We were looking for the 23 Canadian Human Rights Commission to take a more active 24 role to try to bring the two parties together.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Tribunal is an

1 entity that is quite separate from the Commission.

2 MR. FROMM: No, the Commission --

3 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, the Tribunal
4 is an entity quite separate from the Commission and I 5 can't make an order directing the Commission to do or 6 not do anything.

7 So, again, let us carry on. I would 8 like to start with opening statements, please.

9 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I just would 10 like to ask an exclusion of witnesses before we start.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, thank you, I
12 will give that order.

13 MR. VIGNA: And I think Mr. Warman
14 will start and I will follow.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: That is fine.
16 Mr. Warman?

17 MR. FROMM: Just before, will copies 18 of these proceedings will available to us and when?

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am sorry, copies
20 of --

21 MR. FROMM: Will transcripts of these 22 proceedings be available to us and when?

23 THE CHAIRPERSON: Transcripts will be 24 available and, Madam Registrar, how long will it take?

25 THE REGISTRAR: Ten days.

1 MR. FROMM: And how will they be 2 available?

3 THE REGISTRAR: I normally distribute 4 them by e-mail. If you don't have an e-mail address, I 5 can give you a copy of the diskette.

6 MR. FROMM: Well, you know I have an 7 e-mail address.

8 THE REGISTRAR: Yes.

9 MR. FROMM: So in about ten days'
10 time?

11 THE REGISTRAR: Yes. Ten days after 12 the end of the hearing.

13 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, Section 14 13(1) of the Canadian Human Rights Act states as 15 follows:

16 "It is a discriminatory practice
17 for a person or group of persons
18 acting in concert to communicate 19 telephonically or to cause to be 20 so communicated, repeatedly, in 21 whole or in part by means of the 22 facilities in the 23 telecommunication undertaking
24 within the legislative authority
25 of Parliament, any matter that

1 is likely to expose a person or 2 persons to hatred or contempt by 3 reason of the fact that that 4 person or those persons are 5 identifiable on the basis of a
6 prohibited ground of 7 discrimination."

8 Subsection (2) begins:

9 "For greater certainty, 10 subsection (1) applies in 11 respect of a matter that is 12 communicated by means of a 13 computer or group of 14 interconnected or related 15 computers, including the 16 internet..."

17 At its core, Section 13 of the 18 Canadian Human Rights Act is simply a modern-day 19 extension of the Golden Rule. Thou shalt not use the 20 telephone or the internet to spread hate propaganda 21 against thy neighbour.

22 The Supreme Court in Taylor has 23 defined hatred and contempt. For hatred, they have 24 stated that this implies an expression of extreme ill 25 will, that the targets of the messages have no

1           redeeming qualities, and it invokes feelings of 2           detestation, enmity and malevolence.

3                           For contempt, the Supreme Court has 4           said it equals the of condition of being condemned or 5           despised, of dishonour or disgrace and of looking down 6           upon or treating as inferior the object of one's 7           feelings.

8                           I believe that by the end of this 9           hearing, you will have ample evidence before you to 10          conclude that the material put forward on the internet 11          by Glenn Bahr and the group Western Canada For Us meets 12          this test in spades.

13                          In order to properly consider the 14          context of the hate messages that will be put before 15          you, it is important to have an understanding of the 16          historical origins of Western Canada For Us and 17          Mr. Bahr's role in it.

18                          The evidence will show that Western 19          Canada For Us appears to have begun as a disparate 20          group of individuals in western Canada who first began 21          to communicate in the Canadian forum section of a U.S.
22          neo-Nazi website called Stormfront.org.

23                          Stormfront.org has been referred to 24          as the mother of all internet hate sites and is 25          credited with being the first real such hate site when

1           it began operation in 1995. It is now a global 2           internet forum where neo-Nazis from all over the world 3           can go to chat, meet each other and make plans, and as 4           with many forums, there are separate sections, and 5           there is one for Canadians.

6                            Although not initially directed 7           towards the establishment of Western Canada For Us, 8           limited attempts at organizing neo-Nazis in and around 9           Edmonton began in July of 2003 by Peter Kouba and a few 10          other individuals.

11                           Their first attempted event was what 12          was described on Stormfront as a "white pride rally" to 13          be held on August 23rd on the front steps of the 14          Alberta legislature. The term "white pride" is often 15          used by members of the neo-Nazi movement who wish to 16          disguise their true beliefs by saying really they are 17          just proud of being white, not unlike blacks or the 18          black pride movement, for instance.

19                           The organizer attempted to promote 20          this lie by saying that the rally was not about hate, 21          racism or oppression, but that this was nothing more 22          than duplicity was easily demonstrated by the swastika 23          flags that accompanied all of the main organizer's 24          postings on Stormfront.

25                           What was important about countering

1           this hate group organizing, however, is that young 2           anti-racists in Edmonton found out about the proposed 3           rally and started doing some organizing of their own 4           using the internet as a means to quickly bring together 5           opposition. Their efforts paid off, as on the day of 6           the rally, the neo-Nazis had less than half a dozen 7           people, while the anti-racists came out in force with 8           over 75 people. The same thing later happened when 9           there was an attempted rally in Winnipeg.

10                           The neo-Nazis had suffered 11           embarrassing defeats and retreated back to the internet 12           to lick their wounds. These examples of young people 13           taking leadership roles in community efforts to combat 14           hate group activity are extremely heartening.

15                           Unfortunately, the hate mongers came 16           back in January of 2004 and now in addition to Peter 17           Kouba, another individual named Glenn Bahr began to 18           assume a leadership role.

19                           Mr. Bahr stated that, dead or alive, 20           Hitler was his Fuhrer or leader. Mr. Bahr described 21           former Justice Minister Irwin Cotler as a "dirty Jew."
22           Mr. Bahr wrote on the internet that gays and lesbians 23           "should be terminated along with retards and any other 24           degenerates that nature would do away with in the 25           wild."

1 Peter Kouba dreamed of an all-white 2 homeland that would begin with his goal to organize an 3 all-white municipality in Alberta. He talked of 4 aboriginals as "subhumans" and wrote that higher rates
5 of AIDS infections in the aboriginal community 6 represented "some good news" because it meant that they 7 would die earlier. Mr. Kouba's expressions of hatred
8 also extended to the black, Jewish and homosexual 9 communities.

10 Together they formed a group called 11 Western Canada For Us in January of 2004.

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Excuse me.
13 Mr. Warman, I have just been advised by the clerk that 14 she would like you to slow down a little bit. She is 15 fighting off some carpal tubal, I think, so if you 16 could slow down a little.

17 MR. WARMAN: I think that 18 accommodation is a key point in the Canadian Human 19 Rights Act, so by all means.

20 Together they formed the group called 21 Western Canada for Us in January of 2004. Some would 22 argue that such marginal views in our society are 23 better ignored and that no real harm can come of them, 24 but in a speech given to the Canadian Bar Association
25 in Winnipeg in the fall of 2004, former Justice

1 Minister Irwin Cotler noted the destructive power of 2 words.

3 Citing the Andrews decision

4 Mr. Cotler said:

5 "As the Supreme Court of Canada
6 put it in upholding the 7 constitutionality of our 8 anti-hate legislation, the 9 Holocaust did not begin in the 10 gas chambers. It began with 11 words. These, as the Court put 12 it, are the chilling facts of 13 history."

14 Western Canada For Us died an 15 unlamented death in the fall of 2004. During their 16 short existence, the group managed to host a number of 17 meetings, demonstrations in support of imprisoned
18 Holocaust denier Ernst Zündel and created a website 19 that offered abundant personal expressions of hate 20 alongside electronic books for download that advocated 21 the genocide of non-whites and Jews.

22 The group's timely demise came about 23 because the community as a whole worked together to 24 make it happen. The media exposed the group's 25 leadership and the true nature of their message. Human

1 rights activists and youth groups alerted the community
2 to the problem and did their best to give them no peace 3 in their noxious efforts.

4 Lastly, the Edmonton Police Hate
5 Crimes Unit engaged in exemplary policing work by 6 identifying the problem, doing their homework and 7 finally arresting and charging the main leader of the 8 group, Mr. Bahr, with the willful promotion of hatred 9 for which he is currently awaiting trial.

10 This was a textbook example of how 11 many different elements in our society came together to 12 halt the efforts of those who would poison our communal 13 well of understanding and cooperation. Stopping hate 14 propaganda is beneficial to all concerned, because to 15 paraphrase the words that the Canadian Human Rights Act 16 opens with, ending discrimination allows people to 17 fulfill their responsibilities to the community, to 18 have their needs accommodated and to build their lives 19 in peace to the best of their abilities.

20 Over the next few days, the 21 Commission and I will lay our case before you to the 22 best of our abilities.

23 Thank you.

24 THE CHAIRPERSON: Counsel for the
25 Commission?

1 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, I am also 2 happy to make a copy of those if that would assist the 3 Stenograph.

4 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I will echo
5 on terms of the legislation in the reference to tailor 6 the comments made by Mr. Warman and I will simply say 7 that Section 13 aims at protecting core Canadian values
8 such as multiculturalism, inclusion, openness and a 9 hate-free society free from prejudice and stereotypes.

10 The Commission will introduce 11 evidence that will show that the material on the 12 website was exactly to the opposite of these Canadian 13 values that are promoted by Section 13 and the entire 14 Canadian Human Rights Act.

15 The witnesses you will hear will be 16 primarily Mr. Sergeant Stephen Camp from the City of 17 Edmonton, who formerly belonging to the Hate Crime 18 Unit. He will give a brief resumé of his professional 19 background. He will explain how he got interested in 20 the hate crimes, which is based on Section 13 -- 319 of 21 the Criminal Code for his purposes, but is also a 22 subject matter which is also under Section 13 of the 23 Canadian Human Rights Act.

24 He will explain how in the year
25 2003/2004, he got funding for Hate Crimes Unit, that

1           there is a certain number of these units in Canada that 2           have a Hate Crimes Unit, the importance of fighting 3           hate crime. He will explain how once he got the 4           funding, he investigated basically Stormfront, which 5           was the launching pad for the Western Canada For Us
6           website, which is associated to Mr. Glenn Bahr.

7                           He will explain how, through the 8           investigation, he became aware of Mr. Glenn Bahr and 9           the name that he was using on Glenn Bahr, which was 10          SS-88 and how he comes to the conclusion that Glenn 11          Bahr and SS-88 are one.

12                          There will be various pieces of 13          evidence which will show that he was, like Mr. Warman 14          was saying earlier, organizing a group that would be 15          part of the Western Canada For Us, that a meeting was 16          supposed to be taking place in Red Deer or Leduc in 17          February at the Kneehill Community Centre which 18          ultimately did not take place because of certain 19          events, which we will hear.

20                          He will also give a CD ROM which 21          contains basically the website which existed from the 22          year 2004 which was captured as sort of a photo 23          snapshot of the website as it existed at the time, and 24          I understand we have internet access. He will also try 25          to link to the links that website was linking to, such

1 as the Aryan Nations and other web sites that promote 2 Nazi propaganda and hate messages.

3 He will also produce a very important
4 radio interview which Mr. Bahr gave to a local radio 5 station in Edmonton where he basically announces his 6 website, associates himself to the website and 7 basically is promoting the ideology that he wants to 8 promote for this group called Western Canada For Us.

9 As the investigation goes along,
10 Mr. Camp ultimately obtains a search warrant. He, 11 first of all, has to go get Mr. Bahr in B.C. because at 12 the time he was in B.C. A search warrant was executed 13 and computers were seized in the apartment of Mr. Bahr.
14 He will also testify that these computers were 15 expertised by forensic analysis and there was the use 16 of this computer and the administrator and the guest of 17 the computer was all on the same computer that was 18 seized in the house of Mr. Bahr and as well as pictures 19 which indicate material of hate content in the house of 20 Mr. Bahr.

21 He will also testify about the 22 literature that was on the website, literature 23 referring to the Turner Diaries, the International Jew 24 and other type of literature which promotes hate and is 25 also very, very discriminatory towards different

1 groups, such as aboriginals, people of sexual 2 orientation, et cetera, and to such an extreme that it
3 would shock Canadian values.

4 We will have also the testimony
5 afterwards of Mr. Richard Warman who will testify about 6 what he observed on the website and he will produce the 7 basic contents of the website, the literature that he 8 observed on the website and different documents which 9 will indicate that material content of the website was 10 very, very offensive and practically offended on the 11 grounds, if not one or two, in the Canadian Human 12 Rights Act.

13 He will explain how he laid the 14 complaint eventually at the Canadian Human Rights 15 Commission, and the reason why we are here today is 16 basically adjudicate on this complaint.

17 Now, in terms of the different issues
18 the Tribunal will have to determine, the Tribunal will 19 have to determine first did the respondents communicate 20 or cause to be communicated the messages found on the 21 websites.

22 Two, the second issue is were the 23 messages communicated by way of the internet? And 24 third issue is the subject matter likely to expose a 25 person or persons to hatred or contempt by reason of

1 the fact that they are identified on the basis of 2 prohibited grounds of discrimination.

3 I will submit to you respectfully,
4 Madam Chair, that the material that you will be seeing 5 fully meets the criteria of hate identified by the case 6 law Taylor and other cases and that, at the end of the 7 proceedings, there will be ample evidence to come to a 8 conclusion that Section 13 of the Act has been violated 9 and that an order will be appropriate in the 10 circumstances.

11 That is all I have to say.

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you, Counsel.
13 Mr. Fromm?

14 MR. FROMM: It is been our submission 15 from the very beginning that this process is moot. The 16 website Western Canada For Us was removed voluntarily 17 by Mr. Bahr in May of 2004. It has not been back up.
18 Mr. Bahr was under a court order in terms of a bail 19 conditions in regards to Section 319 charges not to 20 access the internet, not to be in the same residence 21 where there is an internet, not to attend at an 22 internet café, and he is not even supposed to use a 23 computer. Unless he wants the quick trip back to jail, 24 he cannot repost the material that was on Western 25 Canada For Us.

1                   So the discriminatory practice, we 2                   disagree that such existed, but if it did exist, it has 3                   long since been remedied. Western Canada -- the 4                   defendant website is gone and Mr. Bahr is in no 5                   position to repost it. Really, in our submission, that 6                   should be the end of the matter.

7                   We find these proceedings highly 8                   discriminatory. The Canadian Human Rights Tribunal is 9                   an example, in our submission, of systemic 10                  discrimination. The requirement that a member must 11                  have special sensitivity in experiencing human rights 12                  is, in our submission, evidence of systemic 13                  discrimination against the respondent victim.

14                 We have a tension here between group 15                 rights, which is what is stressed in the Canadian Human 16                 Rights Act, and individual rights which are protected 17                 by the Charter. Mr. Bahr's right, his belief, that it 18                 is religious or otherwise, his right to freedom of 19                 expression, his right to freedom of the press, if you 20                 consider the internet a form of press, are all in 21                 serious tension with the rights of privileged, special 22                 groups.

23                 Some people, by members of a 24                 privileged group, have rights. If you don't happen to 25                 be a member of that group, you don't have those rights.

1 And the requirement that members of Canadian Human 2 Rights Tribunals have special sensitivity to those 3 rights means, presumably, that they have less 4 sensitivity to the rights of the victim accused.

5 It is our submission, and we are 6 prepared to take this further, that this is an example 7 of systemic discrimination, again, which makes 8 Mr. Bahr's situation pretty grim.

9 We also look at the history of the 10 Canadian Human Rights Tribunals under this law which 11 came into effect in 1978. In the intervening 28 years, 12 no respondent victim has ever won. People are accused 13 of murder and sometimes are acquitted. Some people are 14 accused of armed robbery and sometimes are acquitted.
15 For heaven's sake, some people are even accused of 16 income tax evasion and are sometimes acquitted.

17 But it is rather singular that no 18 person has ever won a Section 13(1) case. Under the 19 equally iniquitous law, in my submission, Section 319
20 of the Criminal Code, there have been a couple 21 victories. Peter Lindsay in the Province of Ontario 22 won for the young defendants in the "honk if you hate 23 gypsies" case. He also won in the -- in at least one 24 other case.

25 So it certainly seems, on the face of

1           it, that the administration of the Canadian Human 2           Rights Tribunal is systemically biased against the 3           respondent victim.

4                           In our particular case, we have run
5           into a roadblock in trying to access information. I 6           was told six weeks ago that I would be able to get 7           evidence that had been submitted in another case that 8           had already been adjudicated. This is the Winnicki 9           case. I was told I could obtain that simply by showing 10          up or having somebody show up at the Tribunal office in 11          Ottawa and indicate what the material was and it would 12          be photocopied.

13                          By the time the person I sent arrived 14          a couple weeks later, apparently the rules has been 15          changed. Now all evidence in other cases have to be 16          subject to access to information requests. Well, that 17          is very convenient, because they take at least a month 18          to process and, as we are rushing to judgment in this 19          case, all the submissions we made on many issues to 20          seek a stay in these proceedings have come to not, so 21          we arrive here and without even that evidence that has 22          been denied us.

23                          So it is certainly our submission 24          that the process is one of systemic discrimination to 25          the complete detriment of the rights of the respondent

1 victim.

2 In this particular case, the 3 taxpayer's money and your time, Madam Chairman, are 4 being abused. This is a complete abuse of process. In 5 a document that has been submitted in another case, the 6 complainant, Mr. Warman, talks about -- talked to a 7 radical group of anarchists last summer and his speech 8 was entitled "Maximum Disruption, Stopping the 9 Neo-Nazis By Almost Any Means Necessary." You have got 10 a flavour of his political beliefs in his opening 11 statement this morning. Certainly he is entitled to 12 those beliefs, entitled to that, but in this speech, 13 and this has been -- this is on the record in another 14 case in Warman versus Winnicki says, he says:

15 "The maximum disruption part 16 comes in because whenever I 17 think it will be the most 18 helpful, or even if I just feel 19 it would be the most fun, I 20 strongly believe in hitting the 21 neo-Nazis on as many of these 22 fronts possible, either at the 23 same time or one right after."

24 So these complaints are, for the 25 complainant, a source of fun and they are also a means

1 of pursuing his ideology. He made it quite clear that 2 he thought that the website with which Mr. Bahr may 3 have been associated or the group with which he may 4 have been associated were neo-Nazis. That is certainly 5 his stereotyping or label for them, and in his approach 6 is to try to disrupt these groups and sometimes even 7 doing it just for fun. He has filed at least 20 8 Canadian Human Rights complaints under this line. In 9 our submission, this is an abuse of process.

10 We have searched the records of 11 the -- at least on-line records of the Canadian Human 12 Rights Commission. We were hard pressed to find a 13 situation where somebody has filed more than one 14 complaint. In general, somebody under the Canadian 15 Human Rights Act may feel grieved in terms of 16 employment or some other opportunity or some other 17 service provided by either the federal government or by 18 corporations or industries like the airline industries
19 that are regulated by them. A person feels a 20 particular sense of grievance because of something 21 that was done or not done to them, they file a 22 complaint. That complaint is then adjudicated. But it 23 is personal. It is something that has happened to that 24 person and they seek a remedy for what has happened.

25 Section 13(1) is completely different

1           and certainly the way it is being used by Mr. Warman, 2           it is not being used to remedy a complaint that 3           involves him. It is not -- at least in his submissions 4           in his case, it is not his particular group, whatever 5           that might be, that is being attacked, that he is 6           standing up for and saying that "an injustice has been 7           done here and I seek remedy."

8                         Rather, this Act and Section 13(1) of 9           this act is being used to quote "get political 10          opponents." I think in law it is important that both 11          sides come to the table with clean hands.

12                        This process is being used and if, 13          indeed, there was a discriminatory practice on the 14          website, we dispute that. But if indeed there were, it 15          is all moot. It is in the past. Mr. Bahr, in 16          attempting to have mediation, indicated he would be 17          prepared to make certain undertakings. He is not 18          allowed to go even near a computer. In fact, he may 19          even be prejudiced this morning because I have my 20          laptop sitting there. It is not plugged in, but it is 21          in the same room as he is. He is enjoying, right or 22          wrong by Canadian law right now, from having anything 23          to do with computers or the internet. We are simply 24          wasting taxpayers' money here this morning.

25                        It is going to be our submission that

1 Western Canada For Us was not a quote "neo-Nazi website 2 or neo-Nazi group." Mr. Warman tosses that term around 3 very promiscuously. He labels Stormfront, a website in 4 the United States, as neo-Nazi. I invite the member to 5 look at Stormfront and invite the member to see that 6 there is a wide variety of opinions there from 7 Christian fundamentalists to pagan to identity
8 Christian to atheist to right-wing republican, to all 9 sorts of foreign political parties of various stripes 10 and persuasions.

11 And on the Canada forum, again, a 12 wide variety of points of view from what might be 13 concerned libertarian, like myself, or right-wing 14 conservative, Reform Party, what have you, admirers of 15 Stephen Harper, to some people who think that the 16 process ought to go a lot further.

17 It is pretty eclectic, and to simply 18 summarize it with the term neo-Nazi is certainly 19 Mr. Warman's right, but it is mischievous and it is 20 misleading and it falls into what Mr. Vigna mentioned.
21 It is stereotyping. It is slapping a convenient label 22 on a group of people so that you can dismiss them.

23 We are going to lead evidence in the 24 course of this hearing that will show that if 25 self-identification means anything, and I think that it

1           should, Western Canada For Us never self-identified as 2           anything other than a group interested in immigration
3           reform and in freedom of speech. And the activities it 4           undertook never went beyond those.

5                           Whatever may or may not have happened 6           the previous summer at some gathering on the steps of 7           the legislature, this was not Western Canada For Us and 8           the public expressions of that group and the activities 9           of that group, I think it would be hard pressed to call 10          that Nazi or neo-Nazi.

11                           I think in fairness, we hear a lot 12          about stereotyping and so on, I think in fairness 13          groups ought to be allowed to self-identify, and we are 14          also going to argue that not all of the things that 15          appeared, either on the website Western Canada For Us
16          or Stormfront in what may be identified as Mr. Bahr's 17          name were posted by him.

18                           We are going to submit evidence that 19          his e-mail and other electronic access were hacked 20          early on in the period in question in 2004 and postings 21          were made that many people felt were uncharacteristic 22          and were not him, and that would certainly be his 23          contention, if he could testify.

24                           Finally, I think we were going to 25          sketch a somewhat different account of the history of

1 Western Canada For Us. You are going to be informed, 2 Madam Chairman, of the sort of police activities that 3 we probably would only expect in places like Cuba or 4 North Korea or some dreadful third world dictatorship.

5 We are going to hear a story of a 6 young man, young working guy, who had the temerity to 7 post some opinions he had, said he wanted to organize a 8 group, and from the beginning, the Edmonton Police 9 Service, not community groups, the Edmonton Police 10 Service Hate Squad were all over him surveilling him as 11 if he were a dangerous drug runner. The evidence will 12 show he had never committed a crime of violence.
13 Neither he or the group Western Canada For Us or there 14 were several public activities, never advocated or 15 practiced or led to violence.

16 Nonetheless, he was systematically
17 hounded, eventually his place of residence was raided, 18 and he made statements that I think any lawyer would 19 have told him he ought not to make without counsel
20 being present. He took all the blame upon himself 21 because the Edmonton Police Service threatened to take 22 away the child of the woman he was living with.

23 I don't know if you are a mother,
24 Madam Chairman, but anybody in the room who is a parent 25 knows there probably is no greater fear, other than the

1 death of your child, than the fact that your child 2 might be taken from you. And we will hear evidence and 3 is certainly in public statements of the next witness 4 you are about to hear that that was the threat made to 5 Mr. Bahr, that the woman he was living with would have 6 her child taken away from her.

7 On that basis, being a gentleman and 8 being an admirable young man, he took full 9 responsibility for himself, for the whole operation.
10 And I think certainly his lawyer in the other case
11 would have counselled differently and the little I know 12 of the law, I would have counselled him to hold his 13 peace, but that is what he did, and we are going to see 14 a sordid story of a political group smashed.

15 Mr. Warman thinks it is a good thing.
16 I think a country where we have groups that can get 17 registered tax status, we have the Communist Party of 18 Canada, we have the Communist Party of Canada 19 Marxist-Leninist, we have a history in this County of 20 allowing a diversity of political opinion.

21 Mr. Bahr's opinions may not be 22 Mr. Warman's and he may think his views are 23 reprehensible, and they may well be, but his attempt to 24 peacefully express his views landed him at the 25 receiving end of the sort of policing you would more

1           likely expect in Guatemala.

2                                 Finally, it is going to be our 3           submission that most of the impugned postings fall well 4           within acceptable political comment. We are going to 5           argue that forceful, maybe even partisan comment and 6           comment on volatile issues like race, gender, sex, 7           sexual orientation should be permitted in a free and 8           democratic society. There is a vast difference between 9           criticizing a group, perhaps even criticizing a group
10          forcefully or sarcastically, and advocating hatred. It 11          is going to be our submission at the end of the day 12          that a society that does not allow speech invites the 13          only other alternative.

14                                I need only point to the endless 15          troubles in Ulster and other places. You either allow 16          the safety valve of forceful, partisan, maybe even 17          nasty, hurtful speech, or you then invite anybody who 18          feels strongly to look in other directions, and the 19          results, Madam Chairman, are not pretty.

20                                Those are my submissions.

21                                THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you,
22          Mr. Fromm. Are we ready for our first witness?

23                                MR. VIGNA: Yes, Madam Chair.
24          Sergeant Stephen Camp. I will go get him, if you will 25          allow me.

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

2 MR. FROMM: Could I ask that 3 Mr. Warman be excluded during this testimony because 4 there may be elements of my cross-examination of 5 Mr. Warman that might conflict with evidence given by 6 Constable Camp.

7 THE CHAIRPERSON: Mr. Warman?

8 MR. WARMAN: I am sorry, I don't have 9 the section of the Act in front of me, but the Act does 10 prohibit the exclusion of a party.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Of a party. I
12 agree. I agree with Mr. Warman's submissions and I 13 will be, just as Mr. Bahr will stay, so will 14 Mr. Warman, given his status as a party.

15 Thank you.

16 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, before I
17 call the witness, I didn't respond to the opening 18 statement of the respondent because some comments were, 19 I figured, were more political than legal, but I just 20 want to make sure for the record that there is been no
21 legal argument dealing with systemic bias, which I 22 figured was more of a political statement than anything 23 else because there was no proper notice of that issue 24 whatsoever. So I am just making this comment on a 25 cautionary basis.

1                   MR. FROMM: I didn't hear the last 2 couple sentences.

3                   THE CHAIRPERSON: Perhaps share that 4 with your friend again.

5                   MR. VIGNA: I am saying I listened to 6 the opening statement and I didn't respond because I 7 figured that some of the comments were political in 8 nature more than legal but I just wanted to make sure 9 that there would be no debate on the issue of systemic 10 bias that was alleged at the beginning of the speech 11 because there was no proper notice of such an argument, 12 and in order to debate such an issue, there needs to be 13 a constitutional debate and notice sent to the Attorney 14 General.

15                   So just for clarification, I don't 16 want to address this issue at any point in time because 17 it hasn't been done according to the rules.

18                   THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. Thank you.

19                   MR. FROMM: I didn't say I was 20 raising a constitutional argument. I was -- I did file 21 notice and the notice was sent to your office in Ottawa 22 on Friday that I would be raising the matter of 23 systemic bias because it is just over the last week or 24 so that we have become aware of this roadblock in terms 25 of getting information that is in the possession of the

1 Tribunal.

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

3 SWORN: STEPHEN CAMP

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good morning.

5 MR. CAMP: Good morning, Madam Chair.

6 EXAMINATION BY MR. VIGNA

7 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp?

8 MR. FROMM: I would like to object to 9 the swearing in of witnesses on the basis that if truth 10 is no defence under the Act, does it really matter 11 whether the evidence is fanciful or otherwise?

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Carry on.

13 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, can you 14 tell us where you work presently?

15 MR. CAMP: I work for the Edmonton
16 Police Service as Patrol Sergeant in the West Division.

17 MR. VIGNA: Before working as a 18 Patrol Sergeant, what was your function with the City 19 of Edmonton Police?

20 MR. CAMP: Officially from 2003 to 21 2006 I was a Hate Crime Coordinator for the EPS.

22 MR. VIGNA: The EPS would be what?

23 MR. CAMP: Edmonton Police Service,
24 sorry.

25 MR. VIGNA: And prior to that?

1                   MR. CAMP: A constable in general
2 patrol duties for approximately 12 years.

3                   MR. VIGNA: Can you tell us if you 4 were involved in the Hate Crimes Unit and what was your 5 involvement, et cetera?

6                   MR. CAMP: Probably around the year
7 2000, I began to do research on law enforcement
8 internationally and found that the Edmonton Police 9 Service did not have a Hate Crime Unit. I have the 10 opinion that a Hate Crime Unit is vital for law 11 enforcement, especially in a major municipality where 12 there is a diverse community structure.

13                   Between 2000 and 2003 I put together 14 a proposal and queried numerous federal and provincial 15 agencies to try to find funding and support for the 16 Hate Crimes Unit and support also internally with our 17 law enforcement agency, the Edmonton Police Service.

18                   In 2002, the Edmonton Police Service
19 executive from the Chief and the Deputy Chiefs 20 supported the idea of the -- I guess the advent of a 21 Hate Crime Unit within the Edmonton Police Service and 22 funding we found through Canada Heritage and officially 23 in 2002 we got funding through Canada Heritage to begin 24 a two-year pilot project on the Hate Crime Unit for the 25 Edmonton Police Service.

1                   MR. VIGNA: Just for the general
2 knowledge and the parties before the Tribunal, can you
3 tell us if a Hate Crimes Unit is an essential element 4 of each Police Service in Canada, how many there are in 5 Canada, what is the situation generally?

6                   MR. CAMP: Well, I believe that 7 professionally that a major municipality should have a 8 Hate Crime Unit. Like I said, with our diverse 9 communities, there is a need for, I guess, peaceful 10 coexistence within the communities and crimes that are 11 committed against a community where the motivation for 12 that crime is bias, prejudice or hate causes community 13 disunity, conflict, oppression, suppression, hate 14 crimes, violence.

15                   So, yeah, I do feel it is a necessity 16 for law enforcement to have some sort of unit in their 17 structure to deal with these issues, especially the 18 ones, if you look at our Charter, for example, in 19 Section 15 and Section 27 where Canada is built on 20 equality and multiculturalism, that crimes motivated by 21 hatred towards other communities violate those 22 sections.

23                   MR. VIGNA: Now, in terms of the Hate
24 Crimes Unit in the City of Edmonton, you were, I 25 understand, the one that created the unit?

1                   MR. CAMP: There was two of us that 2                   created the unit, myself and Constable Dave Huggins.

3                   MR. VIGNA: And in terms of the work 4                   that you have done, is it exclusively the internet or 5                   you do more advanced work?

6                   MR. CAMP: No, sir. Within that Hate
7                   Crimes Unit, there is a number of functions that I 8                   performed when I was working there. The monitoring on 9                   the internet was probably not even five percent of our 10                  function, I would say probably a couple percent, and 11                  formed in our operational capacity as far as criminal 12                  files, probably about five percent of our workload.

13                  We were also involved in intelligence 14                  gathering, both locally, provincially and 15                  internationally. Also we were involved in a 16                  diversity -- part of our structure was the development 17                  of a diversity, I guess, function, where we set up 18                  communities -- committees, sorry, with the aboriginal 19                  and minority community leadership, to sit with the 20                  Edmonton Police Service.

21                  There was a couple reasons for that.
22                  It was to build, I guess, a trusting relationship 23                  between aboriginal and minority communities with law 24                  enforcement and that community and also to have a 25                  relationship, an intercommunity relationship, because

1 we also built what is called a Chief's Advisory 2 Committee where all the, I guess the top leadership of 3 the minority and aboriginal communities sit on an 4 umbrella committee called the Chief's Advisory 5 Committee as well.

6 I guess the reason for that or the 7 essence of that is to have, I guess, a community in the 8 City of Edmonton to have a peace amongst their 9 community groups, because geopolitically, I mean, there 10 is a number of political conflicts that affect the 11 local community and I feel it is the necessity and 12 obligation of law enforcement to be a part of the 13 proactive intervention of any kind of community 14 conflict which may arise.

15 If there is extremist groups based on 16 racial or religious grounds that are, for example, 17 committing crimes of hate against that particular 18 group, it causes disunity. If there is rhetoric that 19 is being put out there against another group as well, 20 it can cause disunity as well.

21 MR. VIGNA: When you were making a 22 business case for your superiors in order to establish 23 a Hate Crimes Unit, compared, for example, to other 24 types of crimes, how did you persuade your superiors of 25 the importance of fighting hate crimes which deal more

1 with propaganda rather than sometimes actions that are 2 associated to crimes?

3 MR. CAMP: Our business plan didn't 4 include, I guess, propaganda as a part of the business
5 plan. I mean, what I just explained in the last five 6 minutes here was basically the essence of our argument.
7 We wanted to show the executive that it was important 8 for a community such as Edmonton to have a law 9 enforcement kind of presence, intercommittee presence
10 to, I guess, promote and assist in the peaceful 11 coexistence of both communities.

12 MR. VIGNA: Okay. And your interest
13 in hate crimes was developed at what point? How did 14 you start getting interest, and I will go through your 15 resumé?

16 MR. CAMP: My interest in hate crimes
17 and extremist activity is a personal interest. I don't 18 really know. I can't really say how it started. There 19 is no moment in my life where it started, but it is 20 just a part of what I feel is important, and as far as 21 being in law enforcement, I think it is a vital -- 22 because of that, it is a vital component of the 23 infrastructure of a law enforcement agency.

24 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I will try
25 to have Mr. Sergeant Camp go through his resumé to show

1 the familiarity we has with hate message. So II would 2 like to introduce a resumé.

3 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, thank you.
4 Madam Registrar?

5 MR. CAMP: Thank you.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: So should we enter 7 this as an exhibit?

8 MR. VIGNA: Yes.

9 THE REGISTRAR: Mr. Stephen Camp's
10 resumé will be filed as commission HR-1.

11 EXHIBIT NO. HR-1: Mr. Stephen 12 Camp's resumé

13 MR. VIGNA: So Sergeant Camp, can you 14 just go over your resumé quickly, and particularly 15 bring to our attention the courses or different 16 involvement you had with the issue of hate crimes and 17 similar subject matter?

18 MR. CAMP: As far as formal training
19 in hate crimes, 2002 the Hate Crime Investigator's 20 course in British Columbia, which is on the first page, 21 the fifth one down.

22 Basically, and to summarize, the 23 course basically explains what hate crime is, processes 24 in investigating hate crimes, hate crime organizations, 25 how they're structured. There was a -- it touched on 1           how they use the internet to recruit and send their 2           message out, the community impact as well on hate on 3           society.

4                               There was also on page 2, the Train 5           the Trainer Certificate. Train the Trainer basically 6           means that you become an instructor on diversity, which 7           is the one from Dallas Police. There was also in 2004 8           the Train the Trainers Instruction Certificate from the 9           Federal Law Enforcement Training Centre of homeland 10          security in the U.S. in Scottsdale, Arizona. Those are 11          the three, I guess, formal -- the three, I guess, 12          formal instruction that I had on hate crimes.

13                              MR. VIGNA: Go on to the 14          presentations, lectures, training that you provided, 15          which follows right after.

16                              MR. CAMP: The presentations and 17          lectures that we provided just flowed from our position 18          within the EPS Hate Crimes Unit and our research that 19          we did over the years. There was a lot of interest in 20          minority communities to hear what hate crime is and how 21          we investigate hate crimes, because in Canada it is 22          usually the minority communities that are inflicted 23          with hate. There were universities and colleges that 24          are interested in how the Edmonton Police Services 25          deals with hate in our society, as far as our

1 investigations and our research on the community
2 impacts of hate.

3 Because we have a number of 4 committees set up with aboriginal minority communities, 5 we were able to give, I guess, firsthand knowledge of 6 the leadership and their explanations of how their 7 community feels when they are inflicted with either 8 hate propaganda or hate crimes and discrimination on 9 the community. We were able to share that with a 10 number of community members.

11 So I guess from 2003 to 2006,
12 personally involved in numerous lectures and seminars 13 and forums and presentations locally, provincially, 14 nationally and internationally. Again, it was just 15 subsequent to us being in a Hate Crimes Unit. There is 16 a lot of interest out there by community members and 17 law enforcement and -- in regards to this -- in regards 18 to hate and hate propaganda.

19 MR. VIGNA: So move on to the part of 20 your resumé which is entitled Committees and Boards. I 21 guess the resumé speaks for itself regarding the 22 lectures and the different conferences you attended.
23 And just mention summarily the different committees or 24 boards you participated on.

25 MR. CAMP: In the first two years

1 from 2002 to 2005, we set up a number of committees. I
2 chaired the Aboriginal and the Edmonton Police Service 3 Committee. I was a chairperson of the Chief's Advisory 4 Committee. That was the umbrella committee with all 5 minority and aboriginal committee leaders with the 6 Chief. I was the chair of the Jewish and the Edmonton 7 Police Service committee, the chair and member of a 8 gay/lesbian LGBTQ and the Edmonton Police Service 9 Committee.

10 I assisted in the management of the 11 Sikh and Edmonton Police Service Committee. Also a 12 member of the Alberta Hate Crime Committee. The 13 Alberta Hate Crime Committee was a committee that was 14 formed through a number of agencies, Calgary Police 15 Service, R.C.M.P., Edmonton Police Service, the Alberta
16 Solicitor General, Alberta Justice, Alberta Community
17 Development, the Northern Alberta Alliance in Race 18 Relations, Alberta Disabilities.

19 Basically the premise of that 20 committee was to find solutions, provincial solutions 21 to hate in our society. I was also a member of the 22 Muslim-Jewish and Edmonton Police Service Committee.

23 MR. VIGNA: And the purpose of these 24 boards and the Police Services Committee and other 25 committees is basically to do what?

1                   MR. CAMP: To summarize, I guess to 2 foster peaceful coexistence between not only the 3 communities that are in Edmonton, minority and 4 aboriginal committees, but also the relationship 5 between law enforcement and those committees, a 6 relationship of trust.

7                   We also use the committees as I guess 8 a conduit of information that was two ways. If they 9 are interested to know how we investigated hate crimes 10 and the protocol we follow, but if there is a number of 11 hate crimes or investigations that we are involved in 12 and they need to know what is going on with them for 13 their community members. If there is an assault, for 14 example, on a gay man in Edmonton and there is, I 15 guess, questions of how the file is proceeding, we are 16 the -- I guess the link or the information will come to 17 us. So it is served a number of purposes, the 18 committees.

19                   MR. VIGNA: In Additional 20 Accomplishments, the first one, for example, is that 21 what you were testifying about earlier about creating 22 the Edmonton Police Services Hate Crimes Unit, 23 2003-2005, Additional Accomplishments?

24                   MR. CAMP: Yeah, that is correct.
25 That is correct. Additional -- yeah, we built the

1 business plan and proposed it both to the Edmonton 2 Police Service Executive Officers Team and to the 3 federal government and were able to, with the support, 4 build the unit.

5 MR. VIGNA: Talk to us about the 6 different items under that category briefly and just go 7 down the list.

8 MR. CAMP: I investigated in 2003 a
9 mischief where a young man was painting swastikas 10 throughout the northeast end and, during the course of 11 that trial, the Provincial Court designated me as an 12 expert on hate crime in regards to the effect that may 13 have on the Jewish community, the swastikas.

14 MR. VIGNA: And in terms of symbols 15 and paraphernalia of a Nazi nature, what is your 16 familiarity?

17 MR. CAMP: Just through experience
18 and monitoring hate sites internationally and 19 nationally and dealing with individuals involved in -- 20 I guess in this activity, and then my training as well 21 and just through my own personal literature, it is 22 basically my, I guess, knowledge of what certain 23 symbols can mean. Symbols in the world of neo-Naziism 24 or white supremacy or Christian identity, depending on 25 what ideology you advocate for, symbols can be

1       vocabulary between the people involved in it. It can 2       be used to send a message out to their peers or send a 3       message out to a minority community.

4               For example, theoretically if a 5       swastika goes on a synagogue, it does send a message 6       out to the Jewish community. It does send a message of 7       fear to that community and, like I said, I have learned 8       that firsthand through the Jewish community members.

9               When there was a swastika on the Wolf
10      Willow Synagogue here in Edmonton, there is a community 11      fear that reverberates throughout the community. It is 12      like a ripple effect. It is disproportionate compared 13      to other crimes because it has a ripple effect in the 14      community, so it is a message, I guess, for a number of 15      the people involved in hate activity that the group 16      should be fearful, they are unwanted in society maybe.
17      There is a number of reasons why vocabulary symbols are 18      used.

19              MR. VIGNA: As for the other items 20      under Additional Accomplishments, I guess they speak 21      for themselves, so if you want to bring to our 22      attention any particular item that might be of 23      interest.

24              MR. CAMP: No. No, sir.

25              MR. VIGNA: Now, when you

1 established -- when was the first time you became an 2 operation, the Hate Crimes Unit, and tell us how you 3 began the operations and how you eventually started 4 monitoring the internet?

5 MR. CAMP: In January 2003 is when we 6 began operations with the Edmonton Police Service. At 7 that time I didn't even have a desk or a paperclip.
8 The first few months were basically building the 9 infrastructure that we needed to utilize in order to 10 accomplish our taxes. The first year was a very busy 11 year. We weren't really involved operationally 12 probably until -- what I mean operationally, involved 13 in monitoring the internet or investigations actively 14 until middle of late 2003.

15 Being 2003, the internet is a,
16 through my research, an excellent medium for 17 communication for persons involved in any kind of 18 ideology, including ideologies of hate. So monitoring 19 the internet was something that, for a layman's term, a 20 no-brainer to start monitoring the internet to see if 21 there is any local activity going on in Edmonton.

22 One of the most -- through my 23 research, the most, I guess, popular websites is 24 Stormfront.org, and I began to monitor. Inside 25 Stormfront.org website there are discussion forums, if

1           you link into those discussion forums, you can enter 2           into whatever discussion you wish starting a thread.

3                           One of the discussion forums was 4           Canada Discussion or Canadian forum, so that is where I 5           would go to on the Stormfront.org website was right 6           at -- because, again, our time frame was very 7           compressed building this unit and with all the 8           activities that we are involved in, so we would just go 9           right to Stormfront.org Canadian Discussion and take a 10          peek once in a while to see what type of activity or 11          discussion was going on within Edmonton.

12                           Again, it was a small percentage of 13          our time involved in monitoring Stormfront.org. What 14          we did find through that window was there was activity 15          going on in Alberta, I noticed, and it kind of piqued
16          my interest, I guess.

17                           So monitoring of the net at that 18          time, we weren't involved in a criminal investigation.
19          We were involved in just basically seeing what is 20          happening, you know, for lack of a better term, the 21          scene of, I guess, white supremacy or hate or 22          neo-Naziism, or whatever you call it. I guess, to 23          formalize, I guess, for intelligence purposes to see 24          the content and the conversations that were going on 25          out there between the members in Canada.

1                   MR. VIGNA:  What was your police
2                   knowledge of the Stormfront site?  What was it known 3                   for, this website Stormfront?

4                   MR. CAMP:  It was one of the -- it 5                   was the first, you know, hate site with the advent of 6                   internet and it is run by the gentleman named Don Black 7                   in the U.S.  I don't really know much about Don Black.
8                   All I know is that it was the first websites that 9                   started in 1995.  It is very popular.  It is used 10                  internationally from New Zealand to Australia, to Great 11                  Britain, Canada, the U.S.  It is used all over.  It has 12                  discussion forums for those countries as well.  It 13                  seemed like a good place to go.

14                 MR. VIGNA:  What is it known for, 15                 Stormfront as a website?  What does it promote or what 16                 is its basic content, generally speaking?

17                 MR. CAMP:  Stormfront?

18                 MR. VIGNA:  Yes.

19                 MR. CAMP:  You can go into discussion
20                 forums and discuss neo-Naziism, how you hate 21                 minorities, discuss how you hate homosexuals.  You can 22                 discuss how you hate aboriginals.  You can go in and 23                 learn about, you know, Holocaust denial.  You can learn 24                 about -- you can read about, I should say.  You can 25                 read articles and Martin Luther King.  You can read

1 about David Duke. You can be updated on current 2 rallies nationally and internationally as well that are 3 going on.

4 Again, my knowledge of Stormfront was 5 basically on the discussion forum, because my job was 6 to ensure that Edmonton, if we had persons inside the 7 city that were on Stormfront, what were they up to?
8 Were they advocating for hate crimes on minor tip 9 communities? Were there people that were meeting? If 10 they were meeting, what were the meetings about? Were 11 they promoting hatred within the community? That is 12 basically what my job was. It was very specific.

13 So I wasn't as much interested in the 14 website, per se, in the grand picture of things. I was 15 more interested in what is happening in our community.

16 MR. VIGNA: You mentioned David Duke.
17 That is a name that is --

18 MR. CAMP: I don't really know too
19 much about David Duke.

20 MR. VIGNA: From the media, what do 21 you know about it?

22 MR. CAMP: From the media, from, you
23 know, basic general literature out there about David 24 Duke, considered by many as a white supremacist.

25 MR. VIGNA: Is he associated to a

1 certain group?

2 MR. CAMP: I know he used to be
3 associated to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but I am 4 not sure who he is associated to anymore. Again, that 5 is just through general literature that is out there.

6 MR. VIGNA: So now you are in the 7 Stormfront internet website, and we understand from 8 your testimony that you are focussing more Canada and 9 Alberta, more specifically?

10 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

11 MR. VIGNA: So when you do that, tell
12 us exactly what information you initially -- we will go 13 into details later, but what kind of information do you 14 get which is more relevant to the Canadian or Albertan?

15 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, if you are 16 familiar with a website, you would open up the website 17 and you would scroll through a number of titles on the 18 left-hand side of the web page, and in Stormfront.org, 19 there is a number of titles you can scroll through, but 20 three-quarters or two-thirds of the way down there is 21 Canada forum. I would icon tap into that discussion 22 forum.

23 Each page would have a title of a 24 subject matter to, I guess, link into, so you take your 25 cursor and you tap onto a title of what they call a

1 thread starter or I call it a topic, and that would 2 open up and there would be discussion on the forum 3 between members about whatever the thread starter or 4 topic was and we would just -- I would just read what 5 is considered posts that are inside that thread. Posts 6 are general comments that are made and put into the 7 website, and inside that thread about that subject 8 matter.

9 MR. VIGNA: Now, we will go later on 10 to the website by producing the CD ROM, and we will do 11 that later, perhaps after the break.

12 But tell us generally what you 13 remember seeing in terms of the website regarding 14 Canadian content, what was being said. I understand 15 that it is sometime back and you cannot remember every 16 single detail and later we will go into the website 17 itself to actually refresh your memory, but tell us 18 generally speaking the type of information you gathered 19 on the website.

20 MR. CAMP: Well, generally, through 21 the rhetoric on the posts inside the threads that we 22 were monitoring, there was definitely individuals in 23 Alberta that were -- and inside Edmonton that were 24 active on Stormfront, active discussing, I should say.

25 There was also general discussion

1 from beginning a new city in Alberta called Whiteville
2 where all -- it is a community for whites only. There 3 was discussion about the liberal government. There was 4 discussion about whatever was in the news sometimes 5 that would come to the attention of someone in regards 6 to immigration laws or there would be some 7 anti-immigration rants by individuals as well and the 8 responses to those.

9 General discussion -- most of the 10 discussion was along the lines of anti-immigration and 11 racial views. There was also discussion that was 12 nonsensical and there was also discussion that was 13 irrelevant to, I guess, hate. As well there was some 14 discussion if someone wanted to talk about music or 15 books they read or whatever.

16 MR. VIGNA: And when you talk about 17 Whiteville, can you tell us a bit more what was being 18 said about this Whiteville?

19 MR. CAMP: Just there was discussion
20 by numerous members which appeared to be in Alberta 21 that wanted to start a community called Whiteville, and 22 there was basically a community that they wanted to get 23 money for and finance and start a small town and have 24 whites only in there. They had rules for being a 25 member of Whiteville. They wanted to start their own

1 police force once they got 250 members inside
2 Whiteville.

3 MR. VIGNA: These rules, what would 4 they be? Do you remember?

5 MR. CAMP: You have to be white, and 6 I guess there was the comment about -- had to be white 7 and you had to be healthy, no drugs, no alcohol, no 8 criminal record, can't be homosexual. Generally, 9 again, it is been a while since I looked at that 10 rhetoric, so...

11 MR. VIGNA: I will go to the website
12 later, but do you remember also something about Ten 13 Commandments or the commandments to be?

14 MR. CAMP: On the Stormfront website?

15 MR. VIGNA: Or Western Canada For Us,
16 it is like commandments. We will go to it later.

17 MR. CAMP: On the Western Canada For 18 Us website or the Stormfront website?

19 MR. VIGNA: Western Canada For Us
20 website.

21 MR. CAMP: Might have to look through 22 my -- I have a PDF file of the Western Canada --

23 MR. VIGNA: We will go to it later,
24 then, because when you talked about rules, I thought 25 you were referring to that.

1                   MR. CAMP: Yeah, I can't remember if 2 they were referred to as the Ten Commandments, but 3 there were ten rules for entering Whiteville and, if I 4 remember correctly, the rules were also posted on the 5 WCFU website when the website began. There was the 6 same kind of conversation, discussion, if I remember 7 correctly, on the Stormfront website about Whiteville.

8                   MR. VIGNA: Now, more particularly, 9 did you, while going through this investigation on the 10 website which is firstly Stormfront and the mention of 11 the future website, come across subjects of interest, 12 which ones and the names that came up eventually?

13                   MR. CAMP: There was a few subjects 14 of interest piqued my interest and one of them was one 15 under the moniker of SS-88.

16                   MR. VIGNA: Moniker, what does that 17 mean?

18                   MR. CAMP: Their alias or name on the 19 website. Like, if I am a member of a website like 20 Stormfront.org, I have my own name. I could name 21 myself whatever I wish. So usually it is not their 22 real name. Sometimes it is, depending. But, you know, 23 you would see all sorts of monikers, like Der 24 totenkopf, Jessy Destruction, SS-88, proud18, all 25 depending on who that person is. That is what a

1 moniker is.

2 MR. VIGNA: SS-88, what does that 3 mean to you from your police work?

4 MR. CAMP: Generally, through my 5 research on symbols and based on, as well not only my 6 research, but any hate site that you look at you see 7 numerical and alphabetical symbols. A lot of people on 8 these hate sites will make a comment and then sign it 9 with 18 or SS-88.

10 In my knowledge, SS-88 is the symbol
11 for the Schutzstaffel police force in Germany or, I 12 guess, all of Europe during the Nazi occupation of 13 Europe. And 88 is a numerical code that a lot of -- 14 anybody involved in the hate activity knows that 88 15 means HH which is Heil Hitler, just through my 16 research.

17 And you will see a lot of -- on the 18 hate sites, we have these people discussing about 19 things like anti-immigration laws and kill the Jews or, 20 you know, blacks are chimps and should be eating 21 bananas. You will see a lot of 88 at the bottom, Heil 22 Hitler 88s. So you get to know -- you get to know just 23 through sheer experience as well that 88 means Heil 24 Hitler, you know, and combined with the literature that 25 I am reading on 88, it means Heil Hitler and SS is, I

1           guess, the international police service for 2           Nazi-occupied Europe run by Heinrich Himmler.

3                       MR. VIGNA:  Later we will go through 4           different questions that will bring you to the 5           conclusion who SS-88 is, but can you tell us from your 6           investigation, who did you conclude as SS-88 was?

7                       MR. CAMP:  Well, at the end of my 8           investigation, it was conclusive that SS-88 was the 9           accused seated by defence counsel, Glenn Bahr.

10                      MR. VIGNA:  Okay.  Now, I would like 11           to take you to -- I would like to introduce for 12           identification purposes for the moment, Madam Chair, 13           the binder that has been provided to everyone.  I 14           believe you have one also?

15                      MR. CAMP:  Yes, I have one.

16                      MR. VIGNA:  We will go directly to 17           Tab 8, which is your Investigation Report.

18                      I would like you to firstly 19           present -- we want to present this in evidence.  Go to 20           the Investigation Report that is in Tab 8, look at the 21           signature and tell us if you can identify this document 22           which contains several pages and if you are connected 23           to this document?

24                      MR. CAMP:  Yeah, the document is 25           mine.  I wrote it and it is signed by myself.

1 MR. VIGNA: And it was drafted for 2 the purposes of which investigation and what context?

3 MR. CAMP: It was drafted for the 4 purpose of a Criminal Code investigation, Section 5 319(2). It is willful promotion of hatred.

6 MR. VIGNA: And if I look at the 7 first page of the document, the subject or accused was 8 Mr. Glenn David Bahr?

9 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

10 MR. VIGNA: And it is a document of 11 32 pages?

12 MR. CAMP: Yes, sir.

13 MR. VIGNA: And if I read correctly
14 that your signature reads Constable Camp?

15 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

16 MR. VIGNA: I guess at the time you 17 were still constable?

18 MR. CAMP: That is right.

19 MR. VIGNA: So I would like to 20 present this as an exhibit for Mr. Sergeant Camp, Madam
21 Chair?

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes. Thank you.

23 THE REGISTRAR: The Investigation
24 Report of Glenn Bahr dated May 7, 2004, signed by 25 Sergeant Camp will be filed as Commission Exhibit HR-2.

1 EXHIBIT NO. HR-2: Investigation
2 Report of Glenn Bahr dated May 3 7, 2004, signed by Sergeant Camp

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Carry on, Counsel.
5 Mr. Fromm?

6 MR. FROMM: Just to be clear, that is 7 the document that begins with R-1 Subjects and a number 8 of witnesses; is that correct?

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: I believe it is at 10 Tab 8 and that is how mine starts.

11 MR. FROMM: So the entire document?

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, there seems to 13 be, I think, what was described as 32 pages.

14 MR. VIGNA: Correct. They are 15 numbered at the bottom.

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: I see, yes, so 32.

17 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, just for 18 your information, you will notice that the first three 19 pages there is some blackouts. That was done by myself 20 because it contained personal information of person 21 individuals.

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: I noticed that.
23 Thank you, Counsel. Okay. Carry on.

24 MR. VIGNA: So Sergeant Camp, we will 25 go through your Investigation Report pretty much page

1 by page going pretty quickly. If we look at the first 2 page, now, the period of the -- as far as you are 3 concerned, you are investigating Section 319 of the 4 Criminal Code?

5 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

6 MR. VIGNA: And -- I believe the 7 respondent...

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: Excuse me.
9 Mr. Fromm?

10 MR. FROMM: I must admit, I am a bit
11 remiss on this. My understanding is that there is a 12 publication ban in regards to exactly the same 13 material, which has been -- this document has been 14 filed in the Section 319 charges against Mr. Bahr. I 15 am just wondering where that leaves us.

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: What is your 17 concern, Mr. Fromm?

18 MR. FROMM: There is a publication
19 ban. This is now public. It is now been filed here.
20 I have a copy and --

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: I notice from the 22 file that the question of whether or not this 23 proceeding would be subject to a publication ban seemed 24 to have been canvassed, and when I asked for 25 preliminary motions, that was one that I thought might

1           arise, but I notice in the file itself your client had 2           taken the position that they did not require or did not 3           want a publication ban. If you would like to make that 4           motion now, I am happy to hear it, certainly.

5                           MR. FROMM: Well --

6                           THE CHAIRPERSON: So would you like a 7           publication ban? Are you asking for one?

8                           MR. FROMM: No, the situation is 9           this. What we want is an adjournment until the 10          criminal charges have been heard. That way -- that way 11          the publication ban, which came first from the superior 12          Court, can be honoured. We do not want a publication 13          ban here. Our strong position is that when people's 14          rights to freedom of speech are being taken away, it 15          must be done publicly.

16                          THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. Thank you.

17                          MR. FROMM: It is not to be done 18          behind closed doors. This must be public, but in order 19          to take care of both concerns, it is our submission 20          that these proceedings should be adjourned until the 21          criminal matter is settled.

22                          THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm, and 23          that was the subject of a proceeding before -- an 24          interim proceeding before the case managing member, 25          Madam Jensen. I have read her ruling and that matter

1 has been adjudicated and I agree with that ruling.

2 So let us proceed.

3 MR. FROMM: Well, can there be some 4 direction, then, about -- I need some direction in 5 terms of how far this can be shared. If this is 6 public, and it should be public, but we have a 7 publication ban, what do we do? Do we collect these 8 documents at the end of the proceedings today and the 9 Tribunal hangs on to them and they get distributed for 10 us to work with tomorrow?

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Certainly I would 12 expect counsel would take those documents with them.
13 Each of the parties here have copies of these 14 documents. Do the Commission or Mr. Warman have any 15 concerns with respect to the document that we have 16 before us?

17 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I wouldn't 18 have any objection, but the thing is the respondent is 19 not very clear if we wants one, a publication ban.

20 THE CHAIRPERSON: I think it is 21 fairly clear that we doesn't want a publication ban.

22 MR. VIGNA: If that is the case, I
23 mean, he would have the primary concern. He is waiving 24 that right to ask for one.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

1 Mr. Warman, do you have anything?

2 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, I just note
3 that there was a fairly sort of repeated request for a 4 copy of the publication ban from Mr. Fromm and from the 5 respondent, Mr. Bahr. That publication ban has never, 6 in fact, been provided, despite those requests, and I 7 am certainly not making a request for a publication 8 ban.

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you. Well,
10 these proceedings are, of course, public proceedings.
11 Mr. Fromm, you have expressed clearly that you are not 12 making an application for a publication ban. That is 13 certainly an application I would entertain quite 14 seriously if your client wanted that, and so these 15 proceedings are public and they will proceed as per 16 your request and we will just carry on in the ordinary 17 course.

18 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, you were 19 mentioning earlier in your testimony how you started 20 monitoring the internet?

21 MR. CAMP: That is right.

22 MR. VIGNA: And now we are at Tab 8
23 which is your Investigation Report. Can you tell us 24 exactly how you make the link between monitoring of the 25 internet and how you actually come down to targeting an

1 individual in particular by going through the different 2 documents that we have before you and mentioning the 3 different items?

4 For example, we will start with the 5 first document. Give us the historical chronology of 6 the investigation.

7 MR. CAMP: Right.

8 MR. VIGNA: And by making reference
9 to the Investigation Report.

10 MR. CAMP: Right. There is -- in an 11 investigation like this, there is a few things that are 12 going on at the same time. One is that we have to 13 prove that the content inside the website breaches 14 Section 319. So we have to show that there is hate.

15 Second thing is we have to find out 16 who runs the website, who is the person behind the 17 content on that website.

18 So what I would like to present is 19 the -- I guess the chronology of how we were able to 20 link the website to the accused.

21 Like I said earlier, that when the 22 Hate Crime Unit first started, we began to monitor 23 Stormfront, and there was a moniker, SS-88, that became 24 a concern of mine, and I will show you why.

25 MR. VIGNA: Before we do that,

1           Sergeant Camp, since you are looking at documents which 2           are in the -- we will go through later, but -- Madam 3           Chair, I will produce documents from the website which 4           he is going to describe so that we can all follow. I 5           will do it immediately since he is going to it. I have 6           it in a separate document right here.

7                         THE CHAIRPERSON: What are those 8           documents, Counsel?

9                         MR. VIGNA: Sorry?

10                        THE CHAIRPERSON: What are those 11           documents?

12                        MR. VIGNA: Those are documents from 13           the website Stormfront which we got last week. They 14           are not in the binder, but they are basically excerpts 15           from the website which are on paper copy, and the 16           Sergeant Camp will go through documents to explain how 17           he makes the link to SS-88 and who the individual 18           behind SS-88 is.

19                        THE CHAIRPERSON: And these documents
20           were provided to the respondent?

21                        MR. VIGNA: They were last Wednesday.
22           That is what was mentioned.

23                        THE CHAIRPERSON: These are the 24           documents we were discussing this morning. Okay.
25           Thank you.

1 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, the documents
2 are in reverse order, I just noticed. The documents
3 that I have are the same but they are -- you have them 4 in reverse order, chronologically speaking.

5 THE CHAIRPERSON: So your first page 6 looks like that?

7 MR. CAMP: Yes.

8 MR. VIGNA: Go according to the bunch
9 of documents I just gave you because that is the same 10 order everybody has.

11 MR. FROMM: What was the first 12 document or what is the first posting?

13 THE CHAIRPERSON: The first page in 14 my package is this one. It says Stormfront.org and I 15 guess one of the distinguishing comments is a name Marc 16 Lemire on the front page. Does that help, Mr. Fromm?

17 MR. FROMM: Yeah.

18 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay.

19 MR. CAMP: Again, if I am going to 20 proceed chronologically --

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: We need to work
22 from the back to the front?

23 MR. CAMP: Yeah, unfortunately, 24 unless you want to --

25 MR. VIGNA: Have we produced this,

1 Madam Chair, as an exhibit?

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: No, we haven't yet.

3 MR. VIGNA: I would like to produce
4 it -- first of all, ask questions.

5 Do you recognize these documents,
6 Mr. Sergeant Camp?

7 MR. CAMP: Yes, sir. These documents
8 are copies of printed downloads I have taken off the 9 website of Stormfront.org. Just to give you a preamble 10 on which way I am headed here, Stormfront.org, again, 11 as mentioned, was a discussion forum, and what I began 12 to see on Stormfront.org was SS-88 discussing the idea 13 of starting up an organization called Western Canada 14 For Us and also starting up a website called Western 15 Canada For Us or WCFU.

16 MR. VIGNA: So you recognized these 17 documents and these were documents you downloaded from 18 the website?

19 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

20 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I would like
21 to produce this bunch of documents as an exhibit.

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: Madam Clerk?

23 THE REGISTRAR: Copies of the 24 documents printed downloaded from the Stormfront
25 website will be filed as commission HR-3.

1 EXHIBIT NO. HR-3: Copies of 2 documents printed downloaded
3 from Stormfront website

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am wondering if 5 it might be a good use of our time to take a couple of 6 minutes and reorganize these documents?

7 MR. VIGNA: Would you like to take an 8 adjournment, Madam Chair?

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: I don't think it is 10 going to take me that long. What time is it, actually?

11 THE REGISTRAR: It is 11:17.

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: It is 11:17. Sure, 13 I think it is appropriate to have a break now. 15 14 minutes?

15 MR. VIGNA: Fine.

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: I will go and do 17 some paper sorting.

18 --- Upon recessing at 10:17 a.m.

19 --- Upon resuming at 10:40 a.m.

20 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good afternoon,
21 everyone. Be seated. I did not make it clear this 22 morning, but I will now.

23 The rules of procedure that govern 24 the tribunal direct me to conclude a hearing in an 25 efficient manner. That serves the fairness of all

1 parties, so I just want to give you notice that we will 2 be reconvening according to my direction. If I say a
3 break is 15 minutes, I will return to the room after 15 4 minutes and we will continue with the proceeding 5 whether or not all of the parties and the 6 representatives are here.

7 So just so you know.

8 All right, so carry on.

9 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, before
10 carrying on with the witness, I would like to make a 11 request. I have given it some further thought on the 12 publication ban until the criminal hearing is over, to 13 avoid any complications that can arise or any 14 conflicting order with the criminal proceedings.

15 I understand that the respondent was 16 not making one at that point and figured it was more in 17 his interest to ask for one, but I think for a measure 18 of prudence, I have spoken to the police officer, it 19 would be preferable that we have a publication ban 20 until the criminal proceedings are over.

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: Counsel, it seems 22 to me that the matter of a publication ban is something 23 that I would expect a respondent to be in the best 24 position to request. I don't see how -- unless counsel 25 can convince me, I don't see how there is sufficient

1 prejudice to the Commission or to Mr. Warman to warrant
2 issuing a publication ban. The standard is a very high 3 one, and frankly, it is for the protection of the 4 respondent, and if the respondent doesn't want it, then 5 I don't see how and why publication ban would issue.

6 Mr. Warman.

7 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, in 8 furtherance of Mr. Vigna's request, my only concern is 9 that both with regard to Mr. Camp and myself, Mr. Camp 10 will certainly be called as a witness in the criminal 11 trial of Mr. Bahr and, as far as I understand it, there 12 is a decent chance that I will also be called as a 13 witness in the criminal trial, so I just lay that out 14 as another point of information in your consideration.

15 I personally -- there is obviously no 16 prejudice to me --

17 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

18 MR. WARMAN: -- because I am not the 19 accused, so I just throw that out as a point of 20 information.

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. Thank you.
22 In the circumstances, then, I am going to deny the 23 request for a publication ban.

24 So let us carry on.

25 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant camp, we were at 1 Tab 8 which was the Investigation Report.

2 MR. CAMP: That is correct. Like I
3 mentioned, there was a two-prong approach to the 4 investigation. One was to present the hate under the 5 Section 319(2). Secondly, I had to link the website to 6 a person, and that is what I am going to present now, 7 the second component of how do we link the WCFU website
8 to Glenn Bahr.

9 MR. VIGNA: Are you referring to page 10 12?

11 MR. CAMP: What I will be referring 12 to initially is the photocopies of the downloaded 13 pictures of Stormfront -- or sorry, downloaded pages of 14 Stormfront.org.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: So that is HR-3?

16 MR. CAMP: If I bring you to the 17 attention of the first page there, what I am going to 18 show you, Madam Chair, is basically, like I explained 19 earlier, when you open up a discussion or when you go 20 into Canada Discussion on the Stormfront.org website, 21 you can then go into certain thread titles, and inside 22 those thread titles you will find a number of members 23 using monikers, such as toth, like you see there, 24 making comments and discussion in regards to issues.

25 The second page, you will see --

1                   MR. VIGNA: Just describe each page 2 for the record so that we are clear that we are on the 3 right page. As you go on each page, just describe with 4 the page so that we have no --

5                   MR. CAMP: The first page you will 6 see members discussing, for example, toth as a forum
7 member, the subject matter "Tattoos," where it says
8 "Re. Tattoos." There is a second response from a 9 member called cryptonite on tattoos. Again, the 10 subject matter on this thread is tattoos and the posts 11 that are presented by toth and cryptonite and then 12 thirdly Jessy Destruction are tattoos.

13                   What you will see right above their 14 moniker as well is the date of the post, for example, 15 January 11th, 2004, and the time for toth, cryptonite 16 and Jessy Destruction.

17                   Now, going on over to page 2, you 18 will see the second portion of Jessy Destruction's post 19 under the thread subject matter "Tattoos," and then 20 what you will find is a post by a member called SS-88.

21                   Now, the reason I put this -- I 22 downloaded this post is because -- and this is what 23 piqued my interest about SS-88 was what he describes in 24 the content of the post:

25                   "Because I believe in the Nazi

1                                   ideals."

2                                   He is responding to "Why would you or 3 anybody get a swastika?" Again talking about tattoos, 4 so the response by SS-88 is:

5                                   "Because I believe in the Nazi 6 ideals. To me it is a symbol of 7 my beliefs and lets everybody
8 knows what I stand for. I am
9 not ashamed of wearing a 10 swastika but proud to wear the 11 symbol. I am prepared to fight
12 for my beliefs. I take my shirt 13 off every summer and my SS is 14 revealed and sure I get looks,
15 but I am proud to have the SS on 16 my skin. To me it is a great 17 honour. I take great honour in 18 the fact that my grandfather
19 fought in the German army. This 20 is why I will get the swastika
21 because, dead or alive, Hitler
22 is my Fuhrer. Heil Hitler."

23                                   Again, at this point, this is not a 24 criminal investigation. This is more of a piques my 25 interest because of the subject matter.

1                   So on to page 3, there is additional 2                   comments by WithoutDoubt and toth.

3                   I think this is probably page 4, the 4                   subsequent page, there is another comment by SS-88 on 5                   the subject matter of tattoos:

6                                 "I don't have any pics of my 7                                 tattoos, but I have SS on my 8                                 right pec, Blitzkrieg across the 9                                 top of my back. I have an iron 10                                cross with flames on my left 11                                shoulder, an iron cross with 12                                skull on my right shoulder and 13                                flames and skulls on my right
14                                arm and an eagle with a Maple 15                                Leaf in its wing on my left arm.
16                                I plan on getting a swastika on 17                                my tummy next. I want it to 18                                look like it's carved out of 19                                stone."

20                                Now the reason I downloaded this and 21                                I am going to fast forward to the search warrant on --

22                                MR. VIGNA: That is at tab -- look at 23                                the binder, please.

24                                MR. CAMP: Sorry, I want to show the 25                                search warrant. I want to show a portion of the 1 investigation.

2 On Tab 8 -- I will find the page
3 number for you here, one sec, Madam Chair.

4 MR. VIGNA: HR-2.

5 MR. CAMP: This might take a few 6 minutes, Madam Chair. I have lost where this is 7 relevant in the file here.

8 Tab 8, page 29 of the report.

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. Thank you.

10 MR. CAMP: The reason I kept this 11 downloaded copy -- actually, I am glad I did because on 12 the day of the search warrant and, again, I am fast 13 forwarding to 2004, May 7th, on paragraph 46, I was 14 speaking with Glenn Bahr in his home after the search 15 warrant -- or during the execution of the search 16 warrant of his computers and asked him to describe the 17 tattoos on his body.

18 Again, he describes the skull and 19 flames, an eagle with Canadian flag, an alien, the word 20 "blitzkrieg" across his back and the SS symbol on his 21 chest.

22 MR. VIGNA: That is paragraph 46,
23 right?

24 MR. CAMP: Paragraph 46.

25 What you see is you have a few of the 1 tattoos matching his description as SS-88 on Stormfront 2 on January 12th. For example, the SS symbol on his 3 chest, the Blitzkrieg across the top of my back, flames 4 and skulls.

5 He puts down on the SS-88 post eagle
6 with a Maple Leaf. I wrote down when he described to 7 me eagle with a Canadian flag.

8 He does have an alien that he showed 9 me. I just can't remember where it is on his body, the 10 tattoo of the alien.

11 Again, it is just one piece of the 12 puzzle in trying to connect SS-88 to Glenn Bahr.

13 So moving along, the subsequent page 14 there is a lone post there. Again, this is December 15 15th, 2003.

16 MR. VIGNA: Now you are going back to 17 HR-3, I believe, right?

18 MR. CAMP: What you can do is -- I am
19 sorry?

20 MR. VIGNA: You are going back to 21 HR-3?

22 MR. CAMP: Yeah, going back to the 23 Stormfront downloads, sorry. It would be page 5. On 24 the top of it it says page 7 of 7.

25 The reason I downloaded this post --

1 and, again, if you look at the date, December 15th, 2 2003, what you can do on a website is you can bring 3 your icon up to SS-88 and tab on a title that says "all 4 posts" or "view all posts," and one of the posts that I 5 viewed back in -- when I did this was a post by SS-88 6 talking about:

7 "If you need a website done to 8 promote your plan, I can offer
9 you my services free of charge.
10 Just e-mail me, WCFU."

11 Again, the website is not up and 12 running. There is no WCFU website at this time and I 13 am concerned -- I am not sure what the WCFU stands for 14 at that time, but there is more concern about:

15 "My honour is my loyalty.
16 Heinrich Himmler, SS Reich
17 Fuhrer 88."

18 Again, the acronym SS-88 and below
19 that the icon with the lighting bolts portraying SS-88 20 again.

21 MR. VIGNA: And what is the mention
22 Re. Whiteville, Canada?

23 MR. CAMP: The Re. Whiteville Canada
24 was the thread starter. It was the subject matter on 25 that thread. I didn't download the whole thread. I

1 just downloaded the SS-88 post on that thread.

2 In that thread there was discussion
3 about the development of a community in Alberta called 4 Whiteville. Obviously the SS-88 got off track or 5 somehow the conversation got off track on that thread
6 and SS-88 is promoting or marketing himself to build a
7 website.

8 Subsequent page, we have a post by 9 proud18. The page after that --

10 MR. VIGNA: That is 1 of 5, right, 11 top right-hand?

12 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

13 MR. VIGNA: When it says "a super 14 idea," what is that a response to?

15 MR. CAMP: Okay. Sorry, Madam Chair.
16 Just to go back to proud18's post again. Proud18 17 presents a thread starter and a super idea he has:

18 "Reading an article today gave 19 me an idea to help our cause.
20 Our education system has turned 21 their backs on teaching white 22 history in schools. Those that 23 go to school can verify this."

24 He then goes on to talk about a 25 Ukrainian website that was launched and on the third

1 paragraph is:

2 "My idea is to build a website
3 for whites history, culture, et 4 cetera."

5 He goes on to describe what proud18
6 would like to see on that website.

7 MR. VIGNA: Now, Sergeant Camp,
8 proud18, at one point in I am in your investigation 9 were you able to associate a name to the moniker
10 proud18?

11 MR. CAMP: Yeah, proud18 was a -- we 12 associated him to the identity of Peter Kouba.

13 The subsequent page after that is a 14 response by SS-88:

15 "Well, that's a great idea. Why
16 not have it part of WCFU.com.
17 That way it would drive more
18 traffic to our site. I don't 19 think it would be a separate 20 site. It should be a different
21 section at WCFU.com."

22 Again, puts in the acronym WCFU for 23 Western Canada For Us.

24 And the thread continues on with 25 subsequent posts.

1                   Going over to the next page.

2                   MR. VIGNA:    3 of 5?

3                   MR. CAMP:    Where it says in the top 4                corner 3 of 5, there is additional posts the super 5                idea, WhiteFusion, by proud18 again.

6                   MR. VIGNA:    An objection, I think.

7                   MR. FROMM:    It is not an objection, 8                just a clarification.  On the SS-88 that you just read, 9                "well, that's a great idea," what is the date on that?
10               On my copy, it is not there.  It is cut off.

11                  MR. CAMP:    So is mine.  I can tell 12                you that the one -- the post before that was February 13                12th, 2004.  The posts on Stormfront go in 14                chronological order.

15                  MR. WARMAN:   Madam Chair, if I may be 16                of assistance.

17                  THE CHAIRPERSON:   Yes.

18                  MR. WARMAN:    I believe if you look at 19                the bottom of the first page just below the first 20                posting by proud18, it is because it is printing off 21                what it sees on a screen sometimes the pages are 22                separated so perhaps...

23                  MR. CAMP:    That would be the bottom 24                of that post by proud18 inside the box and outside the 25                box, bottom left says February 12th, 2004, 2:47 p.m.

1 would be the date of the post by SS-88.

2 MR. FROMM: So you are saying, then,
3 that the date for the SS-88 post is contained on the 4 previous page.

5 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

6 Moving along, I want to go to the -- 7 again, we are on the post where it says SS-88, he 8 discusses the WCFU website. The subsequent page there 9 is conversation by WhiteFusion, proud18 in regards to 10 the same thread starter.

11 Again, the next page there is more 12 posts by Louis, proud18, Lord Thunder-X, and that is 13 where that thread, at the time of this print, came to 14 an end.

15 I would like to move on to the next 16 page where there is a thread on Stormfront.org. There 17 is a post by Der totenkopf.

18 MR. VIGNA: Going to the title of the 19 posting it says B.C., 1 of 3?

20 MR. CAMP: I am sorry?

21 MR. VIGNA: The title of the posting, 22 what would it be?

23 MR. CAMP: The title of the post is 24 "B.C."

25 MR. VIGNA: Does that mean anything?

1 MR. CAMP: Well, Der totenkopf does,
2 I guess, elaborate on his post talking about:

3 "Let's get another get-together
4 again here in B.C. and anyone
5 else outside of B.C."

6 And on February 17th, a subsequent 7 post by SS-88.

8 SS-88 describes or writes:

9 "Maybe you guys could hold a 10 meet in Kamloops. A few of us
11 from Alberta could make the 12 meet. Sometime in late March 13 would be a great time for us
14 Albertans after our Red Deer
15 meet we have the WCFU website
16 up."

17 Another sentence that concerns me is:

18 "As for wearing what you want, I 19 agree."

20 And describes:

21 "I'm a skin..."

22 Referring to, I would elaborate, 23 skinhead.

24 "...and wear my boots, braces 25 and swastika adorned."

1                                   At the bottom he puts the acronym
2                   WCFU.

3                                   MR. VIGNA: Red Deer, in terms of 4                   Edmonton is at what distance?

5                                   MR. CAMP: 160 kilometres, I think, 6                   150, 160 kilometres.

7                                   MR. VIGNA: I have a little map, 8                   Madam Chair, just to give a visual representation 9                   between Edmonton and Red Deer. I don't know if you...

10                                  THE CHAIRPERSON: I am quite familiar 11                   with the distance.

12                                  MR. VIGNA: All right.

13                                  MR. CAMP: This is also the first 14                   time on that post that we begin to see that they are 15                   hoping -- I say they, I am talking the members 16                   discussing on this thread a meet in Red Deer, or I 17                   should say a meeting, and it is the first time that 18                   there is a discussion about it being in Red Deer.

19                                  The subsequent post by proud18 on the 20                   subsequent page and Lord Playfair and Internal Winter 21                   about this meet.

22                                  Stormfront -- sorry, the thread comes 23                   to an end at the time of this print and I move on to 24                   the next page where there is a new thread by SS-88. It 25                   is a thread starter Red Deer on Sunday. That post

1           says:

2                               "Well, things are looking 3                               great."

4                               And this was on February 27th.

5                               "I just finished talking to the 6                               renters of the Kneehill 7                               Community Hall and they are 8                               putting the heat on for us 9                               tonight. The police will be 10                              there to keep the peace. This 11                              will be a great event."

12                              Again, there is a few things there.

13                              It is Glenn Bahr seems to be, from what I am reading, 14                              taking an active -- sorry, SS-88 is taking an active 15                              role in the facilitation of this meet in Red Deer. He 16                              advertises and markets WCFU.

17                              I spoke to Corporal Laracque from Red 18                              Deer R.C.M.P. detachment and he explained to me that he 19                              spoke directly to Glenn Bahr in regards to the event, 20                              and it is interesting to note that Corporal Laracque 21                              explained to me that one of his jobs was to try to keep 22                              the peace in Red Deer and it is this same comment that 23                              Glenn Bahr makes:

24                              "The police will be there to 25                              keep the peace."

1                   And this was after Corporal Laracque
2 had spoken to Glenn Bahr. Again, I should mention 3 Corporal Laracque had a few conversations with Glenn 4 Bahr.

5                   MR. VIGNA: He is from the R.C.M.P., 6 I believe.

7                   MR. CAMP: That is correct.

8                   So SS-88 on Stormfront, it is 9 beginning to look to me at this point that SS-88 is 10 Glenn Bahr.

11                   Subsequent page there is posts in 12 regards to the Red Deer meet by proud18 and MaryMac.
13 Subsequent page more posts by BloodandBooze and 14 MaryMac.

15                   Next page another post by proud18, 16 all discussing the excitement of the big meet in Red 17 Deer.

18                   The next page is a message from 19 SS-88. There is a question in regards to the reasoning
20 behind getting police -- that being the R.C.M.P. -- 21 involved. As you can see, there is a post by MaryMac, 22 and just to explain how that works, sometimes as an 23 active member on a website discussion forum, you can 24 post a previous comment by one of the members onto what 25 you want to talk about and then right underneath that

1 make a -- post your own content in regards to the post.

2 So originally posted by MaryMac says:

3 "You guys are numb skulls. Why 4 would you invite cops?"

5 And basically the content of that 6 post is in regards to maybe the cops inviting them is 7 not a good idea.

8 Then SS-88 posts:

9 "Well, MaryMac, it is the end of 10 the month so I can understand 11 your moodiness. To calling your 12 fellow white nationalists names
13 is unproductive. We are doing
14 nothing illegal and the ARA know 15 the location of the meet and are 16 going to be there. So instead
17 of..."

18 Again, this is cut off. Something 19 cops.

20 "Instead of the cops coming to 21 fight with a bunch of skinheads
22 and antiracists, I informed 23 them."

24 Again, this goes along with what 25 Corporal Laracque explained to me, that he spoke

1 directly to Glenn Bahr with regards to this meet and 2 the concerns that Glenn Bahr had with the meet.

3 Because what was happening was WCFU
4 members were beginning to see that ARA was going to 5 show up at the Kneehill Community Hall and protest the 6 WCFU event, so that is why the R.C.M.P. and Glenn Bahr 7 spoke.

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: What does ARA stand 9 for?

10 MR. CAMP: The Antiracist Action
11 Group. They are, depending on what region of the 12 country you are in, a group of civilians that are 13 cohesive, I guess, on the subject of racists and 14 fighting or prevention of racist activity in their 15 community, depending on what community you go to.

16 MR. VIGNA: The Kneehill Community
17 Centre is located in which city exactly?

18 MR. CAMP: It is just outside of Red 19 Deer in Innisfail.

20 MR. VIGNA: And Leduc is in what 21 distance from Red Deer?

22 MR. CAMP: 130 kilometres. Pretty 23 far.

24 MR. VIGNA: Closer to Edmonton?

25 MR. CAMP: Leduc?

1 MR. VIGNA: Yes.

2 MR. CAMP: Leduc is right on the 3 border of Edmonton, south of it.

4 The next page is the end of that 5 thread.

6 There is another thread on 7 Stormfront.org by SS-88 on March 1st, and just to give 8 you a bit of background, from what we were monitoring 9 on the internet, there was a lot of rhetoric going back 10 and forth from, I think, and a lot of activity going on 11 back and forth between the members of the WCFU who were 12 trying to organize a gathering at the Kneehill 13 Community Hall, and members of the ARA.

14 So SS-88 responds to what the ARA are 15 actively doing and he responds by saying:

16 "This is for any of the media, 17 police or other folks who have 18 seen the article about WCFU
19 and/or the posters that the ARA 20 communist druggies put up about 21 me in Red Deer."

22 The next paragraph is a content about 23 what he is and what the WCFU are.

24 Third paragraph is, again, describing 25 what WCFU is, Western Canada For Us, an organization of 1 many different peoples from all walks of life,

2 different religious beliefs and political beliefs.

3 MR. VIGNA: Just before you go any 4 further, page 17 of your report, we are talking about 5 poster. This report is at Tab 8.

6 MR. CAMP: I am sorry?

7 MR. VIGNA: Just go back to Tab 8 of 8 your report.

9 MR. CAMP: Right.

10 MR. VIGNA: Making the link to the 11 document which you just described about a poster.

12 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I am going to do 13 that in one sec.

14 MR. VIGNA: Okay.

15 MR. CAMP: That is just what I am 16 getting to, actually.

17 MR. VIGNA: Okay. I will let you 18 keep going.

19 MR. CAMP: Again, we are at the point 20 where he describes what WCFU is.

21 So the next page he finishes the 22 post, again, upset with the ARA and talking about how 23 the WCFU is not going to go away.

24 The next post by SS-88, again, on 25 Stormfront says:

1 "You can also check out our
2 website to see what we stand
3 for. Western Canada For Us."

4 Next page there is a post.

5 MR. FROMM: Where was the "you can 6 check out our website"? I seem to have two copies of 7 that two pages. Okay. Got it.

8 MR. CAMP: Thank you.

9 The next page is a post, again, on 10 Stormfront by SS-88, and again, just to --

11 MR. FROMM: Excuse me. That post
12 "you can also check out our website, see what we stand 13 for," what is the date on that?

14 MR. CAMP: Well, it says yesterday at 15 7:39 p.m., and the post before that says yesterday at 16 1:39 p.m.

17 MR. FROMM: Would this be prior to 18 the planned meeting in Red Deer? I am trying to stick 19 a defining date.

20 MR. CAMP: I understand. This one,
21 all I can say is -- okay, sorry.

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Warman?

23 MR. WARMAN: Sorry, if I may be of 24 assistance. I believe that when we come to my 25 testimony, the same document is currently included. It

1 is at Tab 7 of a binder that you haven't seen yet, but 2 it indicates the date at the bottom as being 3 06/01/2004.

4 MR. FROMM: What would that be?

5 THE CHAIRPERSON: So that would be 6 June 1st, 2004?

7 MR. WARMAN: No, I believe it would 8 be -- sorry, it is just -- it is difficult to read. I 9 will try and get a better copy to confirm what the date 10 is.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay.

12 MR. WARMAN: But if that is the case,
13 then it would be in January of 2004.

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay. Well, we 15 will wait, then, for that clarification.

16 MR. CAMP: I can tell you this, 17 though, that I remember reading these posts and it was 18 right around the time of the Red Deer community 19 meeting, like either it was just after it.

20 From what I could read from the 21 rhetoric on Stormfront, Glenn Bahr was being, for lack 22 of a better term, harassed by the ARA because of his 23 advertisement of the meet for the WCFU at the Red Deer 24 Community Hall, the Kneehill Community Hall.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Sergeant Camp, why

1 do we have dates and times sometimes and not others?
2 What would cause this to print out with the identifier 3 "yesterday," whereas the other ones we have looked at 4 actually printout and identify a date and quite 5 specifically a time?

6 MR. CAMP: Right. I can -- what 7 happens sometimes is that if there is a thread starter
8 posted, let us say March 1st, 2004, the administrator
9 for Stormfront would sometimes put the subsequent post 10 as yesterday, for whatever reason and I don't know -- I 11 can't speak for the administrator of Stormfront on the 12 Canada discussion forum.

13 THE CHAIRPERSON: Carry on, Counsel.

14 MR. CAMP: There is a post that 15 starts off with yesterday at 8:31 p.m. by SS-88.

16 MR. VIGNA: That is page 3 of 8, 17 right?

18 MR. CAMP: Page 3 of 8. The subject
19 matter is "Western Canada For Us, posters of me in Red 20 Deer."

21 THE CHAIRPERSON: Sergeant Camp, I 22 have been advised that it is 12:30, so let us take our 23 lunch break. I will reconvene at 1:40 and we will get 24 started. So in an hour and ten minutes, 1:40.

25 --- Upon recessing at 12:30 p.m.

1 --- Upon resuming at 1:40 p.m.

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: Good afternoon. Be 3 seated. I trust everybody was able to stay dry over 4 the lunchtime. I wish I could say the same, but I am a 5 little soggy.

6 So we will carry on.

7 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, we had left
8 off at page 4 of 8, talking about SS-88 and there was a 9 question of the date. We were able to get a document 10 which gives the date.

11 Sergeant Camp, you are at the same 12 location as where we left off?

13 MR. CAMP: Yes, I am. Okay.

14 MR. VIGNA: Before you go there, I am 15 just going to introduce in evidence a document which 16 basically --

17 THE CHAIRPERSON: This is a document
18 you received from Mr. Warman?

19 MR. VIGNA: Yes.

20 THE CHAIRPERSON: And you provided a
21 copy to Mr. Fromm?

22 MR. VIGNA: Yes, we have. There is 23 also a picture which we will explain. I will put it 24 all together, but we will explain the picture which is 25 the last page.

1 MR. FROMM: You mean this?

2 MR. VIGNA: Yes.

3 So you have a document we just 4 provided you, Sergeant Camp?

5 MR. CAMP: Thank you.

6 MR. VIGNA: In relation to the 7 document you were testifying this morning where there 8 was an issue about the date where it said "yesterday."

9 MR. CAMP: Okay.

10 MR. VIGNA: If you turn to the second 11 page of the three-page document.

12 MR. CAMP: Right.

13 MR. VIGNA: Is it the same and you 14 have a date there, the contents?

15 MR. CAMP: Yes, it is.

16 MR. VIGNA: This document we just 17 produced, you have also a date which is, I believe, 18 03/01/2004.

19 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

20 MR. VIGNA: It says:

21 "You can also check out our
22 website to see what we stand
23 for. Western Canada For Us."

24 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I see it. Yeah.

25 MR. VIGNA: There is only a minor

1 difference at the end of the document, but the 2 substance of the document is the same?

3 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

4 MR. VIGNA: Okay. Move on to the 5 next page.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: Counsel, do you
7 want this entered as an exhibit?

8 MR. VIGNA: Yes, Madam Chair, we 9 would like to have it entered as an exhibit, three-page 10 document.

11 THE REGISTRAR: The three-page
12 document excerpt from the Stormfront.org website will 13 be filed as Commission Exhibit HR-4.

14 EXHIBIT NO. HR-4: Three-page
15 excerpt from Stormfront.org
16 website

17 THE CHAIRPERSON: Madam Registrar, do
18 you have a stapler?

19 MR. FROMM: What is HR-4? It really 20 just replaces a sheet that didn't have a date. Why not 21 just make it part of the original exhibit?

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: I think it would be 23 helpful, as it was introduced sort of in midstream, to 24 just have it as a separate document to help us track
25 the paper a little bit, I think, Mr. Fromm.

1                   MR. VIGNA: So proceed from where you
2 had left off with this new addition and explain 3 afterwards the poster and where you got the poster from 4 and if it was from the website or not.

5                   MR. CAMP: Okay, thank you.

6                   As I mentioned, again, at this point 7 we are just trying to connect SS-88 to Glenn Bahr. We 8 did this by going to Stormfront, the Stormfront 9 Canadian discussion forum and we are on the SS-88 posts 10 now, with the subject title thread starter is "Western 11 Canada For Us, posters of me in Red Deer."

12                   Here on his post he says:

13                   "Below is the content from the 14 posters put up."

15                   And he is referring to the posters 16 put up about him in Red Deer, that being SS-88. It 17 says:

18                   "A public service announcement 19 from the Calgary antiracist 20 action."

21                   With the acronym ARA. Then he goes 22 this Stormfront post to describe the content of the 23 poster. Basically that it is titled "Unwanted" and 24 then asterisk he puts in -- SS-88 puts in:

25                   "My picture was here."

1                   With his name, Glenn, asterisk, 2                   address, asterisk, phone and date of birth with 3                   asterisk as well.

4                   SS-88 then goes on to continue to 5                   post the content of the poster that supposedly the ARA 6                   had put up about him in Red Deer. Basically the poster 7                   goes on in summation to say that the person here is a 8                   serious threat to our community, they organized a 9                   neo-Nazi meeting in Red Deer and it was a gathering of 10                  white supremists, that he publicly professes his 11                  admiration of Adolf Hitler and it goes on and ends with 12                  WCFU.

13                                "My honour is my loyalty.
14                                Heinrich Himmler."

15                  Now, what is interesting here is he 16                  doesn't actually post -- I don't have a copy of the 17                  poster, and about this time, a complainant on the 18                  criminal complaint, Richard Warman, was in contact with 19                  the Edmonton Police Service Hate Crimes Unit. I 20                  contacted Mr. Warman to ask him if he knew what the 21                  poster had -- what poster the post was referring to.

22                                Richard Warman said he had a copy of 23                                it and he sent me that copy.

24                                MR. VIGNA: That is the third page of 25                                the Document HR-4 we just produced?

1 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: Actually, if we can 3 just go back to the first couple of pages here, the 4 first page in particular. I am noticing that the 5 document that we were looking at that is contained in 6 HR-3, this post that we have now identified to have 7 been made the 1st of March, 2004 at 1 p.m., SS-88 is 8 identified in HR-3 with a location of Alberta, Canada, 9 and then in the HR-4, the location is West Coast, 10 Canada.

11 Can anybody shed some light on that 12 difference?

13 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, essentially 14 what happens is with the forum postings when you make 15 up an identity, you get your little nickname and you 16 get your little picture which is your little symbol.
17 In this case you can see there is the "SS" and then 18 there is the location.

19 So if you subsequently change that,
20 what happens is it goes back and changes all of your 21 previous postings to change it to your new symbol and 22 your new location.

23 So what would have happened is that 24 between the date that the original version would be --

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Mr. Warman, I am

1 concerned that --

2 MR. WARMAN: Yeah, I don't want to 3 give evidence.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: -- of course, you
5 can't give evidence. Well, we will just see where this 6 takes us.

7 Carry on, Counsel.

8 MR. VIGNA: So Sergeant Camp, 9 continue from where you left off and try to explain, if 10 you are able to, the --

11 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I contacted Richard 12 Warman -- sorry, Madam Chair. I contacted Richard 13 Warman to see if he was able to access a copy of that 14 poster and he did and sent me a poster through the mail 15 that you have a copy of right now.

16 MR. VIGNA: Which is the third page
17 of HR-4?

18 MR. CAMP: That is correct. It is 19 also on Tab 17 of the file, if I am correct, a copy of 20 it there as well.

21 MR. VIGNA: Which is not as clear.
22 It is also in Tab 17 of the book of documents, Madam
23 Chair, but it is the same poster. I don't see a need 24 to produce it twice. We have got a clear copy of it 25 now, so we will leave it at that.

1                   MR. CAMP:  What is interesting here
2                   is that the content that SS-88 -- I should say the 3                   layout of the poster that SS-88 portrays on his post is 4                   quite similar to the poster that we see here 5                   "Unwanted," and also the content and the subsequent 6                   paragraph underneath is date of birth is verbatim the 7                   same as the content that is posted here by SS-88.

8                   Again, it leads me to believe at this 9                   point that, again, SS-88 is Glenn Bahr.  It is another 10                  piece of the puzzle of trying to figure out who SS-88 11                  is.

12                  MR. VIGNA:  And in terms of period, 13                  point in time, is this the first time that you actually 14                  have a face associated to Glenn Bahr with this poster 15                  while you are doing the investigation?

16                  MR. CAMP:  First time face to the 17                  poster but, you know, I can't remember if at this point 18                  I had -- I knew his identity, but I am not sure if I 19                  had a face to him yet.  Yeah, I think we did have a 20                  face to him at this point in the criminal 21                  investigation.  I can't remember at this point.

22                  MR. VIGNA:  Pursue on with H-3, the 23                  following page.

24                  MR. CAMP:  Then the following page 25                  there are some subsequent posts in regards to the 1 posters, including one by SS-88 again. Just mentioning 2 that he is thankful for the support that he is getting 3 from his friends on Stormfront.

4 MR. VIGNA: He is mentioning about 5 being out west on the bottom of the post there.

6 MR. CAMP: Well, the original post by 7 Chris. V mentions:

8 "I really wish I was out west to 9 offer some help and not to worry 10 about them too much."

11 And right underneath that is actually 12 SS-88's post which basically says:

13 "I appreciate your support, 14 brother."

15 MR. VIGNA: So if we read this in 16 correlation with the previous posting where we 17 mentioned earlier about west coast, is there an 18 understanding that the person that is out west is Glenn
19 Bahr?

20 MR. CAMP: At this point, I am pretty 21 sure that SS-88 is Glenn Bahr and that he is in Red 22 Deer and that he just attempted to organize a Kneehill 23 Community Hall meeting and he is attempting to start up 24 a website.

25 It was approximately at this time

1 when I received information from the British Columbia 2 Hate Crimes Unit as well in regards to who SS-88 is.

3 The reason I am mentioning that is 4 that the B.C. Hate Crimes Team also monitors Stormfront 5 Canada and they were starting to see a lot of posts on 6 Stormfront by a number of people in Alberta in regards
7 to the WCFU and the advent of the WCFU website.

8 I got a call from one of the 9 corporals there in the B.C. Hate Crimes Unit to explain 10 to me that he knows who SS-88 is and that it is Glenn 11 Bahr, because Glenn Bahr is originally from British 12 Columbia and the B.C. Hate Crimes Unit has dealt with 13 Glenn Bahr previously and they understand that he goes 14 by the acronym of SS-88.

15 MR. VIGNA: Now, go on to the next 16 page, page 5 of 8.

17 MR. CAMP: Again, it is the second
18 half of the post where SS-88 thanks for support. There 19 is a subsequent post by proud18 in records to the 20 posters.

21 MR. VIGNA: 6 of 8?

22 MR. CAMP: Again, more posts in 23 regards to the same thread by Louis and Chris. V.

24 Again, the next page the same and 25 White Hab Girl posts. And the next page ends the 1 thread when I printed it.

2 MR. VIGNA: So go to the next page, 3 which is 1 of 8 where it says:

4 "Our site is currently under 5 development."

6 Explain what that is referring to.

7 MR. CAMP: Now, this is in March, 8 early March, and there is a lot of discussion on the 9 Canadian forum about the WCFU and that the site will be 10 up and running soon.

11 Now, if you read just above that,
12 "proofreading the WCFU site," there is a long post here 13 in regards to the mission or the goals or the ideology 14 of the WCFU.

15 What I am able to obtain from this 16 post is that Xenologist is actually proofreading the -- 17 I guess the mission of the WCFU, including on the third 18 page the Ten Commandments, from 1 to 10. That is page 19 3 of 8 on this thread.

20 MR. VIGNA: Before we go there, the 21 first page, I would like you to look at the second 22 paragraph in terms of its contents.

23 What indication are you getting there 24 in terms of your investigation of the crime and type of 25 literature that is on this website?

1                   MR. CAMP: Basically that the WCFU
2 is, I guess, a political -- I would say a political 3 ideology. It goes on to explain that they are about 4 white pride and white Canadians, that they are proud of 5 their race.

6                   They argue that if there is gay pride
7 and black pride and Native pride, why not white pride.

8                   Again, a conversation about 9 hard-working white people having their jobs taken away 10 from minority groups. The whites and the farmers are 11 losing their livelihood, that we have slipped from the 12 top of the ladder.

13                   Again, why this is a concern, I am 14 looking at this and I am getting to understand, I 15 guess, the ideologies of what the WCFU is going to 16 stand for.

17                   MR. VIGNA: Then we turn to page 2 of 18 8.

19                   MR. CAMP: Right.

20                   MR. VIGNA: Just go through briefly 21 the contents that we still have here that continues 22 from the first page.

23                   MR. CAMP: Basically explaining:
24 "We are made up of 100 percent 25 white people who are fed up of

1                   being treated like second-class 2                   citizens. We are proud of our 3                   race, that we could lose our 4                   jobs or be passed over for a 5                   long-deserved promotion."

6                   Basically saying that the whites have 7                   become in Canada second-class citizens.

8                   MR. VIGNA: Then at the bottom of the 9                   document is where it was mentioning earlier "our Ten 10                  Commandments" and it follows the second page.

11                  MR. CAMP: Right. And again, this is 12                  a -- just to clarify, Madam Chair, this is another 13                  person posting the -- or proofreading or putting up for 14                  public display ideas for the philosophies of WCFU.

15                  You will see later that they have 16                  abandoned some of these, the terminology here, but at 17                  this point it is just rhetoric, talking on Stormfront 18                  about the possibility of this being the mission 19                  statement, I guess, for lack of a better term.

20                  The Ten Commandments say:

21                         "You must be a member of the 22                         white race, must not be addicted 23                         to any drugs, must not be 24                         homosexual or bisexual."

25                  And then:

1 "Must not abuse women or 2 children, must not abuse pets,
3 must not be a career criminal,
4 should be a belief in family
5 values, showing respect to 6 elders, think what is best for 7 our future and never betray our 8 race."

9 Again, there is a sentence there:

10 "We would love to hear from you,
11 send us an e-mail for more 12 information on WCFU and how to 13 get involved."

14 At this point in the -- I guess
15 the -- I wouldn't even say investigation at this point, 16 but just by reviewing the posts on Stormfront, we are 17 just getting an idea of what the WCFU is and that there 18 is an organization that is developing that will have a 19 website to go along with it.

20 Again, subsequent posts, Xenologist,
21 and on the next page a few other posts as well, again, 22 talking about they are going into, I guess, discussion 23 on what should be deleted from that previous post, what 24 they should add, some grammatical comments there.

25 The next page --

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am still on 5 of 2 8.

3 MR. CAMP: I am sorry.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: On my copy there is 5 a March 3rd, 2004 post 1:23 p.m. It looks like it is 6 been highlighted. I can't read that passage, 7 particularly the first sentence. Do we have another 8 copy of that post?

9 Counsel, you don't need to dig that 10 up right now, but if you could come up with a better 11 copy allowing me to read that, I would appreciate it.

12 MR. VIGNA: Perhaps during the 13 adjournment I will look into it.

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, that is fine.

15 MR. VIGNA: Move on to the next page.

16 MR. CAMP: So I will skip that post 17 for now.

18 MR. VIGNA: Yeah, we will try to get 19 a copy that is not dark.

20 MR. CAMP: Sure.

21 On the next page on March 3rd, 2004,
22 2:41 a.m., SS-88 posts "a message to our enemies."
23 Basically explains that:

24 "I want to send a clear message
25 to our enemies. Myself and WCFU

1 will not be intimidated or 2 harassed. Your actions against 3 myself and WCFU will be dealt 4 with. We are not going away and 5 I want to thank you for the free
6 publicity. We have been swamped
7 with our new member requests.
8 Freeeeedooooommmmm."

9 Or free doom. I am not sure.

10 What is interesting here, it looks 11 like SS-88, again, is taking an active role in the 12 facilitation of the WCFU when his comment says "we have 13 been swamped with new member requests." He advertises 14 the WCFU again.

15 And the next page ends that thread.

16 MR. VIGNA: Then we begin on Document
17 1 of 9 on top, right? In the middle it says "WCFU 18 Press Release."

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: My next page reads
20 6 of 8?

21 MR. CAMP: Yeah, that is correct.
22 Mine, too.

23 MR. VIGNA: We will stick to the 24 same -- we will go with the one that you have before 25 you, 6 of 8.

1 MR. CAMP: Correct. This is a
2 thread, and I started this page part of the way through 3 the thread on page 6 of the thread. Again, the subject
4 matter of the thread, as you can see under the Dan
5 Korps post, the "Re. Proofreading of the WCFU site."

6 There is more conversation in the 7 subsequent posts and the site and the one prior to 8 that.

9 But on the next page you see a 10 comment by SS-88 on March 3rd. It states:

11 "Okay. I made some of the 12 suggested changes to the site.
13 If anyone wants to proofread it 14 for any more correction, please 15 do."

16 Again, it suggests to me that SS-88
17 has control of the content that is being uploaded on 18 the site based on this post and numerous other previous 19 posts in regards to the website and the WCFU.

20 MR. VIGNA: Can you read us the 21 passage right above it where they talk about 22 anti-Semitism.

23 MR. CAMP: This is a post by beach 24 basically states that:

25 "Anti-Semitism is nothing but

1 the antagonistic attitude
2 produced in the non-Jew by the 3 Jewish group. The Jewish group
4 has thrived on oppression and 5 the antagonism it has forever
6 met in the world."

7 A quote by Albert Einstein, 8 apparently.

9 "Strikeforce, white survival.
10 Strikeforce, kill all rivals.
11 Strikeforce, into the devil's 12 lair."

13 Again, this is a post on Stormfront
14 and it is by someone named beach.

15 The next page is the end of the 16 thread.

17 Now, the next thread started by 18 proud18 --

19 MR. VIGNA: The title is --

20 MR. CAMP: -- is in regards to a WCFU
21 press release. On this thread, there is -- basically 22 proud18 comes up with this idea for a press release and 23 kind of throws it out there to the members of 24 Stormfront.org, Canada Discussion to take a look at.
25 The media release is in regards to the WCFU.

1                   Just to kind of highlight a few 2 things here that he talks about that they are "for 3 straight, white people who have no voice in our great 4 country." It talks about:

5                   "What other race can be fire 6 bombed, stalked, beaten, made to 7 live in fear, forced from their 8 homes and their jobs."

9                   And that this is happening on a daily 10 basis to straight white people across this great 11 country.

12                   MR. VIGNA: Can you read the last 13 sentence of the press release?

14                   MR. CAMP: I am sorry?

15                   MR. VIGNA: Can you read us the last 16 sentence of the press release, first page where it says 17 but --

18                   MR. CAMP:

19                   "But when a Sikh man wants to 20 wear his turban and weapon and 21 change the uniform of the 22 R.C.M.P., then our government
23 jumps to attention and says,
24 yes, sir, anything for just a 25 few."

1                   Again, the post is by a person named 2 proud18 on Stormfront talking about the inequities 3 between the white race and other races. Again, the 4 general theme that the white race is second class and 5 that the government is allowing minority groups and 6 aboriginal groups to be first and the whites second in 7 everything from housing to employment, and that if 8 anybody proclaims that they are white pride or proud of 9 their race, they are immediately labelled as a racist 10 and that it is unfair.

11                   MR. VIGNA: You can continue on with 12 the key passages that strike your attention.

13                   MR. CAMP: Again, I think the -- for 14 example:

15                   "The word racist was created by 16 our government to describe any 17 person who hates another race
18 due to the colour of their skin
19 or religion. Why are not blacks
20 called racists for hating white
21 people and blaming all whites
22 for slavery?"

23                   It is an ongoing argument about, 24 again, the inequities between the white race and other 25 races and ethnicities within Canada.

1                   MR. VIGNA: You can move on. The 2 document speaks for itself. Move on to page 4.

3                   MR. CAMP: Page 4 on the same, I 4 guess, press release that is being proposed to the 5 discussion group by proud18 is a poll here:

6                                 "Do you think Natives are given 7                                 too much preferential 8                                 treatment?" Do you avoid Asian 9                                 gangs in front of the 7-11? Do 10                                you think minority groups should 11                                be charged with hate crimes?"

12                               And so on.

13                               Now, what is important on this 14 thread, if you go over to the next page and then the 15 page after that --

16                   MR. VIGNA: You are referring to page 17 5 of 9?

18                   MR. CAMP: Sorry, page 6 of 9. I am 19 sorry, let us go back to page 5 of 9 very quickly.

20                               There is posts by other members on 21 the discussion forum, basically responding to the press 22 release proposed by proud18.

23                               And on the next page there is a post 24 by SS-88 responding to the proposed press release where 25 SS-88 says:

1 "Agreed, it's too much like an 2 attack. It's too violent. We 3 need to concentrate more on our 4 goals and the good things we're 5 doing to try to help our 6 society."

7 Again, to show that SS-88 is involved 8 with the, I guess, grass roots issues of what the 9 essence of WCFU is.

10 If we go on to the next page, there 11 is some more comments by members in regards to the 12 proposed press release and then there is a post by both 13 who gives some tips for the press release. He says:

14 "It's a touch short. There
15 might be something there you 16 want to gank for your final 17 copy."

18 I am not sure what he meant, if he 19 meant "yank" for your final copy. Puts an address on 20 the internet and has lots of tips for press releases 21 and then gives an example.

22 What is interesting here is that 23 SS-88 on the next page responds to that and says:

24 "Good work. Very well done. I 25 am going to try to put that on

1 the site tonight, WCFU."

2 Again, the site's not up and running 3 yet. This is March 3rd and these are discussions on 4 Stormfront.org.

5 At this point, as a hate crimes
6 investigator, I have a few things happening. I have an 7 organization called the WCFU that seems to be 8 recruiting through Stormfront and also looks like there 9 is going to be a website that is going to be up and 10 running for the WCFU and they are trying to put 11 together, I guess, the mission statement and goals and 12 philosophies of the WCFU.

13 The next page is the end of the 14 thread.

15 Then the subsequent page is another
16 post by SS-88 and it is page 1 of 5 on March 4th.
17 There is a thread started "WCFU needs web designer."
18 SS-88 says:

19 "Thanks, everyone, for your 20 support but toth has donated a 21 CMS and is modifying it for our 22 use. I will then program in the 23 pics..."

24 Meaning pictures.

25 "...and add the content.

1                                   Thanks, toth, WCFU."

2                                   MR. VIGNA:   What is a CMS?  Do you 3                                   know?

4                                   MR. CAMP:    No.

5                                   MR. VIGNA:   Then the next page?

6                                   MR. CAMP:    With him saying that "I 7                                   will then program the pics and add the content," again, 8                                   it starts -- it shows to me that SS-88 is involved in 9                                   the administration of the content of the WCFU website.

10                                  Subsequent page, more posts in 11                                  regards to the initial post and suggestions as well in 12                                  regards to content, page layout, colours.

13                                  Subsequent page, SS-88 responds again
14                                  to all the support, I guess, on this thread:

15                                  "Thanks, everyone, but I have it 16                                  under control.  These things
17                                  don't happen overnight.  I am 18                                  working on the site and it will 19                                  be up soon.  Be patient, there's 20                                  a lot involved in a big site.

21                                  WCFU."

22                                  Again, this is under the thread "WCFU 23                                  Needs Web Designer."

24                                  Subsequent post by proud18 into the 25                                  next page.  More ideas and suggestions by members in

1           this discussion thread. Next page the discussion 2           thread ends.

3                           The next page here, 5 of 9, again, is 4           the middle of a thread. The reason this was put in 5           here by myself is because SS-88 responds to a thread
6           starter "ARA Thugs in Bid to Have Volksfront Meeting 7           Cancelled February 14th."

8                           SS-88 explains:

9   "We had the same problem with 10   the ARA here in Alberta, Canada.
11   WCFU, Western Canada For Us, our 12   newly-formed organization here
13   in Alberta, held our first 14   meeting last weekend."

15                           This was the meeting in late February 16           that was originally planned for the Kneehill Community 17           Hall but was moved into Edmonton.

18   "We rented two halls and 19   publicly announced the one hall
20   as a decoy."

21                           It goes on to explain that it was a 22           successful meet, that Paul Fromm and Melissa from the 23           Canadian Heritage were guest speakers, and then goes on 24           to allege that the ARAers are hacking into e-mails, 25           that he was evicted and lost his job because of it,

1 that they made the papers up there regarding the media.

2 MR. VIGNA: From your police
3 knowledge, do you know what the Canadian Heritage 4 Alliance is, this organization?

5 MR. CAMP: I would say it is a white
6 nationalist organization based out of Ontario. They 7 have a website as well.

8 The last sentence or two, it says:

9 "Anyway, the R.C.M.P. are 10 looking at whether I can file
11 charges against them."

12 I talked to Corporal Larocque about 13 this and I guess that Glenn had accused the R.C.M.P. of 14 mishandling a file or a complaint that he had put in on 15 the R.C.M.P.

16 MR. VIGNA: Are you aware of what the 17 complaint was?

18 MR. CAMP: I don't know much about 19 that file. This is the information I got from Corporal 20 Larocque.

21 Okay. On the next page, this is on 22 March 5th, 2004.

23 THE CHAIRPERSON: Actually, if I can 24 direct you back to the previous page, page 5 of 9, 25 there is some handwriting on the bottom left and it

1           says "DRN 9L8 B.C. plate."

2                           MR. CAMP:    928.

3                           THE CHAIRPERSON:  Do we know what 4           that means?

5                           MR. CAMP:  That is my writing, and I 6           think it might be -- I am not sure.  I would have to 7           look back in my notes.  That is my writing.  I wrote it 8           at the time way back in 2004.  I think it is actually 9           Glenn Bahr's plate on his old Tacoma there, but, again, 10          this is probably written by accident when I was 11          gathering some information on Glenn Bahr, instead of 12          using a scrap of paper.  This was in front of me.

13                          So it is irrelevant to this but it 14          will be relevant later in the investigation, which I 15          will show you.

16                          So, again, we are still on 17          Stormfront.  It is March 5th and the website WCFU is 18          not up yet, but there is a post on this date from 19          SS-88, and I will just explain what the post is about.
20          Advertising for a nation-wide Ernst Zündel protest on 21          March 28th.

22                          This is where --

23                          MR. VIGNA:  Where did it take place, 24          the Toronto protest?  Do you remember?

25                          MR. CAMP:  There was two protests

1 that took place, one in Toronto and one in Edmonton in 2 front of MP Deputy Prime Minister Anne McLellan's
3 office. Basically the protest is to support Ernst 4 Zündel, who was being detained by CSIS, and as a free 5 speech protest as well.

6 SS-88 talks about taking the message
7 across Canada about Ernst Zündel and asking to support
8 him on March 28th. Western Canada For Us is holding a 9 protest on that date in Alberta.

10 MR. VIGNA: Do you know from police 11 intelligence whether Mr. Bahr was present at the 12 protest for Ernst Zündel?

13 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I was at that 14 protest and Glenn Bahr was there. Glenn Bahr was being 15 interviewed by the media there.

16 In fact, the day after the meeting or 17 that night after that protest, ITV was -- on the 6:00
18 news, did that news story on the protest and Glenn Bahr
19 was interviewed by the journalist there as the WCFU 20 founder and the organizer of this protest, whatever it 21 was, and he was the -- I guess the speaker for the 22 protest on behalf of the media or for the media.

23 MR. VIGNA: Is that a television show
24 or radio show?

25 MR. CAMP: ITV news, it is a news

1 program at 6 p.m.

2 MR. VIGNA: On TV?

3 MR. CAMP: Yeah, local news. Yeah.

4 MR. VIGNA: You can continue from 5 there.

6 MR. CAMP: Thank you. Basically the 7 post goes on to ask for support, explains in the third 8 paragraph:

9 "WCFU will have 40 plus members 10 protesting and the media will be 11 there as well. We're trying to 12 contact as many people we know 13 in other provinces and getting 14 their support. One of our 15 members will be video taping our 16 protest. It will be viewable on 17 our website shortly after."

18 These sentences are important to me 19 because it shows that it looks as though he is 20 assisting in the facilitation of the mechanics of the 21 protest here, and then goes on to say that:

22 "Pictures of the protest will be 23 viewable on our website shortly 24 after."

25 And you will see, I will show you in

1 the future here that, in fact, the pictures do go up on 2 the website once the website is conceived.

3 Next page, SS-88 on March 9th, "Edit 4 Or Add to Whiteville Article" is the name of the 5 thread. SS-88 asks:

6 "Anyone want to edit or add to 7 this article we are writing on 8 Whiteville for our site. Take a 9 go."

10 Now, the article goes on to explain 11 plans to start a WCFU community called Whiteville, to 12 buy land and start self-sufficient white Euro-Canadian 13 community which is free of crime, unemployment, drugs 14 and violence.

15 It goes on to explain that:

16 "Once we reach 250 plus
17 citizens, we will have our own
18 police force and our own
19 citizens will be trained to fill
20 the positions of the police 21 force. We're going to chip in 22 and build homes for one another.
23 We're going to have tradespeople
24 and farmers."

25 MR. VIGNA: This Whiteville city, if

1 we can call it that, is there a city in particular that 2 was targeted or not to your knowledge?

3 MR. CAMP: Not to my knowledge. It
4 has gone to explain some of the -- a few other things 5 about Whiteville.

6 "...will not support cross
7 burnings or Nazi flags or white
8 power symbols. We must lead by 9 example and not give the media 10 any ammunition to use against 11 us.

12 He ends WCFU, advertised again under 13 the SS-88 post.

14 Subsequent to that post, there is 15 other participants in this thread that take a look at 16 the Ten Commandments, for example, and add their input.
17 Some of them must be fully white, for example, to be in 18 Whiteville, no sexual deviants.

19 "If you're not completely 20 heterosexual, then you are not 21 welcome to live in Whiteville."

22 Again, these are ideas that are being 23 put forward by other members and the thread ends on the 24 next page.

25 On March 8th, 2004, page 1 of 5,

1 SS-88 advertises that the WCFU website is on-line. He 2 says:

3 "Our website is now active. I
4 am still adding content, et 5 cetera. But please come stop by 6 and take part. Thanks to 7 Melissa from CHA for donating us
8 hosting and for the excellent 9 tech support."

10 And then gives the new WCFU address,
11 www.WCFU.com.

12 MR. FROMM: Most of my copy of that 13 post is blacked out, certainly the first two lines.

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: Perhaps Counsel, if 15 you could get your friend a better copy of that at the 16 break or by tomorrow?

17 MR. VIGNA: I will just have a look 18 at it.

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: Is there a copy,
20 though, that he could view now, Mr. Fromm could view 21 now that he would be able to better read? And then, 22 Mr. Fromm, we will get you a better copy.

23 MR. FROMM: I just need another copy 24 by tomorrow.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

1 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, what had 2 happened, that was a highlight and it is coming through 3 as a blackout.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, I figured
5 that. I have done the same thing. I think we have all 6 done the same thing ourselves. It works well the first 7 time, but the photocopies, it doesn't work as well.

8 MR. VIGNA: I will give one for him
9 to follow. It is a little bit clearer, but I will try 10 to get him a better copy.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Mr. Fromm, for what 12 it is worth, my copy is a little bit more readable and 13 when Sergeant Camp read it, that is what my copy reads.

14 MR. FROMM: Okay. This new copy is 15 more readable.

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: Is it readable?
17 Okay. Thank you.

18 Carry on.

19 MR. CAMP: Okay. So there is a
20 subsequent post by Dan Korps who looks at the site, 21 says it looks good. Post by SS-88 responding to that:

22 "Thanks, man."

23 Some more comments by Aryan Nations
24 of Canada.

25 Then there is a next page and, again,

1           these are participants on the Stormfront discussion
2           forum from Thorshammer1488 down to Dan Korps in regards 3           to the approval of the site.

4                         And the subsequent page as well, 5           there is some more comments as well by proud18 and 6           Canadian_Kitten.

7                         Then the next page, that thread that 8           I printed on that day ends.

9                         So the next page, March 29th, is the 10          day after the Ernst Zündel protest at Anne McLellan's 11          office that I attended. SS-88 advertises that:

12                                 "It's a great success. We had 13   30 supporters from all ages show
14   up, show their support. Thanks
15   people for coming. WCFU."

16                         Again, the reason that is there, it 17          shows that, with all the other posts, that he is 18          facilitating the activities and has built the website.

19                         On Stormfront on the next page, there 20          is some of the pictures which we will show you in 21          better detail once we get the copy of the WCFU website 22          up, of the Ernst Zündel protest that took place. The 23          very first picture on the top there, I know it looks 24          terrible in the copy that you have, but you will see 25          this. That is Glenn Bahr holding that sign there at

1 the protest.

2 Then subsequent pictures as well on 3 the next page. Posts by Louis and then that thread 4 ends as well.

5 MR. VIGNA: Just maybe it is a little 6 redundant, but Mr. Zündel has been in the media pretty 7 much. Can you just tell us about who he is and what 8 was his protest all about?

9 MR. CAMP: Ernst Zündel is 10 considered, I guess, a Holocaust denier. For decades 11 while he lived in Canada was, I guess, a proponent of 12 the Holocaust denial, I guess garnered lots of media 13 attention over the decades in regards to that. And he 14 was under investigation from CSIS and subsequently 15 detained and deported. He is now in Germany in jail.
16 As far as I know, he was deemed a security risk from 17 CSIS.

18 MR. VIGNA: Can you carry on?

19 MR. CAMP: Now, this next thread
20 here, I am going to jump forward in time here a little 21 bit. It says May 5th, 2004.

22 MR. VIGNA: It is a document "WCFU 23 Alberta Chapter meet, Saturday, June 5th, in Edmonton."
24 Is that it?

25 MR. CAMP: That is correct. "WCFU

1 Alberta Chapter meet, Saturday, June 5th, in Edmonton,"
2 that is correct. The reason I am hesitating, I am not 3 sure if I should present this now or later in my 4 testimony. If you don't mind jumping ahead a few 5 months here.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: That is fine.

7 MR. CAMP: The reason I put this in 8 here is ultimately we did a search warrant on Glenn 9 Bahr's residence and seized his computers.

10 Now, this thread -- that search
11 warrant was done on May 7th, 2004. This thread here 12 starts May 5th, 2004, and they are talking about the 13 WCFU, Alberta Chapter, meeting on June 5th in Edmonton.
14 So there is a post -- couple of posts by drea, Jessy
15 Destruction about going to this meeting, Der totenkopf.

16 SS-88 responds, this would be the May 17 8th, the day after the search warrant. His response 18 is:

19 "There will be no meet. WCFU 20 has now disbanded."

21 Then right after that there is a 22 subsequent post:

23 "Due to certain circumstances, 24 WCFU as an organization and 25 website are finished

1 permanently."

2 The reason I put those posts from 3 Stormfront.org in there is from May is because, like I
4 mentioned, May 7th was the search warrant, and when I
5 conducted the search warrant, I spoke with Glenn Bahr 6 and Glenn Bahr told me that day he was going to take 7 down the website, that being the WCFU website.

8 Again, what we are trying to do here 9 in this part of the testimony is link SS-88 on 10 Stormfront to Glenn Bahr. So search warrant is done on 11 May 7th and then on May 8th, after Glenn tells me on 12 May 7th he is going to take down the website, SS-88 on 13 Stormfront basically says that the organization and the 14 website are finished permanently and this site is down 15 and that WCFU is now disbanded.

16 Subsequent to that, Glenn Bahr left
17 Edmonton to go live with his parents in Langley, B.C.

18 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am noticing, I 19 imagine that the reason Mr. Fromm is standing is 20 perhaps that page 2 of 2 does not identify a date.

21 Is that your concern, Mr. Fromm?

22 MR. FROMM: Page 2 of 3, the post on 23 the bottom of that, just under Der totenkopf, the one 24 by SS-88.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am sorry,

1 Mr. Fromm?

2 MR. FROMM: The post on the page that 3 is 2 of 3.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

5 MR. FROMM: Under Der totenkopf, 6 SS-88, and it just says "today." Is that supposed to 7 be read as May 8th?

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, I noticed that 9 as well. It seems sequential. I did notice that it 10 says "today," whereas all the rest of them have May 6th 11 or June 5th, 2004.

12 MR. CAMP: No, it would be -- sorry
13 to interrupt, it would be May -- the first is May --

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am sorry, May 15 8th. I apologize.

16 MR. CAMP: Yeah, that is correct.

17 I can tell you this, if it helps,
18 Madam Chair. When I viewed these posts on Stormfront, 19 this was May 8th or May 9th that this posts were in.
20 This was up right away by SS-88.

21 Again, the reason that the 22 administrator of Stormfront.org put in "today" --

23 MR. VIGNA: So you were saying,
24 Sergeant Camp, for the record, just repeat what you 25 said a few minutes ago.

1                   MR. CAMP:  These posts that I viewed 2                   came in on -- I am pretty sure it was May 8th, but I 3                   will even go on the outside and say the latest May 9th 4                   in regards to the website coming down.

5                   MR. VIGNA:  That was shortly after 6                   what major incident?  You mentioned it.

7                   MR. CAMP:  It was right after -- the 8                   search warrant was May 7th and in the conversation with 9                   Glenn Bahr at his residence when the warrant was being 10                  executed, Glenn Bahr told me he would be taking the 11                  site down.

12                  MR. VIGNA:  We will come back later 13                  to the episode of the warrant and the execution of the 14                  warrant, but continue on with the web pages Stormfront.

15                  MR. CAMP:  Again, subsequent to those 16                  posts, which end, there was one by -- page 1 of 5 by 17                  Exterminance, May 8th, 2004.

18                  This is when persons on Stormfront 19                  that are interested in WCFU are realizing they can't 20                  get access to that website.  There is a lot of 21                  questions about whether the website is down.

22                  It continues on with the subsequent 23                  pages.  Page 2 of 5 as well.  Page 3 of 5.

24                  On the page 4 of 5, Jessy Destruction 25                  mentions, "yeah, it's down," in regards to the question

1 "Is the WCFU website down?" "I will be in contact with 2 Mr. Glenn later tonight."

3 MR. VIGNA: Just 3 of 5 there is an 4 article from the Sun. This was posted on the website?

5 MR. CAMP: Article by the Sun. I
6 don't know what you are looking at there.

7 MR. VIGNA: We will go to that later
8 on. It was a mixup in my documents. Sorry.

9 MR. CAMP: Okay. So we will finish
10 with the page 5 of 5 and move on to another thread.
11 Again, these posts are by, I guess, supporters of the 12 WCFU.

13 If you look at the date of May 9th on 14 the first one, they ask the question "Is the WCFU site 15 down?" It does say, "it was inevitable." What it 16 shows here through the posts that on May 9th the WCFU
17 is down, which I want to go back to that previous post 18 by SS-88 saying the site is down on May -- that said 19 "yesterday." So it shows that between May 7th and May 20 9th, the site is down and that SS-88 does confirm it as 21 well prior to these posts coming up.

22 And the subsequent posts are, again,
23 about the WCFU website being down on -- well, it 24 doesn't give a date. "Yesterday," it says.

25 MR. VIGNA: Just for purposes of 1 clarity following, if you look at the middle of the top 2 of the page where there is a --

3 THE CHAIRPERSON: Which page,
4 Counsel?

5 MR. VIGNA: Any of the pages. For 6 example, 1 of 2. The number that is highlighted, that 7 means that that is the next page?

8 MR. CAMP: I am sorry, which number 9 are you referring to?

10 MR. VIGNA: The number that is 11 highlighted in the middle of the -- that is darkened.

12 MR. CAMP: Oh, where it says page 2
13 of 3?

14 MR. VIGNA: Yes.

15 MR. CAMP: That would be the page
16 that I am on. In other words, if you see page 2 of 3 17 and the highlighted number is 2, that is the page I am 18 on of the thread. So that thread would have had three 19 pages, and on this post that is the page 2 of the three 20 pages of that entire thread.

21 MR. VIGNA: That is all I had to ask.

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: But at the bottom 23 of the page it says "page 2 of 2," so the top and 24 bottom aren't consistent. The top says "page 2 of 3."
25 The bottom says "page 2 of 2."

1 MR. CAMP: Which page are you looking 2 at, Madam Chair?

3 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am looking at 4 the -- the page that contains the SS-88 post that says 5 "today, 1:05 p.m." and we have discussed that that 6 would have been the 8th or 9th of May.

7 MR. CAMP: Okay.

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am noticing on 9 top of the page it says "page 2 of 3," the top right, 10 but at the bottom right it says "page 2 of 2."

11 MR. CAMP: Right.

12 MR. WARMAN: Madam Chair, if I may be
13 of assistance?

14 MR. CAMP: I can actually answer
15 that.

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

17 MR. CAMP: Page 2 of 3 is the 18 printing of -- like, when I am printing three pages 19 from my printer, it would be page 2 of 3. So that is 20 my printer that is giving you that information. Where 21 it says down at the bottom of that page 2 of 2, that is 22 actually on the website. That is the website's pages.

23 THE CHAIRPERSON: I see.

24 MR. CAMP: As compared to my printing
25 pages from my printer.

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay, thank you.

2 MR. CAMP: You are welcome.

3 Again, from that thread and the 4 subsequent threads that we went over very quickly here, 5 again it is just -- those are there to show that there 6 is lots of conversation on May 8th and May 9th and the 7 website being down, subsequent to SS-88 saying the 8 website is down permanently, just to give you a time 9 line of when that website went down, which was directly 10 after the search warrant and directly after Glenn Bahr 11 telling me he is going to take the site down.

12 The reason I put that in there was to 13 show that, again, another piece of the puzzle, Glenn 14 Bahr is the controller of the WCFU website.

15 MR. VIGNA: The following pages, you 16 can just go quickly through them. Is there anything of 17 importance?

18 MR. CAMP: I looked through again.
19 It was, again, a lot of questions from members of 20 Stormfront on the Canadian discussion about the WCFU 21 website being down.

22 One of them on page 2 of 5 from Der 23 totenkopf is the website down, it says:

24 "I'll be meeting up with Glenn 25 tomorrow."

1                   You know, to me Der totenkopf is 2                   making an assumption here he is going to be talking to 3                   Glenn Bahr about why the site is down.

4                   So I guess it shows that even the 5                   other members of this discussion are using the term 6                   "Glenn" when they discuss the website being down and 7                   they need to speak with him. Again, another piece of 8                   the puzzle to show that Glenn Bahr is the controller of 9                   the website.

10                  Okay. That was -- I am going to move 11                  on here. That was Stormfront.org and to summarize, 12                  those were posts on threads on Stormfront that piqued 13                  my interest, as a hate crimes investigator, that led me 14                  to believe that WCFU was an organization that is being 15                  built in Alberta, that the WCFU was also a website and 16                  that the WCFU was being run by SS-88, which is Glenn 17                  Bahr.

18                  And that is just the Stormfront 19                  pieces of the puzzle.

20                  MR. VIGNA: What you are saying in 21                  your testimony, can we understand that Stormfront is a 22                  launching pad for the WCFU website?

23                  MR. CAMP: I would say that Glenn 24                  Bahr uses Stormfront to market the website WCFU and 25                  that to get assistance from members of the Canadian 1 discussion forum on what the WCFU should be all about.

2 That is what I glean from those posts on Stormfront.

3 MR. VIGNA: Now from the Tab 8, which 4 was the Investigation Report this morning.

5 MR. CAMP: Right.

6 MR. VIGNA: Following the same
7 chronology that we have been following so far, you can 8 guide us to the relevant passages which deal with the 9 more focussed investigation on WCFU.

10 MR. CAMP: Right. Again, we are 11 still at the portion of the testimony where I have to 12 show that Glenn Bahr runs WCFU and the website.

13 So if you go to page 14 on the 14 investigation of Tab 8, paragraph 13. I don't have a 15 date on this.

16 Sometime in March the Old Strathcona
17 Community Station had contacted me in regards to phone 18 calls that were coming into the Old Strathcona Station 19 regarding pamphlets that were being distributed 20 throughout the Old Strathcona community and business 21 cards.

22 I had the Old Strathcona constables
23 send me through the mail a copy of the business cards 24 and I have a copy of that business card on Tab --

25 MR. VIGNA: Sixteen?

1                   MR. CAMP:  -- sixteen.  On the card
2                   it says Glenn Bahr, Alberta Chapter and WCFU President, 3                   Alberta, Canada.  On it it also has the address on the 4                   internet, www.WCFU.com and another way to access the 5                   site, AlbertaChapter@WCFU.com.

6                   MR. VIGNA:  Sergeant Camp, for the 7                   purpose of entering this document in evidence, can you 8                   explain a bit how you got in possession of this 9                   document and making the link with what you just said, 10                  the business card link?

11                  MR. CAMP:  Yeah, the Old Strathcona
12                  Community Station phoned me and said they are receiving 13                  business cards in the community of Old Strathcona and 14                  some pamphlets, I don't have a copy of the pamphlet 15                  here, but I had him send over a copy of the business 16                  card.

17                  I will explain that a bit further.
18                  At this point, we are still not involved in a -- not 19                  sure if we are involved in a criminal investigation at 20                  this point.

21                  MR. VIGNA:  Okay.  I would like to 22                  enter the business card as an exhibit.

23                  THE REGISTRAR:  Glenn Bahr's business 24                  card as the Alberta Chapter and WCFU president will be 25                  filed as commission Exhibit HR-5.

1 EXHIBIT NO. HR-5: Glenn Bahr's
2 business card as the Alberta
3 Chapter and WCFU president

4 MR. VIGNA: At the same time,
5 Sergeant Camp, I would like to enter the map which 6 gives the area of Strathcona because I think there is a 7 few areas of interest in that area that would be 8 important to point out. I will show you a map which is 9 an extract from Strathcona.

10 Perhaps if you can just tell us where 11 the location of the business cards were being 12 distributed, the Old Strathcona Police Station, and you 13 mentioned earlier about the search warrant and that the 14 residents of the accused in your process in terms of 15 the distance between each point, maybe by referring to 16 the map.

17 MR. CAMP: The Old Strathcona police
18 station is located at 7904 -- sorry, 7903-104 Street.
19 The area that that is affected or that the community
20 would be -- sorry. The area that the police station 21 polices would be 99 Street to 109 Street from 22 Saskatchewan Drive up to Argyle Road, but predominantly 23 right along Whyte Avenue and between 99 and 109 Street 24 with their beat officer program there.

25 MR. VIGNA: That is portrayed in the 1 map that is before you?

2 MR. CAMP: Yes.

3 MR. VIGNA: And where on the map?
4 Perhaps you could just underline it with a ruler or 5 highlighter. Can you take the highlighter?

6 MR. CAMP: Okay.

7 MR. VIGNA: Perhaps you could just 8 stand up and point to us explaining the --

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: I have located it 10 on the map here.

11 MR. CAMP: Basically the Beat
12 Constable Program runs between 99th and 109 Street 13 along 82 Avenue, one or two blocks north and south of 14 82 Ave. because that is where the concentration of 15 licenced premises are and most of the problems occur in 16 that area.

17 So you get a lot of complaints coming 18 in off Whyte into that police station, plus the 19 residential pockets around Whyte Avenue, both north and 20 south of Whyte Ave., primarily between Saskatchewan
21 Drive and 82 Ave., a lot of members of that community
22 will go to the Old Strathcona Station with complaints, 23 both criminal or quasi criminal or just nuisance
24 complaints there as well.

25 I guess this was brought -- these

1 business cards were brought into the police station by 2 members of the community that had seen pamphlets and 3 business cards being distributed through the area.

4 MR. VIGNA: If you look at page 14 of 5 the Investigation Report, which is in front of you.

6 MR. CAMP: M-hm.

7 MR. VIGNA: There is an address there
8 on Whyte Avenue. Can you tell us what that address 9 of -- what it is, exactly?

10 MR. CAMP: Before I go to that 11 address, I would like to tell you a second part of what 12 happened here, because on the business cards there is 13 no address, but there is a subsequent phone call from 14 Leduc R.C.M.P. and under that Section 13. I was 15 contacted by Constable Grabowski approximately May 1st 16 and that the R.C.M.P. were called to a complaint of 17 males distributing what they consider hate literature 18 in the Leduc area.

19 The subsequent investigation by 20 Constable Grabowski revealed that one of the persons 21 distributing literature was Glenn Bahr and he was 22 identified by the Leduc R.C.M.P. at that location.

23 A copy of that investigation by the 24 R.C.M.P. is entered as an exhibit.

25 MR. VIGNA: I have it here.

1                   Before that, Madam Chair, I don't 2 think I entered as an exhibit the map.

3                   THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Madam
4 Registrar?

5                   THE REGISTRAR: How would you like 6 this described? Just map of the Old Strathcona area?

7                   MR. VIGNA: In the City of Edmonton.

8                   THE REGISTRAR: In the City of 9 Edmonton will become Commission Exhibit HR-6.

10                   EXHIBIT HR-6: Map of Old 11 Strathcona in the City of 12 Edmonton

13                   MR. VIGNA: So you were talking about 14 Constable Grabowski. I understand that you got some 15 documents from Mr. Grabowski?

16                   MR. CAMP: Yes, I did.

17                   MR. VIGNA: I will show you some 18 documents here and see if these are the documents you 19 got.

20                   So are those the documents that you
21 obtained from Mr. Grabowski?

22                   MR. CAMP: Yeah, they were faxed over 23 to me from Leduc. I asked them to fax me the 24 investigation that took place at the end of April.

25                   Madam Chair, I am going to refer you

1 to page 4 just to give you the date of the 2 investigation, '04, April 24, and I spoke with 3 Grabowski.

4 MR. VIGNA: Those are the handwritten 5 notes?

6 MR. CAMP: It looks like her
7 handwritten notes on the incident.

8 MR. VIGNA: So you recognize this 9 document, which is a --

10 MR. CAMP: Yes, I do. This is the 11 document that they faxed to me. It was being 12 distributed in Leduc and Glenn Bahr, along with two 13 other individuals, were investigated for distributing 14 the literature.

15 In the investigation it mentions that 16 the officers felt that it did not constitute 17 distribution of hate propaganda; however, they 18 contacted me in regards to the incident anyway.

19 MR. VIGNA: We are going to talk 20 about the document, but I would like to put it in 21 evidence before as an exhibit.

22 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

23 MR. VIGNA: It is documents received
24 from Constable Kristen Grabowski the R.C.M.P. in Leduc 25 as a result of the request by Constable Camp. Is that 1 correct?

2 MR. CAMP: That is correct.

3 THE REGISTRAR: The document as 4 described will be filed as Commission HR-7.

5 EXHIBIT NO. HR-7: Documents
6 received from Constable Kristen
7 Grabowski the R.C.M.P. in Leduc
8 as a result of the request by 9 Constable Camp

10 MR. VIGNA: Tell us about the 11 document a bit more about what you were saying before I 12 interrupted you.

13 MR. CAMP: On the document it is 14 titled on the second page, "For Their Sake," what is 15 of note here of interest to me is the Western Canada 16 For Us address which has written on the document as 17 Suite 306 at 10654-Whyte Avenue. And it gives the 18 WCFU.com across on the internet times three.

19 The search warrant that the -- the 20 residence that the search warrant was executed on at 21 Glenn Bahr's residence, this should be noted, was at an 22 address very close to this box office address of Number 23 306. I had the beat constables on Whyte Avenue check 24 that address out for me that is written on this 25 document and confirmed it was a box address.

1                   However, again, the only reason I am
2 mentioning this is that it is very close to where Glenn 3 Bahr lived, which was at -- it is two blocks away at 4 10644-80th Avenue, Suite Number 1.

5                   The address on the documents here are 6 10654-Whyte Avenue, or 82 Avenue. Again, it gives the 7 address of WCFU.com website.

8                   And of note as well is that page -- 9 it would be your page 5 there is some comments made by 10 the investigator here about the individuals they dealt 11 with. First paragraph states:

12                                 "No doubt subjects are white 13                                 supremists. Some may believe 14                                 this is hate literature."

15                   Then on the second-last page there is 16 an e-mail to me from Constable Grabowski which identify 17 the three males that were involved in handing out the 18 literature.

19                   On the last page, again, another one 20 of the documents they were handing out that were seized 21 by Leduc.

22                   MR. VIGNA: In terms of the postal 23 box that is mentioned on the first -- second page of 24 the document before you, which is HR-7, how far is it 25 from the residence that the search warrant was 1           executed?

2                           MR. CAMP:   Two blocks.

3                           MR. VIGNA:  If you look at the map I 4           have provided to you earlier, can you perhaps just show 5           us the distance from the postal box to the --

6                           MR. CAMP:  It is two blocks.

7                           MR. VIGNA:  Two blocks?

8                           MR. CAMP:  Two city blocks.  It is -- 9           the address of the residence of Glenn Bahr at that time 10          was 10644-80th Avenue.  The box office at WCFU was 11          10654-82 Avenue, so two blocks.

12                          THE CHAIRPERSON:  Mr. Fromm?

13                          MR. FROMM:  Yes, on the front page of 14          HR-7, can we know what is being blacked out?

15                          MR. VIGNA:  Those are telephone 16          numbers that were -- I blacked those out, Madam Chair, 17          because I felt that there was no need for the numbers 18          to be publicized.

19                          THE CHAIRPERSON:  Mr. Fromm, is that 20          the information you were looking for?

21                          MR. FROMM:  I guess I am none the 22          wiser, but...

23                          THE CHAIRPERSON:  So your information 24          is that these are fax numbers and telephone numbers of 25          the sender and recipient of the fax; is that a fair

1 description?

2 MR. VIGNA: Right, Madam Chair, and I
3 personally blacked them out because I felt there was no 4 need to give this information.

5 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

6 MR. VIGNA: Now, in terms of the 7 chronology, if you look at the Investigation Report, 8 page 14, where we left off.

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: Excuse me, before
10 we move along, it is entirely possible that I missed 11 it, but I don't remember hearing what this is. It is 12 the third page in, and I don't know what I am looking 13 at.

14 MR. VIGNA: Can you tell us what that 15 document represents in the police world?

16 MR. CAMP: This is -- every time a 17 call is entered into a -- for dispatch, there is a 18 printout similar to this. This is not an Edmonton 19 Police Service printout. This is an R.C.M.P. printout 20 of the call as it comes in through their Computer 21 Dispatch Centre.

22 If you look at the Details section 23 just partway down there, the call -- from my 24 experience, 15 years on the job, basically the call 25 came in as -- this is from a neighbour:

1 "Two suspicious males, one with 2 black hoodie, German saying in 3 front of shirt. Other male with 4 white track shirt with shaved
5 head handing out flyers on white
6 supremacy. All neighbours 7 getting upset."

8 Again, I am not with the R.C.M.P. but 9 my experience with the Edmonton Police Service dispatch 10 system is that that is the way the call would have been 11 entered via their computerized dispatch system.

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: Then there is a 13 fair amount of handwriting on this sheet. Do you have 14 any information as to how the handwriting would have 15 come to be on this piece of paper?

16 MR. CAMP: I am assuming this was 17 Constable Grabowski's handwriting, based on the 18 pamphlets that they received from the three suspicious 19 males, Western Canada For Us, it gives the address. I 20 have no idea why they do their protocol. This is not 21 EPS protocol, so when we go to a call, we don't pull up 22 with call like this. So I can't answer for her or why 23 she did this.

24 THE CHAIRPERSON: All right. Thank 25 you.

1 Mr. Fromm, yes?

2 MR. FROMM: On page 4 of that in the 3 handwriting, it looks like "ESIR sent to NCDB for 4 subjects NF." What would that mean on the fourth page, 5 the handwritten?

6 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I understand. These 7 are acronyms that the R.C.M.P. utilize. I don't know 8 what they mean. I don't know what the "ESER" acronym 9 means or the "NCDB" or the last one. I don't know.
10 Like I say, I can't speak for the investigating officer 11 here.

12 Again, the reason this is there is,
13 again, another piece of the puzzle of Glenn Bahr and 14 the WCFU.

15 MR. VIGNA: In terms of the 16 chronology of the investigation, we had left off on 17 page 14 of 32.

18 Can you continue from there on and 19 eventually come to the point where an arrest warrant 20 is -- search warrant and an arrest warrant is 21 requested.

22 MR. CAMP: I am going to need, Madam
23 Chair, a moment to bring up the Western Canada For Us 24 website. We have a copy of that.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Perhaps this would

1 be a good time for the afternoon break, then. Madam
2 Registrar, what time is it, please?

3 THE REGISTRAR: 3.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: 3:00. So we will 5 be back at 3:15 to continue. Thank you.

6 --- Upon recessing at 3:00 p.m.

7 --- Upon resuming at 3:15 p.m.

8 THE CHAIRPERSON: Welcome back. I am 9 not quite sure how this is going to work. I will just 10 move over here a bit.

11 Okay, carry on.

12 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, at this 13 point we are going to bring in the next piece of 14 evidence. It would be a CD ROM. I will just ask 15 Sergeant Camp a few questions on how he captured the CD 16 ROM and then I will put it as an exhibit.

17 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you.

18 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, you
19 understood the questions I am about to ask you to deal 20 with how you basically captured on the CD ROM the 21 website, what you did in order to capture the website, 22 which website?

23 MR. CAMP: Right. As mentioned, the 24 website was up and running on March 8th, and as the 25 month of March went on and I began to review material

1 on that site, I had contacted our technological crimes 2 section and requested they take a picture -- for 3 layman's terms, take a picture of the website.

4 MR. VIGNA: Which website, just to be 5 sure?

6 MR. CAMP: The WCFU.com website.
7 They took a picture on March 31st and take a second 8 picture for me on May 7th, the day I executed the 9 search warrant.

10 On the website, I can show you a few 11 examples that, again, link Glenn Bahr to the website.
12 I will have to --

13 MR. VIGNA: So I would like to put in 14 an exhibit the website which was produced on a CD ROM, 15 which I believe all the parties have. Tab 18 is where 16 it is located in the book of documents. There is two 17 CD ROMs. It is the one that is blue?

18 THE REGISTRAR: We are just filing
19 the blue one, then? The CD ROM of Western Canada of 20 Warman v. Glenn Bahr website provided by Stephen Camp 21 will be filed as Commission HR-8.

22 EXHIBIT NO. HR-8: CD ROM of 23 Western Canada of Warman v.
24 Glenn Bahr website provided by 25 Stephen Camp

1 MR. VIGNA: They are not all blue.
2 Some are red, but the identification that has been 3 given by the registry officer is the correct one. The 4 other one is a -- we will go to it later. It is a 5 radio interview.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: Just a moment. We 7 have just had someone join us. Hello, sir, can I help 8 you?

9 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Not at all.
10 Go ahead. Just continue on with your business.

11 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thanks very much.
12 Would you be seated, please?

13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Why should I 14 sit?

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: I would appreciate 16 it if you would sit.

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I have a sore
18 leg and I can't sit.

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: Oh, of course,
20 then. Remain standing, then. Carry on, please.

21 MR. FROMM: Which CD ROM is HR-8?
22 The blue one?

23 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, you can 24 come up front, with your permission, Madam Chair.

25 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

1 MR. VIGNA: I don't know how -- can I
2 approach?

3 MR. CAMP: Thank you.

4 MR. VIGNA: Perhaps you can give us a 5 more bigger image?

6 MR. CAMP: I will just make a better
7 picture here for you.

8 Okay. It is a bit blurry. If I can 9 direct you down here, first of all, with my cursor.
10 This is page 1 of, I think it is 786 pages. I am not 11 going to take you through 786 pages, Madam Chair.

12 What you have here on the left-hand 13 side is the main menu, and usually on the website when 14 you pull it up on the internet, you can go to any one 15 of these icons and go to a certain section of the 16 website.

17 But for the purposes of time and the 18 fact that we are just trying to link at this point the 19 website Western Canada For Us to Glenn Bahr, I can show 20 you a few pages here that do that for us.

21 MR. VIGNA: The CD has been entered 22 as an exhibit, I believe, HR-8?

23 THE REGISTRAR: Yes.

24 MR. CAMP: I am sorry, Madam Chair.

25 This is -- if this is the home page

1 or if you go to the main menu, you can tab to Alberta
2 Chapter and this is what you will get. You get this 3 image that comes up on the Alberta Chapter once you 4 press that icon.

5 Now, on the Alberta Chapter it says
6 Alberta Western Canada For Us. It states that:

7 "The Alberta Chapter of WCFU is 8 the head chapter of Western 9 Canada For Us. They have 10 representatives in Edmonton,
11 Three Hills and Calgary."

12 I just want to confirm -- yeah, May 13 7th. Okay.

14
15 "WCFU distributes most of the 16 literature and organizes most of 17 our protests. WCFU Alberta 18 holds monthly meetings where we 19 discuss provincial and national 20 issues and what we can do to 21 help our fellow Euro-Canadians."

22 At the bottom here it says "Glenn 23 Bahr, Alberta Chapter and WCFU president, Alberta
24 Chapter at WCFU.com," identical to the business cards
25 and the pamphlets that we see distributed through Old

1 Strathcona, also by Leduc R.C.M.P., that investigation.

2 Again, they use the same box office
3 of WCFU at Suite Number 306, 10654 Whyte Avenue.

4 What was impressive here about this 5 page, obviously, is that Glenn Bahr puts himself down 6 as the Alberta Chapter and WCFU president.

7 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, I don't 8 remember if you mentioned the date that the website 9 came in operation.

10 MR. CAMP: This, if you can see at 11 the top here, Madam Chair, or the bottom of the page it 12 says May 7th was the date of this picture that was 13 taken.

14 I am going to now go to the image
15 gallery.

16 MR. FROMM: Just to clarify, your 17 testimony isn't that it came into existence May 7th?
18 Your testimony is that this picture was taken May 7th?

19 MR. CAMP: That is correct. There 20 was two pictures taken of the WCFU website, one was May 21 7th, one was March 31st.

22 What I am going to take you to here,
23 Madam Chair, is some pictures that, as mentioned 24 before, were going to be posted after the protest at 25 Anne McLellan's office, the free Ernst Zündel protest

1 and there was a message on Stormfront by SS-88 that the 2 pictures were going to be posted.

3 So I am going to scroll down to the 4 pictures.

5 MR. VIGNA: What are the pictures at 6 the top of the page?

7 MR. CAMP: Oh, my apologies. If do
8 you want to view the pictures, you can view them this 9 way or I can scroll through them one at a time on the 10 subsequent pages here.

11 So these, when you are looking at 12 this page of the website and you want to take a better 13 look at the picture, you just tap in view and it brings 14 the picture up like that.

15 What is interesting about these 16 pictures, again, the SS-88 on Stormfront said he was 17 going to post them and down here it says posted by 18 Glenn, G-L-E-N-N, which is the way Glenn Bahr spells
19 his name, two 'N's.

20 MR. VIGNA: It says the date it was 21 posted?

22 MR. CAMP: Posted March 30th, which 23 would be two days after the protest. Here is some 24 other pictures as well posted by Glenn, again, March 25 30th. Posted by Glenn, March 30th.

1                   So what we have here is Glenn Bahr as 2                   the president of the WCFU. It shows him as well as 3                   posting pictures on the website, which shows control.
4                   Posted by Glenn, March 30th. Posted by Glenn, March 5                   30th.

6                   Again, these would be the -- these 7                   top five pictures are the next five pictures that are 8                   coming, so I will continue to scroll down.

9                   Posted by Glenn, March 30th. This is 10                  Glenn Bahr here who posts his own picture. He is being 11                  interviewed by the media, and this one you can see it 12                  is CFRN to the left there.

13                  Posted by Glenn. Posted by Glenn.
14                  There is another picture of Glenn Bahr posted by Glenn.

15                  Again, a preview of what is coming, 16                  five more pictures. I just wanted to bring this to 17                  your attention as well. There is a poll here:

18                                 "What comes first, family, 19                                 heritage or nation?"

20                  Posted by Glenn as well, again, 21                  showing content control.

22                  Another picture posted by Glenn March 23                  30th. Posted by Glenn March 30th. What you won't see 24                  in these pictures is anybody else posting the pictures.
25                  Posted by Glenn. Posted by Glenn. Another picture of 1 the back of Glenn Bahr.

2 Five more pictures that are coming
3 up. That is a preview. Posted by Glenn.

4 MR. VIGNA: Just a detail, Sergeant
5 Camp. The website address for this website was what?

6 MR. CAMP: Www.WCFU.com.

7 MR. VIGNA: Go on.

8 MR. CAMP: And there is that posted 9 by Glenn on the poll. Another picture of Glenn. Most 10 of the pictures here of all the individuals that were 11 at this site, there is more pictures of Glenn than any 12 other protesters as well. The pictures are Glenn Bahr.

13 Posted by Glenn. Another picture of 14 Glenn Bahr posted by Glenn Bahr. Five more pictures.
15 Posted by Glenn. Posted by Glenn. Posted by Glenn.
16 Picture of Glenn Bahr posted by Glenn Bahr.

17 Picture of Glenn Bahr posted by Glenn
18 being interviewed by the media. Again, another picture 19 of him being interviewed, showing that he is the 20 spokesperson for the protests, which coincides with his 21 rhetoric on Stormfront.org, and what I viewed on ITV as 22 well.

23 MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, on this 24 issue of the media attention at the time, do you recall 25 how much media attention Western Canada For Us got?

1 MR. CAMP: It was a fair amount,
2 actually. Local media was interested in this group.

3 Another picture posted by Glenn. I
4 think all the local news outlets for Edmonton were 5 there, ITV, CFRN. I think CBC was there as well.

6 Posted by Glenn here. Posted by 7 Glenn. Posted by Glenn again. Five more pictures. If 8 you want, Madam Chair, I can go through these fairly 9 quickly, if you like or I can --

10 THE CHAIRPERSON: Sure.

11 MR. CAMP: Again, these are the 12 pictures from Toronto, though, but they were posted by 13 Glenn. This was the one that was Paul Fromm attended.
14 Again, posted by Glenn on the website. It was all 15 Ontario protests, but the pictures posted by Glenn 16 again.

17 So, again, what is important here -- 18 there is Paul Fromm. What is important here is that 19 the pictures are posted by Glenn, even though this 20 protest is down in Ontario. So he is getting the 21 pictures sent to him and then posting them on the 22 website. No one else is doing it.

23 MR. VIGNA: Who is that in the 24 picture, Sergeant Camp?

25 MR. CAMP: This is Paul Fromm. Paul

1 Fromm posted by Glenn.

2 Five more pictures. Posted by Glenn.

3 That is the detention centre where Ernst Zündel was 4 being kept at the time.

5 MR. VIGNA: You can go on fairly 6 quickly.

7 MR. CAMP: Posted by Glenn. I think
8 this is the last five, I think, all posted by Glenn 9 again. Posted by Glenn. Okay, that is it.

10 Again, I won't get into some of the 11 pages here that go into the philosophies of the WCFU at 12 this point, because we are just trying to show the 13 connection between Glenn Bahr and the WCFU.

14 MR. VIGNA: Read a bit, though, the 15 content of this web page.

16 MR. CAMP: Sure.

17 "Western Canada For Us fights
18 for freedom of speech and 19 immigration reform. We also 20 believe in Euro-Canadians are 21 fast becoming the minority in 22 Canada and we want to stop the 23 decline and preserve our 24 heritage and history. Because 25 we are not a political party or

1 religious group, WCFU can act as 2 an umbrella group for other
3 organizations."

4 What is interesting here:

5 "United we are a voice to be 6 heard in western Canada."

7 There seems to be a general theme
8 here through the home page and the Alberta and B.C.
9 chapters and Manitoba chapters that the content of this 10 website is specific to Canadian consumption, and more 11 specifically to western Canada consumption.

12 MR. VIGNA: Is this a site accessible 13 by any member of the public or do you have to be a 14 member?

15 MR. CAMP: You had to be a member.
16 Well, initially you could access any portion of this 17 website. As time went on in late March, you had to 18 register as a member to enter into certain components 19 of the website, specifically the forum. This stuff 20 here was accessible to anyone.

21 In regards to accessing the website
22 with a password, the same rule applies. Anybody can 23 put in information about themselves and register as a 24 member and you had immediate access to the site.

25 Just to go back to the linkage of 1 Glenn Bahr to the WCFU.

2 MR. BAHR: Excuse me. Can we wait
3 until Paul Fromm comes back? Is that a problem?

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: It is a problem.
5 And here he is now, so perhaps it is of a limited 6 nature.

7 MR. FROMM: I didn't know my phone 8 was on.

9 THE CHAIRPERSON: Just to be clear,
10 Mr. Bahr, and thanks for standing up and saying that.
11 I am going to be conducting these proceedings as 12 efficiently as I can, in order to allow this to be over 13 for you as much as the other parties.

14 So if counsel chooses to -- if your 15 representative chooses to leave the cell phone on and 16 chooses to leave the room, then I am going to allow the 17 proceedings to continue.

18 Thank you, carry on.

19 MR. CAMP: During the course of my 20 investigation on the website, one thing I did do is I 21 cut and pasted a portion of the website onto my report.

22 Inside the website there was an 23 article that was posted and, again, I am just going to 24 refer directly to my report here.

25 MR. VIGNA: What page of the report?

1 MR. CAMP: I am sorry, page 15.

2 MR. VIGNA: At Tab 8?

3 MR. CAMP: Paragraph 16, Tab 8. And 4 paragraph 16 on page 15. It says:

5 "Supporters of Holocaust denier
6 Ernst Zündel hold rally in
7 Edmonton."

8 It was posted by Glenn, G-L-E-N-N, on 9 March 28, 2004.

10 And I put in some content that was 11 from that article:

12 "Protest organizer, Glenn Bahr,
13 said the event held outside
14 Deputy Prime Minister Anne
15 McLellan's office wasn't about 16 whether the slaughter of Jews in 17 the Second World War took place.
18 It's about free speech and, if 19 you have a point of view, being 20 able to express it, Bahr said."

21 If you would like, Madam Chair, on a 22 break, I will try to find -- I might be able to find 23 that here, find that article for you.

24 THE CHAIRPERSON: That would be 25 helpful, if you could.

1                   MR. CAMP: I will take a look at the 2 break. I don't have the page number for that, 3 unfortunately.

4                   MR. VIGNA: Can you show us the 5 article "Supreme Stupidity"?

6                   MR. CAMP: One of the things that the 7 administrator of the website would do is post a number 8 of articles about the WCFU. It is basically just a 9 news article that was posted.

10                  MR. VIGNA: Perhaps you can go down.
11 There is a link to it, I believe.

12                  MR. CAMP: Again, this is an article 13 about a chapter that was trying to develop in Manitoba.
14 As far as I remember by reading this, there is no
15 reference to Glenn Bahr in this article here.

16                  MR. FROMM: Is that article elsewhere 17 in the disclosures or just on the site here?

18                  MR. CAMP: This one would just be on 19 the site, which is part of the disclosure.

20                  MR. FROMM: Would you be able to mark 21 that in such a way, because I would like to come back 22 to it in cross-examination. Is there some way of --

23                  MR. CAMP: That would be page 66.

24                  MR. VIGNA: Sergeant Camp, if you can 25 go back one page, I believe there is a link to the 1 article you were looking for here.

2 MR. CAMP: I am sorry?

3 MR. VIGNA: Go down.

4 MR. CAMP: Go down?

5 MR. VIGNA: You just passed it, I
6 believe.

7 If you can go back to the page
8 earlier where there is all the titles of different 9 articles, there is the article you mentioned earlier.
10 Perhaps back.

11 The one that is right there, "WCFU in 12 the media." In the media or the news? The fourth one.

13 MR. CAMP: Which one did you want me 14 to go into?

15 MR. VIGNA: The fourth one.

16 MR. CAMP: I am sorry?

17 MR. VIGNA: The fourth one.

18 MR. CAMP: Thank you. There it is 19 there. The one I said I was going to go to at the 20 break, Madam Chair. There it is there. Thank you.

21 "Supporters of Holocaust denier
22 Ernst Zündel hold rally in
23 Edmonton."

24 By Glenn on Sunday, 28th of March, 25 2004. So I will just click on that. There it is

1           there.

2                               It says by Glenn. Basically it looks 3 as though Glenn has taken a copy of a news article, I 4 am not sure which print the media was, if it was the 5 Journal or the Sun.

6                               So Glenn posts it. What is 7 interesting down here is:

8                                       "Protest organizer Glenn Bahr
9                                       said the event held outside
10                                      Deputy Prime Minister Anne 11                                      McLellan's constituency office 12                                      wasn't about whether the 13                                      slaughter of Jews during the 14                                      Second World War took place.
15                                      It's about free speech."

16                               So, again, all we are trying to show 17 here on these examples on the site now is a link to 18 Bahr, the website and the WCFU content control. Down 19 here on this paragraph,."

20                                      "Bahr, when asked whether he 21                                      himself believes Zündel's views 22                                      about the Holocaust are true
23                                      responded, a fact's a fact. I 24                                      don't really think it's about 25                                      hatred."

1                   Okay. I can show you or have you 2 listen to an audio radio broadcast.

3                   MR. VIGNA: That is in Tab 18, I
4 believe.

5                   MR. CAMP: The reason the hesitation
6 was there, in the WCFU website, which I will show you, 7 there is a point where on WCFU the member called SS-88 8 explains that he will be on the Peter Warren Show on 9 this date and this time and everybody come and hear me 10 on the radio program in regards to the WCFU. I will 11 show you that on the website later.

12                  MR. VIGNA: I want to go to the --

13                  MR. CAMP: I can try to go to that 14 now if I can find it. I will just take a minute to try 15 to find it. And then after that I will show you -- I 16 will let you listen to the Peter Warren show where 17 Glenn Bahr is interviewed as the founder and president 18 and chapter head of WCFU. And on that radio program, 19 you will see that Glenn Bahr speaks about the website 20 and control and content of the website.

21                  If you give me a moment, I will try 22 to find the page that is on on the Peter Warren Show.

23                  MR. VIGNA: Is it on the CD ROM?

24                  MR. CAMP: Yes, but I just want to 25 get to the post first. Would that be better, Madam

1 Chair?

2 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes.

3 MR. CAMP: This is it here, Madam
4 Chair. Now, the WCFU discussion forum is set up
5 quite -- it is quite similar to the Stormfront.org 6 discussion forum where you would start with a thread
7 starter or title, "CKNW Corus Radio Network, radio 8 interview with Peter Warren."

9 You will see that the -- and I will 10 get into this information later, I told you SS-88, but 11 this is actually better. Glenn is the author of this 12 post. Also if you notice, Glenn is also noted as the 13 head administrator of the website. And on the post on 14 April 24th, Glenn states:

15 "Next Sunday I'll be doing a
16 radio interview with Peter
17 Warren at 12 noon Alberta time
18 on CKNW Corus radio network."

19 MR. FROMM: If there was a way that 20 you can mark that. I want to come back to that.

21 MR. CAMP: Sure. I will give you a 22 page number.

23 MR. FROMM: It would be for you or 24 for me to ask?

25 MR. CAMP: For you. 668.

1 MR. FROMM: Not 666?

2 MR. CAMP: No. Forgot about that,
3 too.

4 Sorry, Madam Chair. I will go over 5 the thread here before we start the audio. So there is 6 the announcement by Glenn that he is going to be on the 7 Peter Warren show. There is some responses by a member 8 called Todd Conroy. Glenn comes back on and says:

9 "Thanks, Todd. What is CKNW on 10 the dial?"

11 So he trying to figure out the dial
12 or the frequency for the channel. 980 AM in Vancouver.

13 Then there is some general discussion
14 about CKNW is part of the Jewish Asper media empire.
15 And then basically general discussion about the 16 website -- sorry, the radio program that is coming up.
17 Sorry.

18 MR. VIGNA: You went quickly on that 19 last --

20 MR. CAMP: There is just a member
21 smokeuman that is on there that is explaining more 22 about that the Corus Radio Network Peter Warren show 23 can be heard on 630 CHED and he was listening to the 24 Peter Warren show at that time.

25 Basically there is a bit of 1 excitement, it looks like, from the general membership 2 on the discussion forum of the WCFU about Glenn being 3 on the Peter Warren Show and then Glenn again responds:

4 "It will be about a 40-minute
5 segment with Warren. Near the 6 end of the discussion they will 7 be taking calls."

8 MR. VIGNA: One quick second.

9 MR. FROMM: Just a clarification.
10 Who said that CKNW is part of the Jewish Asper media 11 empire?

12 MR. CAMP: I don't know. Some 13 person.

14 MR. FROMM: It is not Glenn?

15 MR. CAMP: No, it is not Glenn. It 16 is goy fox.

17 Again, there is more discussion and 18 Glenn, again, responds:

19 "12 noon Alberta time. 11:00
20 B.C. time."

21 So he is letting everybody know what 22 time he will be interviewed so they will all listen to 23 him.

24 Then Glenn goes on to give another
25 post about the description of the show. So I am

1           presuming that he is been provided by the radio program 2           a summation of what the show will be about.

3                                "Is a western Canadian 4                                organization just a regional 5                                uprising or are their members
6                                racists, bigots? Warren talks
7                                to their leader."

8                                Plus, believe it or not -- this is 9           another portion of the show that is irrelevant to this 10          hearing. Basically that they are going to be speaking 11          to their leader.

12                               MR. FROMM: What page is that? I 13          want to come back to that as well.

14                               MR. CAMP: Sure. 670.

15                               Okay. So after the -- I heard the 16          Peter Warren show that day and then what we did is we 17          obtained a copy of the Peter Warren show, which I would 18          like to play for Madam Chair.

19                               MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I would like 20          to enter as evidence a copy of the Peter Warren show 21          and then come back to the website we are on right now.

22                               THE CHAIRPERSON: Is that the second 23          of the two CDs at Tab 18?

24                               MR. VIGNA: Correct.

25                               THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay, Madam

1 Registrar?

2 THE REGISTRAR: The CD ROM Entitled
3 "Warman v. Glenn Bahr, Radio Interview with Peter 4 Warren and Respondent" will be filed as Commission 5 Exhibit HR-9.

6 EXHIBIT NO. HR-9: CD ROM
7 Entitled "Warman v. Glenn Bahr,
8 Radio Interview with Peter
9 Warren and Respondent."

10 MR. FROMM: May I ask a question
11 before it is filed? Who is tendering this as evidence?

12 THE CHAIRPERSON: It is the 13 Commission that is putting this forward?

14 MR. FROMM: Is this Constable or 15 Sergeant Camp's copy or is this --

16 MR. VIGNA: This was a copy that 17 was -- we made eight copies of the radio show that 18 Mr. Camp -- Sergeant Camp obtained for us.

19 THE CHAIRPERSON: All right. So that 20 is a document that the Commission generated?

21 MR. VIGNA: We generated, yeah, from 22 the copy, the original that Mr. Sergeant Camp provided 23 to us. But that is a copy that we did. The rules 24 provide for eight copies.

25 MR. FROMM: So then through you to

1 Sergeant Camp, is this the entire copy of the Warren
2 show interview of Glenn Bahr or is it just portions 3 of -- what I want to know is this a complete copy of 4 Glenn Bahr's appearance on the Peter Warren show?

5 MR. CAMP: It is a complete copy.

6 MR. FROMM: And what is your evidence 7 for that?

8 MR. CAMP: I will let you listen to 9 it.

10 MR. VIGNA: I will ask in relation to 11 how the show was obtained and transcribed on the CD ROM 12 and perhaps if Mr. Fromm has other questions that 13 result he can --

14 THE CHAIRPERSON: Thank you, Counsel.

15 MR. VIGNA: So Sergeant Camp, for the 16 purposes of introducing this exhibit as evidence, can 17 you tell us what steps you took to transcribe from the 18 CD ROM, and if you actually listened to the show in 19 question?

20 MR. CAMP: The day in question I
21 listened to the show on 630 CHED, and then I obtained a 22 copy of that program and provided it as evidence for 23 the criminal proceeding.

24 MR. VIGNA: How did you obtain it?

25 MR. CAMP: I went to a -- it was a

1 website. I think it was 630 CHED -- this is the part I
2 didn't take a note of and I regret it now. But there
3 was -- it was obtained from the internet and I am 4 pretty sure it was a 630 CHED website and you were able 5 to download a portion of that -- sorry, download the 6 program and I just burnt it on to CD ROM.

7 MR. VIGNA: And you listened to the 8 show?

9 MR. CAMP: I listened to it when it
10 was live and I have listened to it a few times since.
11 They are one and the same, both the show I listened to 12 live and the copy of the CD as well.

13 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I would like 14 to enter it as an exhibit at this time through the 15 witness?

16 THE CHAIRPERSON: Yes, Mr. Fromm,
17 have your concerns been redressed?

18 MR. FROMM: Yes, I just wanted to be 19 clear as to what we were getting here as evidence. So 20 just to summarize, this is the entire Peter Warren 21 show, his entire segment dealing with Glenn Bahr?

22 MR. CAMP: Yeah, I think the 23 commercials were cut out for me, but the show itself is 24 the entire show itself. The show is about 30 minutes 25 long. There is only 15 minutes of it that Glenn Bahr

1 was interviewed. So you don't need to listen to the 2 entire 30 minutes. It is 15 minutes.

3 MR. VIGNA: Madam Chair, I don't 4 know, it is up to you. We can perhaps listen to the 5 entire show or certain excerpts.

6 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am in your hands,
7 Counsel.

8 MR. VIGNA: We will try to listen to 9 the entire show, then.

10 THE CHAIRPERSON: You present the 11 evidence that you would like.

12 MR. VIGNA: It is 30 minutes,
13 Sergeant Camp, correct?

14 MR. CAMP: Huh?

15 MR. VIGNA: Thirty minutes, the show?

16 MR. CAMP: The show is 30 minutes.
17 15 minutes, the first 15 is Glenn Bahr. The other 15 18 are call-ins and a gentleman from an anti-racist 19 organization down east, but it is not Glenn Bahr.

20 MR. FROMM: I am saying the call-ins
21 involve dialogue back and forth with Glenn Bahr, do 22 they not?

23 MR. CAMP: In the first 15 minutes
24 there was call-ins to Glenn Bahr and there was dialogue 25 between Glenn Bahr and the caller.

1                   THE CHAIRPERSON: All right. Well, 2                   counsel will introduce what counsel would like to 3                   introduce in terms of evidence and you will certainly 4                   have an opportunity, Mr. Fromm, to cross-examine. If 5                   you prefer that I hear more of that evidence, I am 6                   happy to, but I am going to leave those decisions to 7                   counsel at this point.

8                   MR. FROMM: If we don't hear the 9                   entirety of it, then I will be asking for -- when I get 10                  a chance to cross-examine Sergeant Camp, I would like 11                  to hear the entirety of it. So we may as well hear the 12                  entirety of it now.

13                  THE CHAIRPERSON: That sounds
14                  sensible. Okay.

15                  MR. VIGNA: I would like to hear the 16                  entire show. No problem. We will take the remaining 17                  period, at least, to do the show.

18                  THE CHAIRPERSON: That is fine.

19                  MR. VIGNA: I would like to enter it 20                  as an exhibit. I don't think it has been done yet.

21                  THE REGISTRAR: It is been marked
22                  already as HR-9.

23                  MR. VIGNA: HR-9, okay. So perhaps 24                  we can just put on the show. Then perhaps we can have 25                  Sergeant Camp comment on the key excerpts.

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: Okay.

2 MR. CAMP: If it is okay, Madam
3 Chair, if we could bring another chair here just to 4 place this down.

5 THE CHAIRPERSON: Sure. I think we 6 should be sensitive to Madam Reporter. So just let us 7 know how you are doing. If you need this to stop and 8 start a bit, just let us know.

9 MR. VIGNA: You have a copy, I think.

10 THE CHAIRPERSON: So just let me know 11 how you are doing, and if you need it to slow down, 12 just let us know.

13 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, I am just 14 going to stop it and start it over.

15 THE CHAIRPERSON: Now, I wonder if 16 the volume really isn't all that great, my concern is 17 that people might have some difficulty hearing it.
18 Well, why don't we get it started and if anybody is 19 having difficulty hearing this, we will have to figure 20 something else out.

21 MR. FROMM: Where is the sound coming
22 from? We can just move a bit closer.

23 THE CHAIRPERSON: That might work.
24 Let us get it started and see. Maybe it starts off 25 quiet and gets a little bit louder later.

1                   There is going to be nothing to see 2 up here. Just listen.

3 --- Radio interview played aloud

4                   RADIO ANNOUNCER: Live from CKNW 5 AM 980, this is Warren on the 6 Weekend. Call 604-280-9898 or 7 1-877-399-9898.

8                   Now, here's Peter Warren.

9                   MR. WARREN: Good day across 10 this incredible country. First of 11 all, a public request, what is the 12 group called Western Canada For Us 13 organization all about? It is 14 subtitled on the website, at least,
15 "support our European heritage." It 16 has been really blasted around in the 17 media, particularly the media in 18 Manitoba where they attempted to set 19 up a Manitoba chapter about a week or 20 ten days ago.

21                   They have been called white 22 supremists, they have been called 23 Aryan Nations, they have been called 24 racists, they have been called hatred
25 pillars. Whatever.

1                   We have on the line the 2 president and founder of the Western 3 Canada For Us group and head of the 4 Alberta Chapter, speaking from 5 Edmonton. His name Glenn Bahr.

6                   Mr. Bahr, first of all, as for 7 those allegations that you've seen in 8 the rest of the media over the past 9 few weeks, white supremacist, hatred,
10 racist, et cetera, et cetera.

11                  MR. BAHR: Thank you, Peter.
12 First of all, what I would like to 13 say that the term "racist" is given 14 to anybody who brings up the 15 immigration reform or free speech.
16 They are completely untrue. The 17 media is always labelling groups that 18 have to do with immigration reform as 19 racists.

20                  The reason the liberal 21 government -- basically most of the 22 liberal government's votes comes from 23 immigration and that is why they call 24 it racist is because they don't want 25 any of their -- to lose any of their

1 votes.

2 MR. WARREN: No, but you -- your 3 group backs Ernst Zündel, does it 4 not?

5 MR. BAHR: Pardon me?

6 MR. WARREN: Your group says
7 Ernst Zündel is a political prisoner.

8 MR. BAHR: Correct.

9 MR. WARREN: How do you figure 10 he is a political prisoner being 11 prosecuted?

12 MR. BAHR: Okay, basically Ernst
13 Zündel is a political prisoner. He 14 is in jail only for his non-violent 15 expression of his political views.
16 Mr. Zündel is a German-born
17 publisher, has been a long-term
18 resident of Toronto who was ordered 19 detained last year under a rarely 20 used Canadian security of 21 intelligence certificate. He lived 22 42 years in Canada. He was under 23 extensive police surveillance and he 24 was never charged or much less
25 convicted of any act of violence.

1                   Just because of his 2                   controversial views, that is why he 3                   is being held, and we don't support 4                   that. We support free speech in this 5                   country.

6                   MR. WARREN: Do you then 7                   support, though, Zündel's Holocaust 8                   denial statements?

9                   MR. BAHR: No, it's nothing to 10                  do with that at all. Western Canada 11                  For Us has no views on that. Western 12                  Canada For Us fights for free speech 13                  and him being confined is basically 14                  going against free speech.

15                  MR. WARREN: But you do claim on 16                  the website to represent 17                  Euro-Canadian heritage?

18                  MR. BAHR: Correct.

19                  MR. WARREN: That is white
20                  heritage?

21                  MR. BAHR: That is the white 22                  European Canadians that first came to 23                  this country, settled and made the 24                  nation what it is today.

25                  MR. WARREN: Yeah, but am I not

1 right, though, weren't the First 2 Nations people here long before your 3 forefathers?

4 MR. BAHR: I knew you were going
5 to bring that up.

6 MR. WARREN: You are darn right
7 I was going to bring that up.

8 MR. BAHR: That has been used a 9 lot. I mean, they themselves were 10 immigrants. They came across, I 11 believe it was the land bridge. When 12 the Europeans first came and settled
13 here, it was still forest. I mean, 14 there was no real civilization, and 15 we built Canada to the nation it is 16 today.

17 MR. WARREN: What would you have 18 called, then, the Indian tribes that 19 habitated this land when you arrived?
20 You wouldn't call them civilized?

21 MR. BAHR: No, I wouldn't call
22 them civilized.

23 MR. WARREN: But you would have 24 called your forefathers civilized?

25 MR. BAHR: Correct.

1 MR. WARREN: Where in Europe
2 more people have died in the name of 3 God than any other place on the face 4 of the earth.

5 MR. BAHR: Well, I am not too
6 familiar with any of that, but when 7 they came here, they built a great 8 nation. The Natives, I mean, they 9 were basically in tribes scattered 10 throughout the country living in 11 tepees and such.

12 MR. WARREN: All right. The 13 other point. I noticed on your 14 website, because I will admit front
15 up I faked a pass name -- password
16 and got onto your website, all of it,
17 including the chat lines. Very easy
18 to do.

19 MR. BAHR: Right. It is open to 20 anybody.

21 --- Radio interview paused

22 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, I would just 23 like to highlight that portion. Peter Warren talks 24 about "your website", I faked a password on that 25 website. He basically -- then the respondent Glenn

1 Bahr admits, yeah, you can basically do that. You can 2 fake a password and get on it.

3 --- Radio interview resumed

4 MR. WARREN: So I faked a
5 password and used a phony e-mail and 6 got on there. I noticed that there 7 are photos of rallies that you've 8 held, but there are links to other
9 pages including the KKK, the Aryan
10 Nations and the White Renegade.

11 MR. BAHR: Right. Now, links,
12 basically what links do, links 13 provide traffic to the website and 14 help in search engines rankings.
15 WCFU.com is also a resource 16 information centre and we provide 17 everybody with as much resources as 18 we possibly can, whether it be KKK or 19 the Canadian Heritage Alliance or 20 government policies. It is all about 21 providing traffic to the website.

22 MR. WARREN: Strange choice to 23 get traffic to the website; would you 24 not agree?

25 MR. BAHR: Not at all.

1 MR. WARREN: I mean, I have got 2 a website. I got to tell you I have 3 got a website and I have --

4 MR. BAHR: I have been there,
5 too.

6 MR. WARREN: And I have links to 7 a bed and breakfast, Harbour Air Sea
8 Planes, the best media lawyer and 9 country and the Belfry Theatre on 10 Vancouver Island.

11 I don't have links to KKK, the 12 Aryan Nations and the White Renegade.

13 MR. BAHR: Basically because 14 Western Canada For Us, I mean, those 15 links, it has something to do with 16 our cause. I mean, people are 17 curious about those groups. Why
18 would I put a bed and breakfast link 19 on the website when, I mean, that 20 wouldn't make any sense at all.
21 People aren't coming here for that 22 kind of information.

23 MR. WARREN: Okay. Hang on the 24 line, sir.

25 MR. BAHR: Okay.

1 MR. WARREN: All right. We are 2 with Glenn Bahr, president/founder of
3 Western Canada For Us.

4 --- Radio interview paused

5 MR. CAMP: Madam Chair, just to 6 interject here, again, this last portion there that was 7 spoken, again, talks to Glenn Bahr controlling the 8 website, what goes on the site, why it is there, that 9 it is his website.

10 --- Radio interview resumed

11 MR. WARREN: Your calls for him 12 right after this break. It is 13 exactly 15 after the hour. You are 14 tuned to Warren on the Weekend, the 15 Corus Radio Network.

16 RADIO ANNOUNCER: You are
17 listening to Warren, live from CKNW
18 AM 980. Now, once again, here's 19 Peter Warren.

20 MR. WARREN: We go back right
21 now to Edmonton to Glenn Bahr. We 22 have got a whole pile of calls from 23 across the country coming in.
24 Mr. Bahr, I notice that the move into 25 Manitoba, nobody turned up and signed

1 up for that one.

2 MR. BAHR: Actually, what -- 3 people did turn up. They were just 4 too scared to come forward because of 5 the media was there, and we also -- 6 the chapter in Manitoba, too, has 7 been around for a while and there are 8 people involved. We also have a new 9 chapter we just opened in British 10 Columbia as well.

11 MR. WARREN: Are you just -- 12 anything in Saskatchewan?

13 MR. BAHR: Not at the moment.

14 MR. WARREN: Okay. Roughly, 15 ballpark how many members do you 16 think you have?

17 MR. BAHR: We don't really have 18 a membership. Participants I would 19 say we have close to 100 across the 20 country.

21 MR. WARREN: Well, you mentioned
22 B.C. We will start in B.C.

23 Carol in Duncan.

24 CALLER CAROL: Oh, hi there.

25 MR. WARREN: Yes.

1                   CALLER CAROL: Weren't the 2                   Indians not defeated when the white 3                   man came here, and all the other 4                   countries in Europe and everywhere, 5                   are they going to go back centuries 6                   now where they were defeated and give 7                   Spain back to whoever defeated them 8                   or someone defeated Spain? It is 9                   quite ridiculous.

10                  MR. WARREN: Glenn?

11                  MR. BAHR: Sorry, I couldn't 12                  really hear her there.

13                  MR. WARREN: What she is 14                  suggesting is that if we are going to 15                  give back land and all the rest of it 16                  countries that have all the taken 17                  countries, Britain has got to go 18                  back, I guess, because they were 19                  defeated by the Romans, blah, blah, 20                  blah.

21                  MR. BAHR: Well, we are not 22                  dealing with history here. We are 23                  dealing with Canada.

24                  CALLER CAROL: It is history.
25                  What is it if it is not history?

1 MR. BAHR: Well, well we are 2 dealing with Canada and the 3 immigration policy today and in the 4 future.

5 CALLER CAROL: If you are, then 6 you should change it because it is 7 ridiculous.

8 MR. WARREN: All right. Thank 9 you, Duncan.

10 And into London, Ontario, I have 11 got Richard.

12 CALLER RICHARD: Hello. Well, I
13 hope you have a few minutes here. I 14 have been listening very patiently.
15 I am doing a research paper for 16 university and for the last month I 17 have been following WCFU on and also 18 on Stormfront.org and these guys are 19 pathetic, let us put it that way.

20 Okay, this Glenn --

21 MR. BAHR: First of all, this is 22 Peter Kouba from Edmonton, Alberta
23 and he --

24 CALLER RICHARD: I beg your 25 pardon?

1 MR. BAHR: Yes, that is who you
2 are.

3 CALLER RICHARD: Anyway, back to 4 this. Okay, your name on Stormfront
5 is SS-88, right, so you say that you
6 are not Nazi or anything and yet you 7 have SS and Heil Hitler for your 8 name. Plus on Stormfront you have 9 pictures all over the place with 10 nasty tattoos all over your body.

11 How does that get away from the 12 free speech compared to being a Nazi 13 in disguise?

14 MR. BAHR: Okay, first of all,
15 Peter --

16 MR. WARREN: Look, this guy is 17 phoning from London, Ontario.

18 MR. BAHR: Okay. This 19 Stormfront issue has nothing to do
20 with Western Canada For Us.

21 CALLER RICHARD: You have also 22 SS-88 on your own website, WCFU.

23 MR. BAHR: No, I am not, 24 actually. My name -- my name is 25 Glenn on the WCFU website.

1                   CALLER RICHARD: Okay. And also 2 all you have on the front website is,
3 like, basically begging. Like, that 4 is all you have there is six
5 characters for give me money, give me
6 money, give me money.

7                   And out of all those people that 8 you have on your membership, the 180
9 people, don't forget to tell people
10 that when you register, like Peter
11 did, then that is a member, but you 12 only have about 15 people that 13 actually post. It is misleading that 14 way when you say you have so many 15 members.

16                  MR. WARREN: I was going to ask 17 about what Richard calls the begging.
18 I notice that there was on your 19 website, Glenn, please send us money
20 for some kind of libel action.

21                  MR. BAHR: Yes. We support --

22                  CALLER RICHARD: They --

23                  MR. BAHR: Let me finish. We 24 support Ernst Zündel and his defence
25 fund. We support the Northern

1 Alliance and their defence fund. We 2 support Paul Fromm and their defence
3 fund. And that is on the front page 4 of the website, correct.

5 MR. WARREN: What is the 6 National Front one all about?

7 MR. BAHR: There is no National 8 Front on our home page.

9 MR. WARREN: No, but there is 10 later on.

11 MR. BAHR: You mean the Northern 12 Alliance?

13 MR. WARREN: The Northern 14 Alliance, excuse me.

15 MR. BAHR: Okay. Richard Warman
16 is suing them.

17 MR. WARREN: Did he win?

18 MR. BAHR: It has not gone to 19 court at the moment.

20 MR. WARREN: Okay.

21 CALLER RICHARD: One last thing.
22 You mentioned on your website on the 23 front page that you guys are not a 24 political party, all right, but yet 25 on Stormfront you mentioned in one of

1 the posts that your plans and your 2 goals are to be a political party.

3 Can you guys even make up your 4 mind? And another thing --

5 MR. BAHR: Let me answer your 6 question.

7 CALLER RICHARD: Hold on, one
8 more comment. There is at least half
9 of the people that are in your WCFU 10 and you look under the profile are 11 14, 15, 16-year-old children. Is 12 that wise to, like, manipulate the 13 minds of, you know, disgruntled
14 children?

15 MR. WARREN: Glenn, it is Peter
16 Warren. I went on your chat line
17 under General Discussion today and I
18 did notice the lines "kids rule," 19 "teens rule," et cetera, et cetera.

20 MR. BAHR: Okay. I am not sure 21 where you are getting this 22 information. It is completely false.
23 Our members range from young 24 children -- not children, young 25 teenagers all the way up to older

1 folks. A lot of our participants are 2 not even on the website.

3 And another thing is, the 4 forums -- I mean a lot of the people 5 who post on the forum are not part of 6 the group. It is a forum, plain and 7 simple. It is just to provide 8 traffic to the website.

9 CALLER RICHARD: But your forum
10 has nothing but nasty crosses, nasty 11 this, a tribute to Hitler.

12 MR. BAHR: That is completely 13 untrue.

14 CALLER RICHARD: How is that 15 something to do with free speech?

16 MR. BAHR: The forum is to 17 provide -- is exactly is to provide 18 free speech. I cannot go in there 19 and say, your views are not right.

20 CALLER RICHARD: Okay, but why
21 do you ban people --

22 MR. BAHR: Let me finish. Thank 23 you.

24 CALLER RICHARD: No, hold on a
25 minute.

1 MR. BAHR: No, I'm finishing my 2 point.

3 CALLER RICHARD: Why do you ban
4 the people, then, if you blab about 5 this free speech, like I notice this 6 Curt gentleman and some others that 7 speak up against you and you banned 8 them, you terminated them so they 9 can't speak up against you no more.
10 Is that free speech?

11 MR. BAHR: Under Opposing Views, 12 anyone can joint the forum and they 13 can argue with us. But as soon as 14 they start posting violent -- violent 15 threats and swearing and it just gets 16 immature, of course I am going to ban
17 them. I am going to ban them --

18 CALLER RICHARD: You would have 19 to ban most of your members. They 20 talk about brass. They talk about 21 getting Arial Sharon as a target
22 practice for shooting on the shooting
23 range. I mean, you should be banning 24 half of them then.

25 MR. BAHR: Anyone who provokes

1 violence on the forum is banned.

2 MR. WARREN: Gentlemen, we are 3 going to have to leave it there. I 4 have run out of time.

5 Glenn Bahr in Edmonton, thank 6 you for your time, sir.

7 MR. BAHR: Thank you.

8 MR. WARREN: Right, bye.

9 And in London, Ontario, Richard,
10 thank you for your time, sir.

11 CALLER RICHARD: Thank you.

12 MR. WARREN: All right, are they 13 or aren't they? Richard seemed to 14 prove his points. We will get an 15 expert view as we go into one of this 16 country's leading anti-racist
17 crusaders from Winnipeg coming right 18 up after this.

19 Stay with me, please. This is 20 Warren on the Weekend, of course,
21 radio network.

22 RADIO ANNOUNCER: You are
23 listening to Warren, live from CKNW
24 AM 980. Now, once again, here is 25 Peter Warren.

1                   MR. WARREN: Let us continue on 2 that topic for the next 15, 20
3 minutes or so because in this hour we 4 are going to break this New Zealand
5 story about the Mossad agents even 6 going contrary to their 1997
7 assurances that they would not use
8 Canadian passports, being picked up 9 in New Zealand where apparently they 10 are using Canadian passports. Latest 11 word on that one is there is some 12 question whether they are Mossad
13 agents.

14                   But leave that one aside. I 15 want to continue with this disturbing
16 story about the Western Canada For Us 17 so-called organization that you have 18 just heard about.

19                   We go now to a man who has 20 crusaded against racism over these 21 many years, One of the strongest 22 voices in the country. He is from 23 the Faculty of Social Science at the 24 University of Winnipeg. His name
25 Helmut-Harry Loewen, and if we could

1 start, I want you to tell the 2 listeners, I offered you air time
3 with Bahr. You said, no bloody way
4 because it just gives him
5 credibility; is that right?

6 MR. LOEWEN: The principles that 7 anti-racist activists in Canada
8 operate under, we don't debate with 9 people like Glenn Bahr or, you know, 10 members of other similar 11 organization. That tends to convey 12 the impression that they have 13 credible views which are open for 14 debate, which they certainly are not.
15 From one perspective, people like 16 Glenn Bahr or his hero, Zündel, claim
17 that their view of the events of Nazi 18 Germany are simply a case of 19 historical revisionism. But it is 20 not the case.

21 What we are dealing with here is 22 not revisionism but also Holocaust 23 denial and other coded forms of 24 racism.

25 MR. WARREN: What do you know

1 about WCFU?

2 MR. LOEWEN: Well, I know that 3 the local group, which is headed by 4 Jamie Murphy, who calls himself
5 Irishcream, he's being quite dogged 6 and diligent in trying to get 7 organized locally.

8 He held a meeting, as you said, 9 just about eight days ago in 10 Assiniboine Park in an attempt to 11 recruit more members to his chapter.
12 But actually only Jamie and a young 13 associate showed up and his young 14 associate actually didn't even dare 15 to come to the actual event. He 16 stayed at a distance. There were 17 some 20, 22 anti-racist activists who 18 were simply there to monitor and 19 there was also a heavy police
20 presence, both undercover police
21 officers and uniformed police 22 officers and eventually he was 23 actually driven home by one of the 24 kindly female police officers when it 25 became clear that he had no support.

1                   But he is determined. He claims
2 to speak for the average white man.
3 He tries to downplay the whole issue
4 of neo-Naziism and white power and so 5 on. I challenged him on that in 6 conversations, we challenged him at 7 the rally, saying that, you know, you
8 are tied in with -- he pointed out
9 some of the links that the WCFU 10 has --

11                   MR. WARREN: Yeah.

12                   MR. LOEWEN: -- with some of the 13 hardcore white supremacist neo-Nazi 14 fascist organizations.

15                   Glenn Bahr can talk all he wants 16 about European heritage, and I would 17 actually challenge him, you know, 18 whether he knows all that much about 19 European heritage. I mean, I am a 20 first generation Canadian. My 21 parents are immigrants,
22 German-speaking immigrants from 23 southern Russia. We are Mennonites.
24 We would be part of this group that 25 is constructed as European Canadians.

1                   When these people speak about 2                   European heritage, that is not the 3                   heritage that I know, love and 4                   recognize. Their European heritage 5                   is a heritage of resentment, of 6                   ethnic cleansing, of Naziism.

7                   MR. WARREN: There are a couple 8                   of points, Mr. Loewen, I would like 9                   to get at, and one of them is did you 10                  say that that guy in Manitoba, 11                  Murphy, nicknames himself Irishcream?

12                 MR. LOEWEN: Yes.

13                 MR. WARREN: Because I have been 14                 on, as I mentioned to Glenn Bahr, I 15                 faked my way on to the website with 16                 an e-mail and a phony password and 17                 got in there, Irishcream was all over 18                 the website over the last two days.
19                 That is him, is it?

20                 MR. LOEWEN: Yes, that is him.

21                 MR. WARREN: That is 22                 fascinating.

23                 MR. LOEWEN: He talks about his 24                 northern Irish heritage, mentions 25                 Bobby Sands in that connection. See,

1                   some people challenge whether 2                   Mr. Murphy actually was as Aryan as 3                   he tries to portray himself, given 4                   swarthy features and so on, but that 5                   is not really the point.

6                   These people, despite the bust
7                   which was the event here in Winnipeg, 8                   very little support, Murphy was 9                   actually crestfallen, was visibly 10                  disappointed. In a follow-up e-mail 11                  he mentioned as much. He indicated 12                  at the rally just before the police 13                  officer took him home that he did 14                  have some issues, some disputes with 15                  Glenn Bahr with the Alberta Chapter.

16                  Murphy claimed, for example, 17                  that he, Murphy, had tried to get 18                  some of the Nazi stuff removed from 19                  the links on the website, although 20                  none of that as disappeared. The 21                  Aryan Nations is still there and so 22                  on, so I find that a little bit 23                  disingenuous. But he did intimate 24                  that there may be disagreements and 25                  perhaps even some internal dissent

1 within the WCFU, and I put it to him
2 that perhaps his group has already 3 been thoroughly infiltrated, which 4 might indicate that there is not any 5 support out there and that some of 6 the supporters are actually 7 infiltrators.

8 MR. WARREN: Infiltrators would 9 be R.C.M.P. or just regular citizens?

10 MR. LOEWEN: Well, it is hard to 11 say. I can't speak for what the 12 police or the R.C.M.P. or the City of 13 Winnipeg Diversity Relations is 14 doing, but certainly we are paying 15 attention to the organization since,
16 especially the Manitoba Chapter came 17 to out notice in March already.

18 So I am sure the government the 19 looking for closely at this, as the 20 government should, but it is not only 21 a matter of police action. What is 22 needed is, you know, as you say,
23 citizens action and a good
24 anti-racist response.

25 By showing up at Assiniboine

1 Park, we did not really organize, we 2 just brought a few people out. But 3 we definitely sent a message that 4 there was a strong opposition which 5 we have always had in Winnipeg, right 6 through the '90s against groups like 7 the Manitoba Knights of the Ku Klux
8 Klan, against the Northern 9 HammerSkins and against Joe Lockhart 10 Euro-Christian Defence League, which 11 tried to preach the same European 12 heritage.

13 All of that has dissipated not 14 only because of the police but 15 especially because of concerted 16 anti-racist action.

17 MR. WARREN: Mind you,
18 Mr. Loewen, if we go back on the 19 history, I go back to a best-selling 20 book I had the author on the air and 21 I am going back 25 years, White Hoods
22 on the Prairies.

23 MR. LOEWEN: Julia Sheer.

24 MR. WARREN: Julia Sheer, the Ku
25 Klux Klan History Across the

1 Prairies. Very wide spread.

2 MR. LOEWEN: Very wide spread.
3 In the 1920s, the Klan had very large
4 chapters in western Canada. There
5 was a strong chapter here in Winnipeg
6 which actually had a meeting hall
7 down on Young Street.

8 MR. WARREN: Right.

9 MR. LOEWEN: And when St.
10 Boniface College was burnt in the 11 1920s, the Ku Klux Klan actually took 12 credit for the arson and actually 13 murder in that case.

14 In Saskatchewan there was a very 15 large chapter, estimates in the tens 16 of thousands of members in 17 Saskatchewan.

18 MR. WARREN: Yes.

19 MR. LOEWEN: So this type of 20 hate, no matter how it codes itself,
21 I mean, the Klan in the 20s portrayed
22 itself also as an immigration 23 reformist type of organization. They 24 didn't want Catholics, didn't want
25 Ukrainians and so on and so forth.

1                   So the message has changed
2 slightly, the players are different.
3 They are coding, camouflaging their 4 racism in different ways. But we 5 have a long history of that.

6                   I will tell you one thing.
7 People are fed up with this type of 8 case and wherever these groups will 9 organize, we will be there as 10 anti-racist activists, there is no 11 question of that, that there will be 12 a strong opposition, good community 13 organizing against any expression of 14 hatred, no matter how minimal it 15 might appear at first.

16                  MR. WARREN: Now, this group has 17 not surfaced in Saskatchewan yet?

18                  MR. LOEWEN: That is my 19 information as well, and it remains 20 to be seen what happens in 21 Saskatchewan. But as you know in 22 Saskatchewan, there was a problem
23 with the KKK and the Aryan Nations in 24 the '80s and early 90s with the 25 shooting of Mr. Leo LaChance by the

1 Aryan Nations leader, Carney Nerland,
2 a government inquiry into that case
3 and into organized racism in 4 Saskatchewan.

5 Now, this is not to say that 6 there is nothing going on in 7 Saskatchewan. There are all sorts of 8 networks that are still active. The 9 WCFU does not seem yet to have 10 organized well in Saskatchewan.

11 We should put this into 12 perspective as, I think, Richard from 13 London, Ontario put it earlier. Bahr
14 seems to have only 15 or the 20 15 people around him. The rest are 16 people like you who have come on with 17 secret passwords and myself and maybe 18 others who have done so. I don't 19 think it is widespread, but at the 20 same time, groups like that should 21 not be underestimated.

22 After all, Bahr did organize a
23 demonstration in support of Ernst
24 Zündel in front of the Deputy 25 Premier's constituency office in

1                   Edmonton. So this group has promised 2                   to be active as activists holding 3                   regular meetings, public rallies, 4                   distribution of literature, and so 5                   on.

6                   They have opened up a Pandora's 7                   box of hate and I and my friends in 8                   the anti-racist movement in Winnipeg 9                   will do everything we can to shut 10                  that box.

11                 MR. WARREN: Mr. Loewen, hang 12                 on, I am going to take a couple calls 13                 for you, if I can. Thank you very 14                 much. Lines up for toll free, 15                 1-877-399-9898. Call right now. We 16                 just do one more segment with 17                 Mr. Layman. 1-877-399-9898, toll 18                 free as Warren on the Weekend
19                 continues, along the Corus Radio 20                 Network.

21                 We are back in Winnipeg, Faculty 22                 of Social Science, University of 23                 Winnipeg, anti-racist crusader 24                 Helmut-Harry Loewen is with us, and 25                 we will start on the east coast today

1 for a change, in Halifax, Nova 2 Scotia. Chris.

3 CALLER CHRIS: Good evening,
4 sir.

5 MR. WARREN: Yes, hi.

6 CALLER PETER: I am actually 7 appalled by what's being said about 8 WCFU. I have stood by Glenn since 9 the very beginning. I am aware I am 10 on the east coast and I am going to 11 be criticized for supporting a 12 western organization. But people
13 have said that Glenn has no support.
14 I don't understand how you can say
15 that. Myself and I know about seven 16 or eight other people in Nova Scotia
17 alone who stand by Glenn.

18 MR. WARREN: Why are you
19 standing by Glenn if you live in Nova 20 Scotia?

21 CALLER CHRIS: We support what 22 WCFU and Glenn stand for. You know, 23 you can't call everybody on this 24 website a neo-Nazi, because they are 25 not. I have been on that forum since

1 the very beginning.

2 MR. WARREN: All right. Wait a
3 minute. You are calling from Nova 4 Scotia. Let me click you in with 5 Mr. Loewen in Winnipeg.
6 Helmut-Harry?

7 MR. LOEWEN: Well, he might have 8 seven or eight supporters in Nova 9 Scotia for WCFU, but based on our 10 experience here in Manitoba, eight,
11 nine days ago, Jamie Murphy
12 certainly -- any support that he had 13 in Winnipeg didn't dare come out to a 14 public event nor to a scheduled
15 second meeting that afternoon. So I 16 have to question the depth of the 17 support.

18 At the same time, though, I
19 don't underestimate this organization 20 or any group that you represent in 21 Nova Scotia, and it is something that 22 will be monitored by anti-racists
23 very closely. But I certainly 24 question the depth of the support and 25 based on what happens here in

1                   Winnipeg, the support was, you know,
2                   to say it was feeble is to give it 3                   already too much credit.

4                   MR. WARREN: Chris, you still 5                   there?

6                   CALLER CHRIS: Yes, I am.

7                   MR. WARREN: All right.

8                   CALLER CHRIS: The depth of my 9                   support, I mean, you can't question 10                  me -- you can't question my support
11                  without having ever met me. I am -- 12                  as you heard, WCFU has opened a B.C.
13                  Chapter. I am leaving Nova Scotia in 14                  the next ten days. I am sure you 15                  were both on the forum. You can 16                  check the B.C. Chapter page. It is 17                  open to everybody.

18                  Read the write-ups, read the 19                  signature. I have been named 20                  president of the WCFU B.C. Chapter.
21                  My support goes far enough that I am 22                  leaving the east coast to support 23                  WCFU and I am not a neo-Nazi. So how 24                  can you say that WCFU is run by 25                  neo-Nazi?

1 MR. LOEWEN: We have been very 2 careful in terms of what we have said
3 here in Winnipeg about WCFU. What I
4 have said in part is that the whole 5 discourse around white pride and the 6 whole reference to race and loyalty
7 to the white race and that rhetoric,
8 that is classic racist ideology.
9 Case closed.

10 CALLER CHRIS: Okay. Because I
11 am proud to be white, I am racist.

12 MR. LOEWEN: And what is your 13 point?

14 CALLER CHRIS: Is that what you
15 are saying?

16 MR. LOEWEN: What is your point
17 about being proud of being white?

18 CALLER CHRIS: If I was proud to 19 be black, would it be racist?

20 MR. LOEWEN: Well, you know --

21 CALLER CHRIS: No, I would be 22 proud of my heritage and that has 23 become acceptable throughout Canadian 24 society. Now, I am proud to be white
25 and I am racist. That is wrong. You

1 want to talk about our 2 discrimination? That is considered
3 discrimination in my books. How 4 about yours?

5 MR. LOEWEN: Peter, this is why
6 I refuse to, you know, debate with 7 Glenn Bahr earlier, because it's quid 8 pro quo back and forth, you know, the 9 blacks said this and so on and so 10 forth.

11 CALLER CHRIS: Okay, what is 12 different about that, then? You 13 won't talk about that. You can't say
14 I am a racist.

15 MR. WARREN: Chris, I have given 16 you a whole bunch of time. You are 17 calling from Nova Scotia. You are on 18 your way to B.C. to set up a chapter 19 in B.C. I don't think B.C. wants 20 you, but I have got to say good-bye.

21 We will talk to Edmonton, we 22 find Dolly.

23 CALLER DOLLY: Hello, Peter.
24 Gosh, I just hear a real war here and 25 I am quite interested in this whole

1 thing here.

2 You know what, I am kind of 3 concerned is, you know, that the 4 German people in this country do not 5 have a voice, and I don't know, maybe 6 these young people, like that Glenn,
7 whatever his name is, you know, maybe 8 that is what he is fighting for.

9 And I am kind of concerned and I
10 will tell you why I am concerned,
11 because we had a friend, an elderly 12 man, who was put in a mental 13 institution and that is against the 14 law in this country to put somebody 15 in there without a doctor's 16 authorization.

17 MR. WARREN: You have gone all 18 the way around. In Okotoks, Steve.

19 CALLER STEVE: Yes, just a
20 couple of points for you. When you 21 fill out a form, as you should know, 22 on the internet, and I went to his 23 website. His website is run on a
24 Linux server, so when you fill out a 25 form, and push the stuff in, even if

1 give a fake name, a fake e-mail, with 2 three lines of code, he can go in and 3 harvest, because your machine has a 4 specific IP, he can harvest all the 5 information on your Windows and he 6 can create a database.

7 So please be careful when you
8 say "I used a fake name."

9 MR. WARREN: Well, I did it from 10 a work computer anyway, but I thank 11 you for that, Steve.

12 Last call for our guest is Ben 13 in Edmonton.

14 CALLER BEN: Yes, I was just 15 wondering, have you ever visited an 16 ARA website, Anti-Racist Association?

17 MR. WARREN: Mr. Loewen?

18 MR. LOEWEN: I didn't quite hear 19 it, but if he asked whether I visited 20 the Anti-Racist Action website, yes, 21 I have. Yes.

22 CALLER BEN: Have you ever 23 noticed that people who attend those 24 rallies often get very violent?

25 MR. LOEWEN: That's a misnomer.

1                   If one looks at, for example, the 2                   Aryan chapter in Toronto, the charges
3                   that occurred in the case of a number 4                   of activists were eventually all 5                   thrown out of court, in the case of 6                   the trashing of Gary Shipper's house.
7                   So this whole notion of violence in 8                   anti-racists is something that is 9                   overblown and it is actually a 10                  smokescreen.

11                 Anti-Racist Action had a very 12                 strong and proud history in Toronto 13                 of cleaning up the streets of the 14                 Heritage Front and other neo-Nazi 15                 groups. Without ARA, you would have 16                 a much stronger white supremacist
17                 presence in Ontario than you do now.

18                 MR. WARREN: Mr. Loewen, as 19                 usual, thank you for your time and 20                 expertise, sir.

21                 MR. LOEWEN: My pleasure. Thank 22                 you, Peter.

23                 MR. WARREN: Thank you very 24                 much.

25                 --- Radio interview stopped

1 THE CHAIRPERSON: I am sorry?

2 MR. VIGNA: I don't know if we should 3 continue. My witness is probably tired.

4 THE CHAIRPERSON: Madam Registrar,
5 what time is it?

6 THE REGISTRAR: 20 to 5.

7 THE CHAIRPERSON: I think Madam Clerk
8 has just gone 600 miles here, so I will break for today 9 and I will see you back here at 9:30 tomorrow.

10 --- Whereupon the hearing adjourned at 4:45 p.m., 11 to resume on Wednesday, May 24, 2006
12 at 9:30 a.m.

13

14

15

16

17

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT I HAVE, to 18 the best of my skill and 19 ability, accurately reported and 20 transcribed the foregoing.

21

22

23

_____

24

Tiffany Vincent

25

C.S.R.(A), R.P.R.